MEXICO DECLARES GOV. CANTU A REBEL

NOTORIOUS REBEL OUTLAW LAYS DOWN ARMS, WILL RETURN TO PRIVATE LIFE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

EAGLE PASS (Tex.) July 28.—Francisco Villa, bandit leader, surrendered unconditionally after an all-night conference with Gen. Eugenio Martinez, commanding the Torreon military zone, according to advices received by the Mexican Consul here today.

Villa will return to private life, the message added.

Much rejoicing throughout Mexico is reported with celebrations being arranged.

Carl Haeglin, American president of a brewery at Sabinas, who had been held by Villa for ransom, has been released, the report added.

What the terms of Villa's surrender were, aside from the one calling for his return to private life, were unknown here today.

Reports of the past few days were that Villa was negotiating by telegram with President De La Huerta at Mexico City and Gen. Martinez. The final negotiations with Gen. Martinez were personal, however, the Consul's information stated.

Yesterday refugees from Sabinas, which Villa recently captured, arrived at Piedras Negras, opposite here, and reported that Villa had killed more than a score of Sabinas women after cutting off their ears, as well as killing every Sabinas policeman. These reports lack verification.

Reports of Villa's negotiations for his surrender included statements that he had from 300 to 2000 men with him and that unless he could obtain satisfactory terms he would wage relentless warfare.

Villa was restored to full citizenship and will return to Chihuahua, his old home, it was understood. He also was given a yearly allowance by the Mexican government, the report added, and his men were restored to citizenship and given farming lands.

ROMANTIC CAREER.

Sketching what is most interesting about Villa rather than what, perhaps, is the most voracious, there is the romantic story of how he turned bandit.

Born in 1868 in the little mining town of Las Nieves in the State of Durango, he remained there until the death of his father. Then, as a protector of his mother and sister, he became a cowboy in Western Chihuahua.

From their parents, who were peons of Northern Mexico (some accounts say of a very good family), the children had inherited Spanish and Indian blood and traits. The story is that when a regiment of Porfirio Diaz's soldiers once visited the town the eyes of a captain alighted on Villa's sister. There was an elopement without marriage.

The most melodramatic accounts say that Villa galloped after the elopers, caught them and arranged their marriage. Then he told his

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HASTINGS (Neb.) July 28. This year I.W.W. activity has practically vanished from the wheat fields of Kansas and Nebraska. Radicals and disturbers who formerly were a source of great trouble to the farmers were driven out before they began their work, and in this house-cleaning the ex-service men were the great factor.

At labor distributing points the American Legion opened "harvest hostels" to take care of the thousands of hands as they poured into the States.

In Hutchinson, for instance, the Legion opened the convention hall and put in cots, writing tables and offered baths and recreation places to the men. The "jungle," as the "hobohemia" used to term the old conditions under which the harvest hands generally lived, disappeared and never were the men so well taken care of. It removed the disconsolate which the radicals in former

MUST REOPEN COAL MINES.

CHICAGO, July 28.—An appalling condition threatens the country unless something is done to reopen the Illinois coal mines, Gov. Frank O. Lowden declared in a statement tonight. Everything has been done that possibly could be done here to correct the situation, he said. The Washington authorities, he added, have, in effect, taken control and "it is to be hoped they will act with that promptness which the gravity of the situation demands."

BAR MANNIX FROM IRELAND.

LONDON, July 28.—The British government has decided that in connection with the proposed visit of Archbishop Mannix of Melbourne, Australia, to the British Isles, that he will not be allowed to land in Ireland. He has been notified of this, but the government is taking no steps to prevent him from boarding the steamer Baltic at New York.

DUBLIN, July 28.—A requisition has been signed requiring the Lord Mayor to summon a special meeting of the Dublin corporation to confer the freedom of the city on Archbishop Mannix.

WATCH JAPS IN SIBERIA

Geddes, Alston and Colby Confer.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The American government is understood to be closely watching Japanese relations and Japan's general policy in the Far East because of the effect on the questions involved in the recent withdrawal of American troops from Siberia, the signing of the consortium relative to Chinese financial aid, the assumption of control of the Chinese Eastern Railway by the Japanese, and the Japanese occupation of Northern Saghalien and much of the maritime province of Siberia.

Secretary Colby has conferred with Sir Auckland Geddes, British Ambassador, who brought to the conference Sir Colby Alston, British Ambassador to Japan, who is returning to London on leave.

INFORMATION GIVEN.

He gave Mr. Colby latest information from Tokio, supplementing the views of Roland Morris, American Ambassador to Tokio, who is home on leave.

British interests in China and Japan are regarded as parallelling to some extent those of America, because of the large business transactions between those countries and Canada and Australia, as well as the desire of the colonial governments and California, and other Pacific Coast States, to solve the problem of oriental labor.

Solution of this problem by the British government in the opinion here is made more complex by the Anglo-Japanese treaty.

WATCH RAILROADS.

Changes in the status of the Chinese Eastern Railway have been closely watched, since this line forms the most valuable branch of the Siberian railway and affords the only practical communication between the interior of Siberia and Vladivostok.

Both the United States and Great Britain are understood to desire that its international character be preserved to assure the maintenance of the open door.

As to the Japanese occupation of Saghalien the United States is known to be reluctant to concur. A dispatch from Tokio today said that the Nichi-Nichi had published a statement that Japan had received an inquiry partaking of the nature of protest from "a certain country" in connection with her intention to occupy this territory.

State Department officials would neither affirm nor deny that the country referred to was the United States but the general understanding of those in close touch with the situation was that it was the United States.

COUNTY ATTORNEY BRIBE CASE IS UP.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MINNEAPOLIS, July 28.—Inquiry into the charges against William M. Nash, suspended Hennepin county attorney, was begun yesterday by the Hennepin county grand jury, C. G. Davis, manager of the committee of thirteen being the first witness called. It was expected that Mike Welsman and Oscare Martinson, former Sheriff, both of whom have pleaded guilty in Federal court to complicity in the liquor smuggling conspiracy, would testify.

In addition to the liquor charges, Mr. Nash, at the ouster hearing before Gov. Bernquist, was charged by Weisman with receiving bribes in connection with District Court cases. The Governor has taken this case under advisement following a lengthy hearing. The grand jury will inquire into all of the charges alleging violation of the State law.

STORM-CENTER :: IN :: MEXICO.

Chief Executive of Beleaguered State.

Gov. Esteban Cantu,
Head of Lower California, whose great power and influence is being tested in a serious clash with government officials.

CANTU ASSURES AMERICANS OF SAFETY IF INVADERS COME.

MEXICALI (Lower California) July 28.—Americans and other foreigners in Lower California, interested in farming or any other lawful business, were assured protection in the event of invasion of this part of Mexico by Mexican Federal troops, in a statement issued here tonight over the signature of Gov. Cantu.

The Governor issued this statement when it became known that Americans at Calexico, Cal., and at other points just across the border in the United States were preparing to guard their interests against possible attack.

TO GRAB BAJA CALIFORNIA.

Ambitious Scheme Broached to Almada and to ex-Service Men Here.

Details of a more or less wild-eyed plot to invade Lower California next month with an army largely composed of former British and American service men, to seize the State and make it independent of Mexico, with a view to ultimate annexation to the United States, became known here yesterday in connection with the warlike developments in Gov. Cantu's realm. Certain unnamed Mexican emissaries have been endeavoring to interest local English, American and Canadian ex-soldiers here in the plot, but without great success.

Senor Baldomero Almada, who was appointed Governor of Lower California, but was barred out of office and who now is in Los Angeles, admitted yesterday that tentative efforts to interest him in the plot had been made, but said he had refused to entertain them because of their "utter absurdity."

U. S. Dist.-Atty. Robert O'Connor said last night that such a plot would be a serious breach of international law, and if any tangible evidence of it were obtained the Federal grand jury would be called immediately to consider it.

Although there have been rumors for several weeks among ex-service men of various Allied armies and former Mexican soldiers here whom there seemed a chance of tempting to become soldiers of fortune, that this movement was in the air, such a plot naturally would be attended by great secrecy and divulged only to those who had been carefully sounded first. However, what appears to be an accurate, though anonymous, outline of the plan comes from a Canadian ex-service man.

About a month ago, he says, an El Paso banker talked with him about the chances for soldiers of fortune for service in Mexico. He was interested and the El Paso man gave him two letters to other El Paso business men, one of them a former Mayor of that city. He did not present the letters.

About three weeks ago, in the lobby of the Y.M.C.A. Building, he saw another ex-service man with whom he had talked of his war service, talking with a flashily dressed foreigner. Later the foreigner approached, alone, addressing him by name, but introducing himself simply as "a Mexican." After a long talk the Mexican outlined to him the following plan:

On a certain fete day in August 400 American and British ex-service men, amply supplied with money and side arms, would cross to Tia Juana as sightseers. Late in the evening, when the crowd had thinned and after the 126 Mexican soldiers in Tia Juana had been encouraged to drink heavily, in honor of the fete, by Mexican confederates, the barracks, police headquarters, telephone and telegraph offices would be seized by the invaders. At the same hour similar surprises would be sprung at Mexicali and Ensenada, and the next morning 800 more ex-service men would cross the border from San Diego.

LOWER CALIFORNIA CHIEF CALLS CITIZENS TO ARMS TO RESIST DE LA HUERTA

MEXICO CITY, July 28.—Col. Esteban Cantu, Governor of Lower California, is in open rebellion, Gilberto Valenzuela, Subsecretary of the Interior, admitted today. The importance of the movement was discounted by Valenzuela, who said the government could handle the situation.

MEXICALI (Lower California) July 28.—Esteban Cantu, Governor of the northern district of Lower California, announced today that he had issued a call to all citizens of the district to arm to resist invasion, following reports troops were being sent to Ensenada on the West Coast and to an unnamed point on the gulf coast.

Gov. Cantu said he would use every resource at his command to repel the invaders if they came without authority from Provisional President De la Huerta.

Asked what step he would take if the troops had such authority, the Governor said:

"I would leave it to my people to decide."

FEVERISH HASTE.

Preparations by Gov. Cantu and his lieutenants to resist the invasion proceeded with feverish haste tonight.

The Governor announced he would have an army of 4000 men ready within four days to take the field against the Mexican Federal soldiers which he said he expected to arrive from Manzanillo and Guaymas.

Gov. Cantu stated he thought the invaders would number about 3000, those from Manzanillo to attack Ensenada and those from Guaymas to strike at some Colorado River point.

It was stated by officials close to Gov. Cantu that during the last two or three days a large number of men had arrived at Calexico from Mexico City. These men, it was asserted, held commissions direct from Provisional President De la Huerta. It was said one of them held a commission as Governor of Lower California, but no one professed to know the identity of this man. Several of these appointees attempted to see Gov. Cantu, it was stated, but the Governor denied them audience.

Although the reported presence of these men gave rise to some suspicion and much speculation, it was said the news Gov. Cantu claimed to receive from personal friends in Manzanillo and Guaymas of the invasion of Federals came as a complete surprise.

PUBLIC WORK STOPS.

Work on the new capitol building and extensive street and sewer work and other public improvements were immediately stopped on the announcement of the reported invasion.

Officials here said dispatch of Federal troops here would be in line with a request to Provisional President De la Huerta several weeks ago by Baldomero Almada, who was appointed Governor of Lower California, but to whom Gov. Cantu declined to surrender office. Almada is said to be in Los Angeles.

When Gov. Cantu practically refused to give up his position it was announced he had been authorized to retain it temporarily. Gov. Cantu said tonight his relations since then with the Federal government had been friendly and the reported statement of Gilberto, Venezuela, Undersecretary of the Interior, in Mexico City, that Cantu was in open rebellion against the Mexican government being entirely without foundation astonished him.

MANY OFFER SERVICE.

Mexicans of all ranks and stations in civil life were flocking to the executive offices tonight to offer their services to the Governor, it was announced, to help raise troops and to serve personally. There was a long line of men in front of each of three recruiting offices hurriedly opened by Gov. Cantu.

The proclamation of the Governor calling upon all citizens of the district to resist invasion by "Alvaro Obregon and President De la Huerta" was posted conspicuously here and in other cities of Lower California.

Large quantities of arms and ammunition are stored here, it was said by Mexican officials, and the regular troops, numbering about 1000, have been drilled by veteran officers of many nations. They are armed with rifles, machine guns and field artillery and several hundred are mounted.

HAS THREE AIRPLANES.

In addition, it was stated, Gov. Cantu's forces would be aided by three airplanes, one to be operated by Paul Dato, a brother-in-law to the Governor, and two by American ex-service men. It was said more than 1000 bombs had been manufactured for the use of the aviators.

Gov. Cantu immediately after learning of the reported invasion sent a telegram to Provisional President De la Huerta protesting against invasion and declining "all responsibility for the dreadful consequences" that might result.

The Governor said he expected the troops from Manzanillo would attack Ensenada in about eight days and that those from Guaymas would attack some Colorado River point, near Yuma, Ariz., in about five days.

Gov. Cantu tonight gave out the following as the full text of a statement in reply to that of Venezuela charging the Governor with rebellion against the Federal government:

CANTU'S STATEMENT.

"There is no rebellion against the Federal government on my part or by any of my people. The provisional government of the republic has acted in very bad faith in sending this expedition against the northern district of Lower California.

"There were other ways of attaining the ends sought if it was

EX-MAYOR OF SALT LAKE TO BE TRIED.

E. A. Bock is Accused of Appropriating $10,000 of City Funds.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 28.—Seventeen complaints charging misappropriation of public funds have been filed against E. A. Bock, until last week Mayor of Salt Lake City, Leslie Frazier, assistant County Attorney, announced today.

The total of misappropriations alleged is $10,000. One complaint charging forgery in connection with an alleged city warrant also has been filed against Bock.

Frazier said Bock last week had admitted, in a statement to the City Commission, that he had misappropriated the funds and that the Commission permitted him to restore the sum named and accepted his resignation.

An audit of the books of the Auditor's office, which office Bock held before becoming Mayor, has been under way for three weeks and is expected to be completed in about two weeks more. It was while Bock was acting as Auditor that the alleged misappropriations were made, the complaints charge.

Bock has been arraigned on two of the complaints and admitted to bail.

Tuolumne Miner Finds Pay Dirt in Rich Amount.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SONORA (Tuolumne county) July 28.—Working in a hundred-foot tunnel, R. M. Lewis has taken out 190 ounces of gold within the past two months, valued at $3500.

Lewis is working the Fidelity mine on Five Mile Creek, above here.

His fourth gold bar since June 1 has just been deposited in the First National Bank of this city for transmission to the San Francisco mint. He is working in high-grade ore, and in a fair way to make a snug little fortune, as his lease has a long time to run.

CANADIANS WILL FARM IN MEXICO.

British Government Finances Plan to Take Over 1,000,000 Acres.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CALGARY (Alta.) July 28. Gen. Critchley, well known in Canadian military circles, has recruited and taken into Mexico three battalions of British and Canadian war veterans to settle them on a million-acre estate, according to news received here today. These settlers, it was said, are organized on a thorough military basis, including four fully equipped air squadrons.

Gen. Critchley and his brother, Maj. H. C. Critchley, both of Calgary, are in command of the expedition, the expenses of which are being provided for by the British government with an appropriation of £300,000.

MEXICO CITY, July 27.—President De la Huerta today received a Canadian agricultural commission with which he conferred concerning a project to bring 10,000 Canadian farmers to the State of Coahuila. The commission received from the President all kinds of guarantees and encouragement.

HARDING TO VISIT WEST

Los Angeles Will be on Schedule.

BY PHILIP KINGSLEY.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MARION, July 28.—While the "front-porch campaign" has not in any sense been abandoned by Senator Harding and his advisers, it became known today that plans are being made for an extensive traveling schedule for the Republican candidate.

These plans are entirely tentative as yet, but it may be stated that Senator Harding probably will go into the West to Denver, Salt Lake, San Francisco and Los Angeles, as far South as Memphis, and that his itinerary will include New York, Boston, Chicago and Indianapolis.

MAJOR TALKS PLANNED.

He will deliver a series of major speeches dealing with various subjects covered generally in his speech of acceptance, such as Americanism, the League of Nations, the labor problem, agricultural problems, waterways, etc.

He will speak at the gateway to the South, in the center of the agricultural district, in the center of the foreign-born, and in the western regions where the cry is for progressives.

Senator Harding will continue to conduct his campaign from his home in Marion, in the quiet of his library, calling to him his advisers and silently thinking out thoroughly before starting out on a speechifying errand. He will not be driven into hasty rear platform speeches and will not do his thinking in the rush of traveling.

GOES TO THE PEOPLE.

But he will go out to the people, probably including several Ohio cities in his itinerary. He will not enter any State until after State primary fights are over.

One thing that his managers want to avoid is the mismanagement mistake of the Hughes campaign, when the candidate was mixed in local fights and left soreness behind.

There will be no such episodes as the ignoring of Senator Johnson, of California.

Senator Boies Penrose has been anxious to get the candidate out into the field. The advice of other Senators has been sought. Those who thought that the entire campaign could be waged from here have tempered their views, in view of a study of conditions which existed during the McKinley campaign.

"FREE" DAYS OVER.

In that day Republican organizations were supplied free with special trains. Now, everyone that comes must pay a heavy fare.

The date book of the Senator does not indicate that large delegations are coming here outside of Ohio. One delegation from New York is expected, and one from Detroit, made up of former supporters of Senator Johnson. The other delegations are from Ohio.

By the time the Cox speech of acceptance is delivered the Ohio party lines will be drawn and the fight will be on in this State. This is indicated even in the candidate's home town, where the nonpartisan spirit has been uppermost. The Marion Civic Association, which has had charge of the Harding visitations, has disbanded, and the reception of visitors from this time on will be a party affair, in the hands of the Harding Marching Club and representatives of the Republican National Committee.

DEMOCRATS LED.

It has been Democrats who have taken the lead so far in local arrangements. These public-spirited men are still willing to help their fellow-citizen, Mr. Harding, and want Marion to live up to the reputation as a host that it has already made, but they feel that the leadership should now be in the hands of Republicans, in view of the State fight that is on. Will H. Hays, national chairman, will have to look right and just that they be sought and in resisting, as the people of this district will resist to the very last, this uncalled-for invasion. They are only defending their homes, their families and themselves.

"The best that can be said for the government in this action is that they took an underground and unwarranted method of dealing with a condition that did not call for such a method.

"Since receiving notification that my reappointment or continuation in office, was approved by and acceptable to the new regime, I have proceeded in good faith to act in all matters for the best interest of my people and the relations between the State or territorial government and the Federal government have been most friendly and cordial. It cannot be said that I have committed one act of disloyalty or rebellion against the Federal government."

TROOPS ON WAY.

Three thousand Mexican Federal troops are on the way to Lower California, according to information Cantu announced today he had received from friends in Mexico City and Manzanillo.

Two thousand of the soldiers, said to be Yaqui Indians, were reported to Gov. Cantu, he said, to have left Manzanillo today in two transports for Ensenada, about ninety miles south of San Diego.

The other 1000, also Yaquis, were said to be leaving Guaymas, also today, for a point on the Gulf of California, a few miles below the Mexican line.

Gov. Cantu stated he understood the purpose was the occupation of the northern district of this territory.

He gave out the text of a telegram of protest he stated he had sent to Adolfo de la Huerta, provisional President.

Gov. Cantu said his information was that the troops bound for Ensenada would reach that port in seven or eight days, while those bound for a point on the Gulf Coast, said to be a place on the Colorado River, nearly opposite Yuma, Ariz., as a further objective, were expected to arrive at the latter point in four or five days.

Gov. Cantu said he had been told by his informants in Manzanillo and Mexico City—personal friends in both cities, he stated—the purpose of sending the troops both to Ensenada and the Gulf Coast objective was to make attacks from both places.

The reported dispatch of the troops would be in line with recommendations made a few weeks ago to Provisional President De la Huerta by Baldomero A. Almada, who was appointed by the provisional government as successor to Gov. Cantu, but who never took office.

Gov. Cantu practically declined to give up the post and the Provisional President was reported to have given him permission to retain his position "for the present."

CANTU'S TELEGRAM.

Gov. Cantu gave out, as follows, the text of the telegram he said he had sent to Provisional President De la Huerta:

"I have just had knowledge that this morning troops are leaving Manzanillo in order to attack the port of Ensenada and at the same time other troops are taking ship from Guaymas with the end of attacking this district from across the Colorado River.

"I find no reason that would justify the use of violence against a portion of our country where we enjoy order and tranquility, especially as there are pacific and patriotic means to attain the end which the government tries to attain through these extraordinary proceedings.

"It is my duty to call your attention respectfully but very energetically to the fatal consequences which may result from the proceeding you have adopted, especially to the serious international conflict which might come on account of the foreign interests established here.

"I appeal to your high and patriotic judgment in the hope you will deign to give orders to stop these proceedings, and in case my request be not granted I want to state I decline all responsibility for the dreadful consequences which may come from them."

NO CHANGE IN ELECTION.

It will be impossible to postpone the general elections in Mexico, set for August 29, according to a message from Adolfo De La Huerta, provisional President, received here today by Gov. Cantu, who last Saturday urged their postponement for three months.

President De La Huerta's message stated postponement was impossible because the date had been set by Congress, but he promised an orderly, honest and fair election, with protection for the interest of all candidates.

Gov. Cantu suggested postponement in the interests of honest methods and stated he feared complete national disaster would follow a new outrageous imposition in the next election. His plea for postponement was sent to President De La Huerta and the Governors of all Mexican States.

BUSINESS AS USUAL.

SAN DIEGO, July 28.—Merchants at Tia Juana, residents of the little border town, expressed no alarm when reports of a disagreement between Gov. Cantu and the Mexican provisional government were received today.

"Business as usual" will be the motto, it was said at the border.

Permits were issued at the border today as usual for crossing to Mexico and the reports of trouble have resulted in no diminution of travel across the line, it was said.

Ives G. Lelevier, agent here for the de facto Mexican government, said tonight that a determination exists in Mexico City to make Gov. Cantu respect the laws of Mexico, which he said Cantu had violated in taking over the customhouses. He also said that the government is determined to remove Cantu.

The appointment of a Governor of Lower California must be made by the central government of Mexico," Lelevier said. "Lower California is a Federal district and the Political Code of Mexico does not make any provision for the election of a Governor in such districts."

NO TROUBLE SINCE 1911.

Tia Juana has not been disturbed since the revolutionary trouble in May, 1911.

This warfare, waged first at Mexicali and later at Tia Juana, was not carried on by rival Mexican factions, but was waged by the Mexican government against a band composed of outcasts of many countries.

This band was organized by Gen. Cap Rhys Pryce, a Boer War veteran, and fought a few engagements with Mexican Federals at Mexicali, later moving on Tia Juana.

"After a two-day engagement, Gen. Pryce captured Tia Juana.

Gov. Celso Vega was in charge of Lower California at the time and his force fell back to Ensenada after the defeat at the hands of Pryce's band.

Pryce remained in possession of Tia Juana for about two months when he was forced to evacuate the town after Gov. Vega had recruited a force and marched on the place. The Governor was killed in this action and the marauders were driven across the border, where they were arrested by United States officials and held at Fort Rosecrans for a time. All were released later.

A garrison is maintained at Tia Juana and probably could muster 800 to 1000 men. Three or four machine guns and several three-inch field pieces comprise the artillery of the garrison.

UNITED STATES CONSUL AT MEXICALI ASKS GOVERNMENT TO OFFER ITS GOOD OFFICES.

CALEXICO, July 28.—United States Consul Boyle of Mexicali announced here tonight he had sent a lengthy telegram to the State Department at Washington urging that the United States offer its good offices in an effort to prevent hostilities between the troops of the Mexican provisional Federal government and those of Gov. Cantu of Lower California, which might result from the invasion of Lower California, reported under way by Mexican Federal soldiers.

Consul Boyle said he had also recommended to the State Department representations at Mexico City in favor of a modification of the policy which "seems to be guiding the de facto government of Mexico in dealing with the situation in Lower California."

Boyle announced his action at a meeting of citizens under the auspices of the Calexico Chamber of Commerce to discuss precautionary and protective measures that should be taken by Americans and the United States government. He said he would communicate with the United States consuls at Manzanillo and Guaymas to verify the reports of invasion and to obtain particulars.

A military guard is being maintained day and night here.

ALGODONES ACTIVE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

YUMA (Ariz.) July 28.—Soldiers and civilians at Algodones, Lower California, six miles from here, began preparations to resist a possible invasion by Mexican Federal troops following the posting there today of a proclamation by Gov. Cantu calling upon all loyal and patriotic Mexicans to resist by force an invasion by Alvaro Obregon and President De la Huerta.

The proclamation severely criticises Obregon and De la Huerta for causing trouble and dissension in the only part of Mexico that has been at peace for ten years.

years found such a fertile field for their preachings of unrest.

Also, the floating army this time is made up of a finer class of workers than usual. At least one-half of them are former service men. Many are farm hands from adjoining States who came in for the rush season. Many are college boys and a large number are men who went from the farm to the cities and are now beating it back to nature. The farmers are still talking of it.

EXTRA HELP EXCELLENT.

"Kansas never had such a fine bunch of harvest lads before," said a large operator at Great Bend. "This time 90 per cent used their forks. In other years 90 per cent used their knives and it used to be an army of sword swallowers. A small thing, but it tells the story. One town had a squad from a State university and they had their glee club with them."

"Yes," said a farmer at Wilson, flipping the same train of thought, "and many of the society men and college boys are now ambitious to become farmers. The farm is now starting a counter-drain against the city."

Along the 220-mile stretch between Great Bend, Kan., and Hastings, Neb., the farmers do not appear to have suffered much from the general exodus of men from the farms to the cities.

As the chariot drove into Sylvangreve, Kan., six farmers were accosted on the street.

"Wa'al," drawled the spokesman, "some of our boys go and some of them come back. If they are natural farmers, they soon get their fill of the artificial life of the cities, and the motor car has given the country boy all the advantage of companionship and accessibility to the outside world, the lack of which used to gird his soul in the old days."

"Yes," said another, "and the farmer keeps more of his boys than do other fathers. How many doctors' sons study medicine? How many ministers' sons become ministers? That's a good question for some of these professors who are worrying about the farmer boy and the city. Out here we keep most of them. Good home life, modern conveniences, above all a chance to acquire land—they are the things that do it. What boys we do lose are mostly boys who have a stronger bent for business or mechanics or the professions than for farming and they are the boys who give the city its needed new blood."

Fifty husky men in jumpers were watching the "world's champion one-handed billiardist" pocket the balls in Great Bend the other night. One group of six were from the University of Indiana, all city lads. "But believe me," said a tall boy, "when we get through school we are going to make for the country and grab up farms. That's where the dough is these days." To which sentiment the other five nodded their heads.

PROSPERITY HOLDS YOUTH.

At Vesper, three farmers were taking on oil. "We could use more steady hired men," said one, "but we have no real scarcity. I'm shy one hired man. He saved up a couple thousand dollars and I sold him a chunk of land. I lost him, but the land itself has the same number of hands, so what's the difference."

"Prosperity is bringing them back," said a philosopher at Superior, Neb., where they make the best pie in the world. "This year more boys have come back to the farms around here than have gone to the city, and they are glad to get home. Take a look at the farmhouses and you will get the reason."

"Machinery is making farming less back-breaking and more attractive," said a wise man outside a garage in Fairfield. "We are not losing many men around here, and we are gaining. It may be because we have cheaper land than Eastern States which are complaining of a depletion of labor. Boys will stick if they see a chance to get a stake in the land."

And so it went for 220 miles riding northward, one serial story, each chapter with the same ending: "No labor shortage here."

KENTUCKY GOVERNOR HELPS ROUT ROBBER.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Aroused by the scuffling of the guests with an alleged burglar in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel today, Gov. Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky rushed from his room and helped overpower the intruder who fought desperately to escape.

The alleged burglar was about to run into the Governor's room when the Kentuckian appeared in his pajamas and grappled with the man, [illegible] over to the police.

NEGRO STEALS PURSE FROM INJURED WOMAN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—As an aged woman lay fatally hurt in North Broad street yesterday, a negro snatched her purse and ran.

The victim, Mrs. Annie Newman, 80 years of age, was hit by a motor car. She died soon after admission to the Hahnemann Hospital.

As the driver of the car stopped and jumped out to assist Mrs. Newman, who was unconscious, a negro standing near by sprang forward and picked up her purse, which had been knocked out of her hand, and ran Francisco "Pancho" Villa.

A photograph taken two months ago by a staff correspondent of the Los Angeles Times at a time when Villa was resting in the mountains.

PANCHO VILLA, IDOL OF THE PEON, WHOLESALE MURDERER AND OUTLAW, IS TO BE GOOD.

EAGLE PASS (Tex.) July 28.—Francisco Villa, bandit idol of the Mexican peon, and for years a menace to governments of his country throughout Northern Mexico, is entrained tonight with his men for Torreon to take the first step toward his entrance once more to private Mexican citizenship, a consequence of his negotiations with the De la Huerta government, concluded at Sabinas today.

Advices from Sabinas told also the terms under which Villa agreed, in the words of Gen. Eugenio Martinez, commander of the Torreon military zone, to "submission to the De la Huerta government in recognition of its stability and his desire to retire to private life and abide by the laws of the government."

Under the terms, advices state, Villa is to be allowed a year's army pay for his soldiers, and be permitted to go with them to Torreon under personal escort where this condition will be effected. The band numbers about 1800, it is said. At Torreon, the men are to be "mustered out" of Villa's service and each allotted a tract of land. Villa, too, it is said, has been given financial guarantees.

Gen. Martinez, communicating to Emiliano Tames, Mexican Consul at Eagle Pass, termed Villa's acceptance as "an act of patriotism." He has wired that railroad traffic in the Sabinas district is being resumed and that he has given orders for running all trains on schedules.

Details of the negotiations say that the conference for surrender lasted all night, ending at 11 o'clock this morning.

Rumors of slaughter of Sabinas policemen and mutilation of bodies of many women there yet lack confirmation. Other reports tell of general rejoicing in Mexico and of celebrations planned.

mada as provisional President, the Mexican said, then would be proclaimed a new Lone Star State. To win support in the United States it would be made dry and gambling stopped. Arrangements already have been made, he said, to seize the Tia Juana liquor and dispose of it to Cubans for a sum which would be the nucleus of the new State treasury.

All expenses of the American and British soldiers of fortune would be paid, the Mexican said, and they also will be paid every night in American coin, privates receiving $7.50 a day and officers $10 a day. In addition, he said, members of the army of the republic will be given land grants, 250 acres to each private and 500 acres to each officer. Two airplanes already have been bought and a large amount of ammunition and arms assembled for the expedition, the propagandist said.

The Mexican further said that the conspirators felt sure of recognition by and annexation to the United States at an early date. That, he said, would increase by 500 per cent the value of the land grants given the army of the republic.

To learn further details, the Canadian said he was interested and was informed that he would receive a summons. A few days later a [illegible] note asked him to call at a certain place. He called and was interviewed at length by another Mexican. After that a .45-caliber automatic and a liberal supply of ammunition was delivered to him by messenger.

FORMER AMBASSADOR HAS LARGE ESTATE.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Robert Bacon, former Ambassador to France and once a member of the financial house of J. P. Morgan & Co., who died in 1919, left a gross estate of $7,585,563, according to a transfer tax appraisal filed today. The estate is left to immediate relatives. Trust funds of $200,000 each are created for the former Ambassador's four children. The widow is given a life interest in the whole residuary estate, besides her dower right in real estate comprising 209 acres. The net estate is $6,524,994.

WANTS SLAYER TO LIVE.

SACRAMENTO, July 28.—A petition to commute to life imprisonment the sentence of death imposed on Arthur Collins, who confessed to the murder of Policeman Donald C. Hathway of Los Angeles, has been sent to Gov. Stephens by John Cashman, a St. Louis attorney. Collins has been condemned to hang at San Quentin Prison on August 23.

newly acquired brother-in-law to sign his own death certificate, dig his own grave and lie beside it. Villa shot the bridegroom and rolled him into the grave. President Diaz, hearing of his officer's death, set a price on Villa's head. Whatever the exact truth, something of this sort occurred.

BECOMES BANDIT.

Villa escaped to the mountains and became a bandit. His real name had been Doreteo Orango, but as a bandit he became known as Francisco and "Pancho" Villa. He gathered together a number of desperate men of the northern mountain country, and within a few months his name was the terror of the region. He was Robin Hood incarnate. He and his band subsisted by robbery and pillage in the Chihuahua Mountains.

According to the more generous estimates of Villa's life at this time, his outlawry was rather in the form of guerilla warfare than actual brigandage, for the purpose of satisfying his revenge upon the dictator, Diaz. At the outbreak of the Madero revolt against Diaz in 1910, Villa, unasked, cast his lot with the Maderists, and rendered such valuable aid that Madero was forced to recognize the peon commander.

When Madero sent General Huerta into the north to combat the Orosco rebellion, Villa and Huerta came to a clash. They were much alike. Each contemptuous of the other. Huerta had Villa arrested and condemned to death by a military court for insubordination, but Madero's debt to Villa saved him from this extreme penalty. He was taken to Mexico City as a prisoner, readily escaped, and pushed his way north again, seeking refuge across the Texas border.

Villa's rise to his present power dates from the day when he started across the Rio Grande with two companions, six "borrowed" horses, $7 in money, and a meager supply of beans, coffee and sugar.

BORDER PLEASED.

EL PASO, July 28.—Reports of the surrender of Francisco Villa, Mexican bandit and revolutionist, pleased business leaders here and in Juarez, Mex., today. Opinions freely were expressed that Villa's surrender would do much to stabilize mining and industry in Chihuahua, the State in which Villa chiefly operated.

It was considered not improbable here that Villa would be given some police power in Chihuahua. He repeatedly has said he could control the State and keep it in peace if the government made him military commander in Chihuahua.

Surrender of Villa will mean the stopping of depredations by his numerous bands, it was said, who for years have wrecked trains by dynamite and other means; cessation of kidnapings and payment of large sums of money by foreign mining companies as a tribute to Villa.

Two months ago Villa told visitors to his camp that warfare he had waged in Mexico during the last few years had cost 40,000 lives of his enemies, and that unless his terms were met for joining the new government he had the power and will to fight and take 40,000 more lives if that were necessary to bring peace in Mexico.

MAY MEAN RECOGNITION.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Recognition of the new Mexican government by the United States, in the opinion of Mexican observers here, has been brought nearer by Francisco Villa's surrender.

Villa's status as far as the United States is concerned, however, is not changed greatly. He is under indictment charged with killing soldiers and civilians at Columbus, N. M., in 1916; the placing of himself under the laws of his own country may mean his extradition will be sought. In such contingency the Mexican government might be afforded fresh embarrassment.

VILLA TO RETIRE.

MEXICO CITY, July 28.—Gen. Garcia announced today that by terms of Villa's surrender, the bandit chief will retire to private life in a place designated by the government.

It is not likely that Villa will come to Mexico City, but will proceed from Torreon wheresoever the government directs.

Negotiations for the surrender have been to the entire satisfaction of the government, Villa obeying all orders.

LAREDO (Tex.) July 28.—Gen. Irenio Villareal, who led the recent attack against Monterey and later crossed into the United States near Zapata, reached Laredo today and presented himself to Dist.-Atty. Valls. He said he revolted because he learned that an order had been issued relieving him of his command and that he feared assassination had he gone to Mexico City.

"I came to the United States to work and earn an honest living," he said.

WORKING ON BALLOTS.

Time Limit Passes for Petitions to Reach Sacramento.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, July 28.—Last night at midnight was the time limit on the filing of nomination petitions for Congress, Senate and Assembly, and judicial offices, with Secretary of State Jordan. The county clerks were to have forwarded all filings to the Capitol by then. Several days will be required by the Secretary to segregate and index the petitions before he can announce the make-up of the August primary ballot.

It was announced that Congressman Raker, who had petitioned the Nevada County Clerk to cancel his Republican petition for re-election, decided too late. He is a registered Democrat, but he will go on the ballot seeking both Republican and Democratic nominations.

CHILEAN EARTHQUAKE LASTS ONE MINUTE.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SANTIAGO (Chile) July 28.—Advices received this afternoon indicate that this morning's earthquake had a vertical movement, affecting the central provinces generally. The quake lasted more than a minute in the town of Los Andes, at the foot of the main Andean range.

The glass dome of the fine arts building in Santiago was broken. There were isolated cases of minor damage, but no reports of injuries to persons have been received.

Commission Withdrawn as Successor to Cantu, He'll Keep Hands Off.

Baldomero Almada of this city, who was chosen some weeks ago as Gov. Cantu's successor in Lower California, but who was not permitted by Cantu to take office, said last night that he will take no part in the impending Lower California trouble. He stated that his commission as Governor of Lower California was officially withdrawn some time ago.

Asked if he though the sending of troops against Cantu from Guaymas and Ensenada was in response to his recommendation to the de facto President some weeks ago, he replied:

"Well, I don't know. It may be that after exercising a great deal of patience, and after exhausting every other recourse, De la Huerta came to the conclusion that my recommendation was well [illegible]

As to Cantu's position with regard to Mexican politics in general Senor Almada said:

"Everything has been quiet where in Mexico for some time [illegible] hear that there has been an understanding reached with Cantu. Maybe so. At any rate affairs things have been peaceful. The revolt develops in Lower California.

"This seems to me to be the action from the government in order to show Cantu that he cannot stand out in defiance of Mexico. The Lower California territory must come under the central government, else things can never be stable. The central government is acting for Cantu's good in allowing in the peninsula. MARY AND DOUG SAVED BY POLICE.

Greatest Crowd Ever Meets Noted Picture Stars When They Reach New York.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—Fighting their way through thousands of enthusiastic motion-picture fans who had gathered to welcome them as the White Star liner Olympic docked today, Douglas Fairbanks and his wife, Mary Pickford, were forced to seek the protection of a squad of mounted and motorcycle policemen in order to reach their automobile.

Never has there been such a demonstration in the memory of the oldest ship news reporter. As the crowds that lined the streets outside the docks caught their first glimpse of the honeymoon pair, they made a rush, bowling over the policemen who had been sent to the foot of Twentieth street, and made a frantic effort to reach Mary and Doug to shake hands with them.

Lifting his wife up to one of his shoulders, Fairbanks carried her to the center of a hollow square of dismounted motorcycle policemen and pushed his way good-naturedly through the lane that was opened in the ranks of the cinema fans by the mounted police.

While both agreed that it was "perfectly splendid" to once more be back home, Mary seemed just bursting to let the world know that she had contracted for a yearly supply of forty gowns from a famous studio of Paris.

"No one outside of the establishment will even catch a glimpse of the models of my gowns until I wear them in America," said Mrs. Fairbanks. "I know they will be the 'stunningest things!'"

MOST MEXICANS HERE BACK CANTU'S CAUSE.

NO OPEN DEMONSTRATION NOW PLANNED, BUT MANY ARE HOPING HE WINS.

Three-fourths of the 15,000 Mexican residents of Los Angeles are staunch supporters of Gov. Cantu. This statement was made to The Times last night by an official who is in closest touch with the Mexican element here.

While the Mexicans will probably not make any open demonstration in this city in favor of Cantu, it is expected that secret aid will be given him and subscriptions for the support of his faction will undoubtedly be obtained here, the official said.

"The Mexican people are tired of the incessant internal [illegible] which their country has [illegible] been immersed," he stated. "That have come to this city because they want to get away from the [illegible] in Mexico, but they long [illegible] peaceful conditions in their own country. For this reason many ardent supporters of Gov. Cantu they feel that he is the one man in Mexico who has maintained peace.

"While the rest of Mexico has been fighting, Lower California, under Gov. Cantu, has been peaceful.

Police and Federal officials maintain a doubly sharp watch to see that no arms or ammunition are shipped out of this city for the warring factions below the border.

OUTFITTERS OF DEPENDABILITY

Whipping Post Badly Needed, States Jurist.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DETROIT, July 28.—Re-establishment of the whipping post for wife beaters was advocated by Judge Sample of Grand Rapids, sitting in the Wayne County Circuit Court, in granting a divorce to Alice Hill, who charged her husband, Howard Hill, with cruelty.

She testified that they were married in 1916. When their baby was 4 months old her husband, she said, beat the child so severely that he drew blood. When she interfered he knocked her down and dragged her across the floor by her hair, which came out, she testified. He is now in the house of correction for assault.

"It is too bad," said the judge, "that we can only send such men to the house of correction. I would favor the re-establishment of the whipping post to deal with such cases."

Party With Wives, Mothers and Daughters Land in Manila.

Will be Entertained for Ten Days by Philippine Government.

BY FRAZIER HUNT.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MANILA, July 28.—Hollow-eyed and a little blue around the gills, but ready at the first tinkle of ice in the pitcher to clear their throats for an impromptu speech, the Congressional joy-riders arrived in Manila late today.

For de luxe tourists traveling in a private transport with none other than former Minister Reinsch, the Chinese government booster, as a host, the Congressmen seemed a little sad. But only because they were weak from lack of food.

Seventeen guns, forty-two decorated launches and prominent citizens of all sizes joined in the chorus: "Here come the conquering heroes." Following the docking ceremonies was a parade through the principal streets with distinguished visitors riding in low neck motor cars.

Tonight a big ball was given by Gov.-Gen. Harrison and for ten days the party, including fifty-seven women members, will be rushed hither and yon and back again.

Interviewed regarding the trip, one distinguished Congressman remarked:

"Only a fine sturdy government ship like the Great Northern could have withstood such storms as we encountered. Certainly, it was a good thing Dr. Reinsch got a government ship for us because had we come on a small liner we might have filled a watery grave, and think what the loss would have been. By the way, is it true one can buy something a little stronger than chocolate soda here? As a member of Congress I certainly must look into this liquor matter."

Following a ten-day visit here Dr. Reinsch, the $20,000 former Minister to China, will escort the visitors to dear old China. He hopes the little civil war will be ended by that time. Manila is just beginning to realize Dr. Reinsch and China are real hosts, and the Philippines is a mere tourist stopping place, but the Philippine government is going to make the best of the opportunity.

The Great Northern will take the party to Shanghai, and a month later the transport Madawaska will make a special trip to Japan to take the Congressmen home.

It's a great life if the typhoons don't get too naughty.

RED FLAG IN MANILA.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MANILA, July 27.—Striking farm tenants, whose rent has been increased six times forcibly have taken possession of a plantation and have raised a red flag near Manila.

This is the first time a Bolshevik flag has been used in the Philippines, and it is the initial attempt of tenants forcibly to demand what they consider a square deal from their landlord.

The dispute arose from the purchase of a former church estate by a new owner who felt he was compelled to raise the rental. Forty dispossessed tenants formed a set of the styled soviet and forcibly returned to their old homes, disarming the plantation guards. Forty more tenants are expected to join them. Local police, sympathizing with the tenants refused to oust them; so today an order was sent to Manila to enlist the aid of the constabulary.

The case involves old church estates purchased by the government years ago and leased at nominal charges to tenants who had lived for years on the property. Use of force by the tenants and the waving of a red flag show the Filipinos are not far behind the balance of the world in social unrest.

BAFFLING INSURANCE ACTION IS ADJUSTED.

COMPROMISE IS MADE IN CASE OF THE LATE G. W. KNACK OF IOWA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SIOUX CITY, July 28.—By making a compromise settlement of cases involving $235,000 life and accident insurance on the life of the late Gustave W. Knack of Hartley, Iowa, attorneys have probably closed one of the most baffling insurance mysterious recorded in the annals of this State.

Attorneys who effected the compromise settlement will not divulge the amount of money to be paid.

"It represents a very substantial payment of the estate of Mr. Knack, and also means a substantial saving to the insurance company concerned," said an attorney, who returned Monday from Worthington, Minn., where the adjustment was made.

Knack's body was found in a lake near Worthington, on May 28, 1919. A few days later his bank at Hartley was found to be insolvent, as also was his estate.

The estate of the murdered rancher is valued at $100,000 including an 800-acre ranch at Fullerton, lots in Los Angeles and San Jacinto, cash, Liberty Bonds, two automobiles, household goods and farm equipment.

One of the supposed victims of the half dozen murders to which Gibson confessed before being taken to San Quentin prison, a man in Waggoman, La., did not die from the attack but recovered, it was disclosed today in a telegram from the Sheriff at St. James Parish, La.

ANGLO-JAP TREATY MUST BE MODIFIED.

CONFLICTS WITH COVENANT OF LEAGUE AS IT STANDS AT PRESENT.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, July 28.—An interesting situation has arisen in connection with the Anglo-Japanese treaty, which both nations have notified the League of Nations will be modified to conform with the covenant of the League.

A league official has pointed out that Article XX of the covenant requires immediate denunciation of any treaty or agreement which conflicts with the covenant.

"If an American were the League executive," said the officials, "he would immediately insist on enforcement of this clause. It is my opinion the Anglo-Japanese Treaty will not be renewed, as it will not fit the covenant of the League. Even now the League may ask for the treaty for the purpose of examining it to see if it fits the covenant. The British dominions are set against the treaty. They must be parties to any renewal."

FLEEING JAIL BREAKERS RAID TWO HOMES; POSSES START IN PURSUIT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

Two men also were reported to have broken into the house of Rose Pierce half a mile south of Cayuse.

The two fugitives heavily armed, drove Young and his family from the house with threats, ransacked the dwelling for food and then disappeared in the underbrush, it was said. Three automobile loads of possemen left here at once for Cayuse.

HARD SLEDDING FOR DRY LAWS.

Chicago Chief of Police Scored by Official.

Claimed that Juries Won't Convict Violators.

Powerful Influence Said to Stop Convictions.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, July 28.—Chief of Police Garrity was taken sharply to task today by E. J. Davis, Chicago superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, for failure to assist in checking the open sale of liquor in this city. The chief had previously made a statement that juries refused to convict violators of the prohibition amendment.

Davis says all that is necessary for the police to do is to file the evidence of violations with Maj. A. F. Dalrymple, prohibition enforcement chief, and it would then become the duty of a judge to issue an injunction closing the place.

Attention is called to the fact that this method of closing saloons is in operation in other cities. It is possible for the judge issuing the injunction to close the offending saloon for a period of one year and there is also provided a fine of not less than $500 up to a $1000 and imprisonment from thirty days to one year.

Admittedly the officials trying to enforce the prohibition laws in this city have an especially rocky road to travel. When the cases of violation are so clear there can be no doubt of conviction, there appears a faulty indictment or some powerful influence working under cover prevents any punishment of the violators.

Beginning with the pressure put upon Maj. Dalrymple by the higher-ups in Washington, the battle to prevent or even check the sale of liquor here has been losing ground constantly.

Famous Doctor Dies in Obscure Rooming-house.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PITTSBURG (Pa.) July 28.—Dr. Harry E. Campbell, who was found dead in his room in a rooming-house at 605 West Fifty-sixth street, New York, was for many years a prominent physician in the Manchester and North Side district, according to friends of the dead man.

Dr. J. W. Shreck, a close friend of Dr. Campbell, said today that prior to leaving this city he had occupied rooms in the Real Estate Savings and Trust Building, Federal street, North Side.

Dr. Campbell was a genius, Dr. Schreck said, when asked what he knew regarding the physician. Dr. Campbell had held the reputation of being one of the best diagnosticians in Pittsburgh and was considered one of the most prominent physicians in the city.

Dr. Campbell's wealth steadily diminished, friends say, and the fact that he could not finance his daughter's musical education caused him to brood and he finally left for New York.

GOV. COX WILL ANSWER CHRISTENSEN.

BOURBON LEADER WILL REPLY TO REQUEST FOR LIBERATION OF DEBS.

DAYTON (O.) July 28.—Response soon will be made by Gov. Cox to the request of P. P. Christensen of Salt Lake City, Farmer-Labor party candidate for President, to join in an effort to obtain release of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist nominee.

Gov. Cox today received Mr. Christensen's second telegram and said he would reply after he drafts his address accepting the Democratic nomination, probably late this week. It is expected generally he will decline to act in Mr. Debs's behalf. He has received papers from Washington in the Debs case.

The Governor put in a full day on his address and planned to work until midnight. He said he was making rapid progress and also condensing successfully.

An important part of his address he said, will be held up for telegraphic transmission August 7, notification day, instead of being contained in that mailed to newspapers. The Governor said the insert would be brief, but prominent.

Gov. Cox today conferred on educational affairs with Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart of Kentucky. She seconded the Governor's nomination of San Francisco and came here at his request.

TRIAL ON FOR MODESTO NEGRO

Jury Secured to Hear McKenna Murder Case.

Autopsy Surgeon Says Death Due to Chloroform.

Illegal Operation Believed to Have Been Performed.

MODESTO, July 28.—Rapid progress was made today in the third day of the trial of P. O. McKenna, negro proprietor of a hotel at Waterford, near here, on a charge of the murder of Mayme Helm last January.

The work of securing a jury was completed early this afternoon and the opening statement was made for the State by Dist.-Atty. W. J. Brown, who stated the prosecution would seek to prove that McKenna had either smothered the girl to death when she repulsed his attentions, or that he had killed her to cover up an offense previously committed against her.

Dr. J. L. Hennemuth, autopsy surgeon, was the principal witness for the State this afternoon. He testified that, in his opinion, the death of the girl had been caused by strangulation, due to the administering of chloroform.

Attorney L. J. Maddux, counsel for McKenna, conducted a lengthy cross-examination of the autopsy surgeon in an effort to prove that the girl's death had been from natural causes. In reply to a question as to whether the girl's death had been caused by eclampsia, the witness stated it was possible, but not probable. He said he was firm in his opinion that the administering of chloroform brought about death.

Dr. Hennemuth testified that the autopsy indicated an attempt had been made to perform an illegal operation on Miss Helm, but that this was insufficient to produce death.

FOUR MORE NAMED IN SUGAR COMPLAINT.

DIRECTORS OF UTAH-IDAHO COMPANY HAVE BEEN INCLUDED IN SUIT.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 28.—Four men not named in the original complaint filed against directors of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company, charging infraction of the Lever Act in connection with sales of sugar, are named in an amended complaint filed here by Isaac Blair Evans United States Dist.-Atty. The three named in the original complaint are not mentioned in the new document.

The three not named are Heber J. Grant, president of the company and head of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; W. T. Pyper and H. G. Whitney. These are said not to have been directors at the time of the alleged infraction of the law. The four new names added to those charged are David A. Smith, W. S. McCormick, James D. Murdock and W. H. Watts.

SLAYER OF HER SON RECOVERING SANITY.

MOTHER OF "BUDDY" BLAKE RESPONDING TO CURE NEAR ATLANTIC CITY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ATLANTIC CITY, July 28.—Mrs. Esther Miller Blake, mother of 5-year-old "Buddy" Blake, whom she was accused of having hurled to death in the ocean at Ventnor, last winter, is said to be recovering her sanity.

Mrs. Blake is a patient in the New Jersey Hospital for the Insane, near Atlantic City. Specialists announce a new cure, to which she was subjected, is proving successful.

In the treatment her front teeth have been extracted and a special serum injected as a part of the modern cure for insanity. Physicians of the staff say Mrs. Blake's health has improved to such an extent that she converses lucidly.

ENGLAND GIVEN LINCOLN STATUE

Lloyd George, Viscount Bryce and Root Speakers.

American Gift to Nation is in Heart of London.

Unveiling is Done by the Duke of Connaught.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, July 28.—The rugged features of Abraham Lincoln, whose face Premier Lloyd George described as the one best known to the Anglo-Saxon world, were revealed today to the gaze of the multitudes that daily pass through Parliament Square in the heart of London.

The St. Gauden's statue of the emancipator, gift of the Americans to the British people, was unveiled in a pouring rain by the Duke of Connaught, after a public meeting at which tributes to the martyred President were paid by the British Prime Minister, Viscount Bryce and Elihu Root.

REMARKS SIGNIFICANT.

Thousands of persons stood for hours to witness the ceremony, but most of them saw a forest of umbrellas. Mr. Root's speech of presentation was vigorously applauded, especially his declaration that in no great world emergency could Britain and America be on opposite sides.

The audience cheered Mr. Lloyd George when he accepted the statue for the British people.

"Resolute in war, he was moderate in victory," was the Premier's tribute, in which the audience read present international significance.

Every other tribute Mr. Lloyd George paid Lincoln was applauded, particularly his remark that "this torn and bleeding earth is calling today for the help of men with such qualities as those of Abraham Lincoln."

Wreaths had been placed at the base of the statue by various societies.

Mr. Root recounted in detail Lincoln's life struggles and his ideals, which, he maintained, Englishmen understood at the time he commanded public attention.

He emphasized this by reading a copy of a sympathetic letter 6000 Manchester cotton operatives, unemployed because of the shortage of cotton during the war between the northern and southern States, sent to Lincoln after promulgation of the emancipation proclamation.

In an endeavor to impress on his audience the human side of Lincoln Mr. Root read familiar parts of his second inaugural address and his letter to Mrs. Bixby of Boston when he learned she had lost five sons in battle.

HARDING DENIED GAME OF GOLF.

Republican Nominee's Only Play is Automobiling.

Wants to See Ball Game, too, and Plans for One.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MARION, July 28.—About the only recreation that U. S. Senator Harding, Presidential nominee, is getting these days, is motoring with Mrs. Harding in the evening.

Senator Harding knows all the highways and byways of this section and often he sits at the wheel while his chauffeur takes a place beside him.

Occasionally the Senator takes a spin into the adjoining county, where he was born. There the country is rolling and the rural scenes delightful. Late today Senator and Mrs. Harding motored to Columbus.

As much as Senator Harding likes golf he has enjoyed but two games, both foursomes, since his return from Washington, on July 5, one on the Mansfield Country Club links in Richland county and the other on the Scotio Club grounds, near Columbus.

IS BASEBALL FAN.

The Republican nominee also is a baseball fan, but he has not seen a game since his return. He may soon go to Columbus or Cleveland to see one, it was announced today.

Senator Harding never attends a ball game or plays golf on Sundays. "I like to attend church," he said to newspaper men in his daily chat with them. Usually he attends worship in the mornings.

Word from prominent Galion and Crawford county Republicans received here told of the desire of many supporters of Senator Harding in the city to join Richland county's forces Saturday in their visit to Marion, when the front porch campaign will be formally opened.

PLANS FOR SPECIAL.

Plans have been made whereby Richland county's special train will stop at Galion to take on the delegation from that city and surrounding territory. This will mean that the already immense crowd will be increased by several hundred people.

The Galion Republicans have been extended a cordial invitation to join forces with the Mansfield delegation and take part in the celebration and festivities.

According to word at Republican club headquarters, there will be many aboard the special train from rural communities.

During the week the club will erect road signs to Marion leading over the route which has been specified as offering the best traveling conditions.

TURKS MAY SIGN TODAY.

Peace Treaty is Now Ready and British Mission is on Way to Sevres.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, July 28.—If the British delegates are not detained on their journey from Constantinople and arrive in time, it is probable that the peace treaty with Turkey will be signed at Sevres tomorrow. There is a possibility, however, Greece may withhold her signature for the present because of a controversy between the Greeks and Italians over the islands of the Dodecanese in the Aegean.

Premier Venizelos of Greece is returning to Paris tomorrow and the belief was expressed that the Italo-Greek controversy would be settled in time for the signing.

The difficulty that loomed largest this evening was the fact that the Turkish delegation had not put in an appearance and that its whereabouts did not appear to be known.

PARIS IS PLEASED.

The Paris press is gratified over the results of the Boulogne conference. Most newspapers consider the outcome a feather in M. Millerand's cap, pointing out that he persuaded Premier Lloyd George to adopt the French views both on the Russian and coal questions.

RED DRIVE GOES ON.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WARSAW, July 27.—The Polish retreat continues along the entire front, according to latest news on the fighting operations received here.

Reports from Bolshevik sources indicate that the Bolsheviki intend to occupy Suwalki, fifty miles northwest of Grodno, and Bialystok, forty-three miles south of Grodno, before the beginning of the armistice negotiations set for Friday. The Bolsheviki are now within ten miles of Bialystok.

GERMANS CURIOUS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, July 28.—That Germany should be represented in the proposed conference between Allied and soviet representatives at London was the opinion expressed to the Reichstag today by Dr. Walter Simons German Foreign Secretary.

"I am now curious to see," the Secretary declared, "whether, in the negotiations soon to begin on the eastern question between the Entente and soviet Russia, the Entente again will make the same mistake as at Versailles when it undertook to solve the eastern European question, namely, that of proceeding without Germany.

"If that should happen then eastern peace will become a house of cards, much more unstable than the peace of Versailles ever can become."

CZECHS NEUTRAL.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PRAGUE (Czecho-Slovakia) July 28.—Considerable discussion is going on in the Czech newspapers here over the possibility that the Allies will demand military help from Czecho-Slovakia in connection with the Russo-Polish problem, or permission for the passage of arms, munitions or troops through this country. The sentiment, especially on the part of labor, is one of insurmountable aversion to any form of help in military action against Russia.

GREEKS SUCCESSFUL.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ATHENS, July 28.—Greek military operations have been relatively bloodless, but successful, because of the rapidity of the Greek movements. They seem to appear at the right time and place with overwhelming forces, causing the morale of the Turks to break both in the Asia Minor and Thracian campaigns.

When the Greeks debarked at Rodosto a week ago, the soldiers throwing themselves into the sea, the quicker to get ashore, the Turkish commander of the Fifty-fifth Division is reported to have telephoned the Nationalist commandant at Adrianople, Col. Jafar Tayar: "I cannot hold out; my soldiers are running away like chickens."

Greek troops operating in Thrace total 50,000; those in the Asia Minor campaign 90,000. They are well equipped and experienced soldiers.

It is estimated there were as few as 100 casualties among the Turks and Greeks in Thrace, but a few thousand have been reported in the Asia Minor campaign.

FRENCH IN DAMASCUS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BEIRUT (Syria) July 26.—French entry into Damascus Sunday was marked by acceptance by the new Sheriffian government of conditions laid down by Gen. Gouraud, French commander, involving chiefly immediate disarmament and the end of the regin of Prince Feisal, who has been invited to leave the country.

Aleppo was occupied by the French July 23.

NAVY OFFICER WOULD SETTLE ITALIAN RIOT.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BUENOS AIRES, July 28.—A dispatch to La Nacion from Rome says Robert Underwood, Johnson, American Ambassador to Italy, has presented Foreign Minister Sforsea a memorandum from Rear-Admiral Philip Andrews saying the admiral could maintain order in Spalato, Dalmatia, if Italian warships were withdrawn.

The correspondent adds some surprise was occasioned by the fact that Ambassador Johnson presented the memorandum to the Foreign Minister.

Rear-Admiral Andrews, commander of the American squadron in the Adriatic, recently took command at Spalato, where Jugo-Slavs and Italians clashed.

MANNIX :: PROTEST :: SENT :: POPE.

Australians Are Peeved at Archbishop.

Archbishop Daniel Mannix

Of Australia, who recently was excluded from the British Isles by order of the Premier, Lloyd George, is pictured above. This action was taken by the Premier because of the pronounced pro-Irish statements attributed to the churchman during his visit to the United States.

ROME, July 28.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Strong remonstrances from Australia on the utterances in the United States of Archbishop Daniel J. Mannix of Melbourne have been received by the Vatican. The protests state that the archbishop's assertions do not represent the feeling prevalent in Australia, and ask that some tangible public declaration be made in order to protect the loyalty of the large majority of the Australian population.

Western Women Lose Control at Convention.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) July 28.—Another automobile tour featured the convention of Business and Professional Women's Clubs here today, while awaiting committees.

When the convention proper reconvened at 2 p.m., reports of the work of various State federations were read and presidents of the State organizations outlined their plans for future activities.

The credentials committee which has been in session since yesterday presented a majority and a minority report, precipitating a debate which continued until a late hour tonight, at the conclusion of which western women were defeated in their fight for control of the convention, which hinged upon the question of proxies. The executive committee ruled against the use of proxies by any except members of clubs issuing same and by this ruling probably defeated Miss Gail Laughlin of San Francisco for re-election as president and lost to the Pacific Coast city the honor of entertaining the 1921 convention.

Shot His Father; Lad is Praised in Police Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Edwin Williams, an 18-year-old bellboy, was commended by the judge when he appeared in police court today in connection with the shooting of his father last week in defense of his mother.

The mother had previously confessed to the shooting in an effort to save the son. Both mother and son were freed.

"You should be proud of your son," the court said to Mrs. Williams. "He has proved himself a man. He has a man's spirit, and a son's."

Williams was shot through the thigh. The wound was not dangerous.

Gen. Hines Resigns from Army.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Maj.-Gen. Frank Hines, in charge of the War Department's transportation service, has resigned to become vice-president and general manager of the Baltic Steamship Company, with headquarters in New York, it was announced today.

Pass the Summer in Finest Health

Take a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin when tired, dull or constipated. Quick results!

WE cannot all spend the Summer in cool mountain resorts, and those who stay at home and swelter through the hot days will find it necessary to be extra cautious about their health. Hot foods are easier to digest than cold, and even hot soup, though it overheats for the moment, is grateful to the system.

Above all, keep the bowels open; that in itself cools the blood and calms the nerves. But when the bowels are sluggish and show signs of constipation, take a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and you will get quick relief. Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin which druggists have sold for a quarter of a century. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world.

Syrup Pepsin is the family doctor, the chief medicinal reliance of thousands of people in constipation and ills of the stomach, liver and bowels, in warding off colds, headaches, fevers and summer complaints. Mrs. R. B. Masters of 1424 Second Ave., Birmingham, Ala., has used it in her family for twelve summers, and she never misses an opportunity of telling her friends how healthy Syrup Pepsin has kept them. It has many uses these summer days.

FREE Millions of people of all ages suffer from occasional or chronic constipation. Let them send name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 512 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., for a free sample bottle of his wonderful Syrup Pepsin. 8 million bottles were bought at drug stores last year, the largest sale in the world.

Many a Pretty Face Spoiled by Pimples

Unsightly Disfigurations Tell of Impure Blood.

Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other parts of the body.

Not only are these pimples and splotches disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting irritation and pain. Sometimes they foretell Eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other annoyances that burn like flames of fire and make you feel that your skin is ablaze.

When these symptoms appear on any part of the body, take prompt steps to rid the blood of these disorders. And the one remedy which has no equal as a blood cleanser is S.S.S., the purely vegetable blood medicine, which has been on the market for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

If you are afflicted with any form of skin disease do not expect to be cured by lotions, ointments, salves and other local remedies, as they can not possibly reach the source of the trouble, which is in the blood. Begin taking S.S.S. today, and write a complete history of your case to our chief medical adviser, who will give you special instructions, without charge. Write at once to Medical Director, 608 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—[Advertisement.]

COX IS SILENT ON PROHIBITION

Will Disappoint Those Expecting a "Wet" Address.

All Up to Congress, is View of Democratic Leader.

Spends Busy Day With His Speech of Acceptance.

BY R. B. SMITH.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DAYTON, July 28.—Those who are expecting Gov. Cox, Democratic Presidential nominee, to take a bold stand in his acceptance speech for raising the alcoholic content in the Volstead Act, are going to be badly fooled.

Although the Governor has been carefully guarding his acceptance speech against "leaks," he said today there would be nothing in his address that could be interpreted in any way as an answer to Richmond Pearson Hobson's demand that he clarify his position on the liquor issue.

Despite the fact that Gov. Cox has been denounced by Bryan and the Anti-Saloon League as an ultra-wet, those closest to him expressed the belief that if he dealt with the prohibition question at all in his acceptance speech, it would be only in a most general way.

ALL UP TO CONGRESS.

The Governor, they say, takes the position that the Eighteenth Amendment is fastened in the bedrock of the Constitution. A "dry" Congress passed the Volstead Act. The Supreme Court has upheld the right of Congress to specify just what is "intoxicating liquor."

Gov. Cox is expected throughout the campaign to take the position that the control of Congress is in the hands of the people and that if the voters desire they can elect "wets" and change the law.

Mr. Cox spent the entire day at Trails End working on his acceptance speech. He has given up all recreation. He is busy dictating to his stenographer and hopes to have the first draft ready tomorrow.

The only visitors at Trails End today were Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart of Frankfort, Ky., who seconded Cox's nomination at San Francisco, and Mrs. J. Q. Baker of Middletown, O., a sister of the Governor. Mrs. Stewart is widely known as an educator and the Governor got a few points from her on educational questions for his acceptance speech.

TO ANSWER MESSAGE.

The Governor received another telegram from Parley P. Christensen of Salt Lake City, Farmer-Labor nominee for the Presidency. Mr. Christensen said he intended to make every effort to secure the release of Eugene V. Debs from prison and added that he "has not lost hope of bringing the President to see the tyranny involved in the imprisonment of Debs." Cox said he would reply to Mr. Christensen after he completes his acceptance speech.

Preparations for the Miami Valley celebration Friday and the notification ceremonies on August 7 are going on apace. Dayton is putting on its holiday decorations. It was stated today that from forty to fifty bands heading delegations from every section of the country will march.

Word came today from Marion, Senator Harding's home town, that a good-sized delegation of Democrats might be expected from that city.

"ANTIS" ASK HEARING.

NASHVILLE (Tenn.) July 28.—Gov. Cox was requested today to grant a hearing to the women of the South on questions of "State's rights and party honors" in a message sent by the Southern Women's League for Rejection of the Susan B. Anthony amendment.

The message declared "home-loving women of the South, who do not picket, card index or blackmail candidates, appeal to you to grant us a hearing, not on woman suffrage, but on two fundamental democratic principles, State rights and party honor."

The appeal was made, the message said, because it was proposed to "bring about political conscription of our womanhood and destruction of southern civilization by using Federal patronage and party pressure to coerce legislators of Tennessee into violating their oaths of office and their State's constitution."

The Democratic suffrage plank was declared to condemn the women of the South and the majority of the women of the country without a hearing, and was characterized as "a studied insult to the women of the South," implying a desire to "read out of the party the South because it opposed ratification."

Gov. Cox was entreated to extend to southern women "seeking neither votes nor offices" fair consideration before casting his lot with a "small group of pickets whose chosen symbol is a badge representing their jail terms for persecuting a Democratic President."

WILL GRANT REQUEST.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DAYTON (O.) July 28.—"The request will be granted, of course," said Gov. Cox, on being informed tonight by the Associated Press of dispatches stating that the Southern Women's League for Rejection of the Susan B. Anthony amendment was asking him for a hearing.

The Governor said he had not yet received the telegram.

UTAH FARMERS HAVE A NEW GET-RICH SCHEME.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SALE LAKE, July 28.—Officials of the State Automobile Association have appealed to the law to put a stop to what is declared to be a systematic and united effort on the part of farmers in the vicinity of Calla, Utah, to make easy money from automobilists.

For weeks, a huge mud hole has caused motorists passing over the highway inconvenience and sometimes actual damage to property. The farmers have been exacting heavy tolls for hauling the automobiles from the deep rut. The State association charges that the enterprising farmers are deliberately maintaining the hole as a means of profit.

The precinct authorities are alleged to be winking at the "get rich quick" practice, at any rate the association claims the authorities paid no attention to complaints and the hole still invites motorists to fall into it, while the farmers are conveniently handy with the required team of horses. The association will post warning notices to protect autoists.

SCARCITY OF MILK IS CAUSE OF HIGH PRICES.

DAIRIES ARE FORCED TO SUSPEND OPERATION AND HERDS ARE REDUCED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—A total of 4205 gallons less milk daily than the usual shipments to San Francisco has resulted from conditions in the dairy industry which have caused eleven dairies to go out of business altogether and one other to sell part of its herd, according to figures from the Associated Dairymen of California, given out today by Gilbert S. Daniels, State market director.

The figures were submitted in response to a request from the market director for the reasons for the announced increase of 1 cent a quart in the price of milk, effective August 1.

Alfalfa hay costs about $30 a ton compared with $9 in 1914, Mr. Daniels announced, while milkers are being paid $110 a month and found against $45 and found six years ago.

Kansas Industrial Law Called Fair and Wise by Union Labor Head.

KANSAS UNION LABOR IS ASKED TO REFLECT.

Organizer Flemming Says Industrial Court is Fair to Workers; Wants Radicals' Calls Ignored.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TOPEKA, July 28.—A. L. Flemming, organizer for the American Federation of Labor, has sent a letter to all the union men in Kansas, asking them not to join the clamor of certain union-labor leaders against the new industrial court law until they have a more thorough understanding of the law and the court. The letter was written by Mr. Flemming after an investigation covering a period of nearly two months.

He found a great deal in the law and the operation of the court which, he thinks, should prove of great benefit to laboring men of the state. The letter points out all of the wage controversies which have been filed before the court and decided and closes with this appeal to the laboring men of the State:

"Wouldn't it be well, before condemning the Court of Industrial Relations, to give it an opportunity for a fair try-out?"

LETTER TO WORKERS.

The letter to the laboring men follows, in part:

"To all organized laborers, greeting:

"This is to certify that on July 8, 1920, the writer had about two hours' and fifteen minutes' talk with Gov. Allen in regard to organized labor and the Industrial court. I have been a member of organized labor for eighteen years. I have attended eight American Federation conventions and five State conventions, and sincerely believe that Gov. Allen is the fairest man of his standing that I have ever talked to in regard to organized labor.

"Before the laboring men of Kansas join in the clamor of some of our union-labor leaders against the industrial court they should take the trouble to understand it better.

ALLEN'S RECORD GOOD.

"There is nothing in Gov. Allen's record to indicate that he was unfriendly to organized labor and nothing in the court to indicate that it is framed as an unfriendly measure to labor.

"The provisions of the law and the personnel of the court both hold forth the presumption that it is a court of justice and that the decisions of the court so far indicate that it may result in a blessing to labor. Something over a dozen cases have been brought before the court and every decision affecting wages has been rendered in favor of labor.

"Mr. W. E. Freeman, president of the Kansas Federation of Labor, helped to bring a case for the members of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America against the Joplin and Pittsburg Railway Company. The court promptly allowed a scale increasing the maximum pay of motormen and conductors from 42 cents to 55 cents an hour; blacksmiths were increased from 49½ cents to 55 cents per hour; machinists from 51¼ cents to 55 cents; armature winders 51¼ cents to 60 cents; headlight, tail-light and telephone men from $126 to $135 per month; helpers and other minor employees were given corresponding increases. The order of the court making these increases was obeyed by the railway company and the increases were satisfactory to the employees.

WAGES ARE RAISED.

"In a case brought by the International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen and Oilers against the various railroads of the State the court increased the minimum wage from 35 cents to 45 cents per hour and the maximum from 42 to 55 cents per hour. The railroad companies have appealed this case, declaring that since the Federal wage board was created, the Kansas court has no jurisdiction.

"In the Topeka Edison Company case, involving a wage controversy, the court ordered an increase of 7½ cents per hour on the basis of eight hours per day, allowing time and a half for overtime and double time for Sunday.

"A case brought by Alexander McCallister and other shot firers against the Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' Association was dismissed June 15 because the Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' Association met the demands set forth in the application to the court.

PRACTICE IS STOPPED.

"The court also wiped out the practice of the coal operators in making a 10 per cent discount from wages of every miner who drew his pay between pay days. This 10 per cent referred to amounts to 10 per cent a week, or 520 per cent per annum. This evil practice had been going on in the mining district for a good many years, and the miners' own officials had never asked for its correction. The court corrected it upon its own motion.

"On complaint of the linemen of the Joplin and Pittsburg Railway Company, involving a wage controversy, the court ordered a wage increase as follows: Ground men from 42 cents to 45 cents per hour; second-class linemen from 46⅝ cents to 50 cents per hour; first-class linemen, 49 1-4 cents to 62½ cents per hour.

"The complaint of the train dispatcher of an interurban railway company in a similar case was considered by the court. These men received $160 per month. The court found that the work was done by telephone and not by telegraph; that no considerable length of time was required to learn the business; that the work in no sense has the responsibility of regular train dispatchers on the steam railroad. Under all the circumstances, the court decided $160 is a fair wage and no increase was allowed.

"The section foremen brought complaint in a similar case. They were receiving $160 per month, which the court increased to $115 per month.

WAGE FAIR ONE.

"The substation operators on an interurban road made complaint asking for an increase in salary. These men were receiving $102.45 per month. From the evidence it appeared that the work was of such nature that often the wife or one of the children of a substation operator performed the duties, which were light in their character and required no great skill. It was also shown that these substation operators had considerable time for other work, and under these circumstances their wage was fair and no increase was granted.

"The truck men, or maintenance-of-way men, in a similar case, brought action. The court found that these men are all American; that they are men of intelligence and capable in their line of work, and that their wage should be increased from 42 cents to 45 cents per hour.

MANY BOOSTS ALLOWED.

"The Topeka local union of the Amalgamated Association of Electric and Street Railway Companies brought an action through their local officers, assisted by one of the international vice-presidents of that organization. The court granted an increase in wages per hour as follows: Car men (two-men cars) from 38 to 52 cents; car men (one-man cars) 41 to 55 cents; armature winders, 45 to 60 cents; comptroller men, 43½ to 55 cents; blacksmith's helpers, 42 to 45 cents; carpenters, 50 to 55 cents; painters, 45 to 55 cents; painters' helpers, 35 to 45 cents; car cleaners, 35 to 45 cents; sweepers, 35 to 45 cents; oilers, 37½ to 45 cents; pitmen, 45 to 55 cents; pitmen helpers, 40 to 45 cents; shop laborers, 40 to 45 cents; welders, 50 to 55 cents.

"The Supreme Court of the State on July 19, 1920, rendered a decision which holds the Kansas Industrial Court constitutional.

"There are several wage petitions before the Industrial Court now brought by union laboring men. They will be heard and settled in July.

"Wouldn't it be well before condemning the court of industrial relations, to give it an opportunity for a fair tryout?

"Yours fraternally,
"AL FLEMMING,
"Organizer A. F. of L."

Court Denies New Trial for A. C. Townley.

FAIRMONT (Minn.) July 28.—A. C. Townley, president of the National Nonpartisan League, and Joseph Gilbert, former league organizer, today were denied new trials on charges of conspiracy to encourage disloyalty during the war. They are under ninety-day jail sentences.

District Judge E. C. Dean made the order. Townley and Gilbert were convicted at Jackson, Minn., a year ago, on charges growing out of speeches there made, in behalf of the Nonpartisan League in Jackson county. Their trial lasted three weeks.

Appeal to the Minnesota Supreme Court is expected on behalf of Townley and Gilbert.

In a memorandum accompanying his decision, Judge Dean severely censured the attorneys for the Nonpartisan Leaguers, characterizing the conduct of defense counsel as "uniformly insolent and extremely obnoxious."

Judge Dean in his memorandum charged that Nonpartisan League newspapers, which had a representative in the courtroom during the trial, "published vicious and untruthful accusations and attacks on the State's attorneys, the court and county officials."

Colorado Bank is Robbed.

COLORADO SPRINGS, July 28.—The State Bank of Peyton, seventeen miles east of here, was held up and robbed of $8000 this afternoon. Two men wearing goggles locked the assistant cashier, A. L. Tieffer, and a customer, Curt Walters, in the vault. Then they took everything but the contents of the safety deposit boxes and fled in an automobile.

Kansas Weddings Are Increasing Despite H.C.L.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) July 28.—The high cost of living has not cut down the number of weddings in Kansas. The first six months of the year brought more marriages than any six months since the State has been keping a record of weddings, and it was the best period for babies in four years.

Births reported in the six months ending June 30, totaled 18,650, compared to 16,906 last year and 17,954 in 1917. Marriages totaled 11,109 for the six months, as against 8457 in 1919, and 9659 in 1917. Deaths for the six months totaled 11,297, compared to 10,643 in 1919, and 11,493 in 1917.

June was the healthiest month of the six this year with only 1376 deaths reported. It also was a record month for weddings with 3537.

KISSEL Custom-Built SIX

A KISSEL CUSTOM-BUILT SIX will take a full load over the 8000-foot summit of Clark Grade to Big Bear Lake on a hot July day without once boiling the water in the radiator, or the necessity of adding to the water supply. On the downward trip your brakes will give no trouble, and you can use your motor as a brake without fouling the spark-plugs.

All of these things directly affect your safety and your pleasure in mountain motor trips. We can tell you briefly why a Kissel possesses these qualities.

When the automatic thermostat in the Kissel motor is wide open, 210 pounds of water per minute circulate through the Kissel radiator. The Kissel four-blade fan is scientifically designed to pull a maximum amount of air through the radiator. Louvres in the sides of the hood and in the pan at either side of the motor and a ventilator in the top of the hood permit the free passage of the air away from the motor. The water that is cooled in the radiator enters the motor block at the rear—around the hottest cylinder.

Kissel brakes are double external contracting—efficient, trouble-proof.

The Kissel oil supply to the motor varies according to the pressure on the foot-throttle. Rolling down hill in second gear, with throttle closed, a minimum oil supply reaches the motor.

Such things as these mean to the experienced motorist that "Custom-built" in the Kissel, at least, applies to every feature of the car's construction as well as to the lines and finish of the beautiful Kissel body types.

Kissel does not build yearly models, but makes minor changes and improvements from time to time.

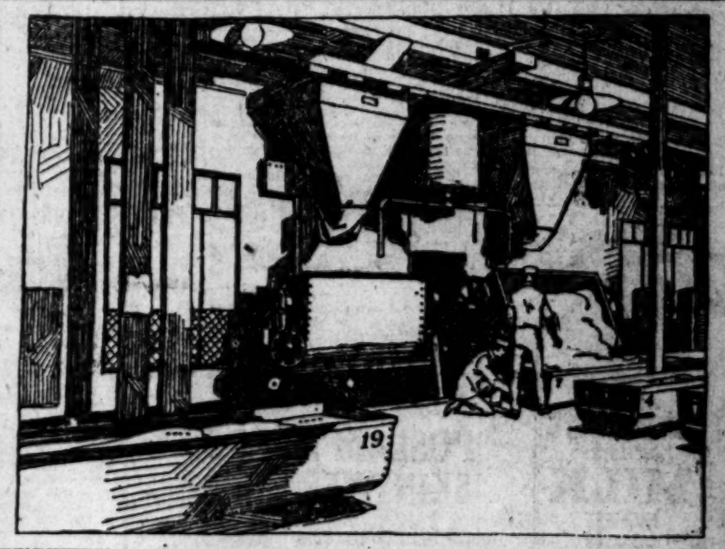
The Story of Modern Bread Making—Chapter X.



The High-Speed Mixer
In Bread Baking

ONE of the highly important steps in bread making is the proper hydrating or saturating of the flour. Unless the moisture has sufficiently penetrated the starch cells they will not be ruptured by the steam, in baking, and the starch will not be made accessible as food.

The moisture is absorbed by the gluten of the flour mainly during the mixing process. To incorporate the moisture thoroughly, the familiar hand-kneading in the home kitchen is not entirely adequate. It is necessary, on the contrary, to beat the dough under a high speed and considerable pressure, in a scientifically constructed machine known as the "mixer." This process also insures the uniform distribution of the materials in the dough.

It is not true that all mechanical mixers in present use have this action. There has been wonderful progress in the scientific construction of baking machinery in the past few years, and only the most modern machines put into practice the principles which are now known to be correct.

Scientifically correct mixing in the type of machine shown here insures the proper hydration of the flour in HOLSUM Bread, so that every particle of the starch will be ruptured and made available to the digestive fluids, resulting in bread that is completely digestible.

Proper mixing has much to do with the digestibility of bread,

FIVE-YEAR TRIP FOR AMUNDSEN.

Explorer Now at Nome Fitting Out for Voyage.

Another Attempt to Reach Pole Contemplated.

Hundreds Gather to Welcome Noted Norwegian.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NOME (Alaska) July 28.—Roald Amundsen, Norkegian explorer, will remain in Nome for two weeks and then will steer his vessel into the Arctic Ocean for a five years' expedition, he announced today. Amundsen arrived in Nome last evening from Ledge Island, where the Maud lies anchored. The two weeks will be occupied in provisioning the ship for her long cruise, the explorer said.

Amundsen was taken in an automobile to a hotel, where hundreds gathered to greet the discoverer of the South Pole. He said it was the first time in two years that he had been in a place where he could "clean up."

MEETS POLAR BEAR.

Amundsen told of an encounter which he had with a polar bear last winter, in which his clothing was torn from his body, an arm broken and his back and legs severely lacerated. He is still suffering from the effects of the encounter.

Amundsen has gone to Nome, it is thought, to outfit for another attempt to reach the North Pole. According to Christiania dispatches in April, the explorer hopes to lock his boat in the ice off Eastern Siberia and drift across or near the pole. He plans to be gone five years.

Ever since Amundsen sailed north from Norway in 1918, he has been in the Arctic. For nineteen month he was no heard from. First word from him came in April, 1920, when members of his crew arrived at Anadyr, Siberia, across the Bering Sea from Nome, and reported they had come overland from the Arctic, where the Maud was waiting for the ice to break so he could sail south to Nome.

ACCOMPLISHES GREAT FEAT.

Amundsen's arrival at Nome, it has been said, gives him claim to first circumnavigation of the globe through the waters between the Arctic ice pack and the northern half of Europe and America. The first leg of the journey was completed in 1902, when he discovered the Northwest Passage from the Atlantic to the Pacific around North America. The second leg has just been completed by his journey from the Atlantic to the Pacific around Europe and Asia.

If Amundsen reaches the North Pole, he will have touched both ends of the globe, for he is credited with the discovery of the South Pole. In going north he hopes to confirm or refute the claims of the late Rear-Admiral Robert E. Peary to discovery of the northern tip of the world.

The Maud, which sailed from Norway in 1918, arrived at Sledge Island, fifteen miles from here, five days ago, but because of storms was unable to make this port. She will remain at her present anchorage for several days.

Hundreds of telegrams from all parts of the world were waiting for Amundsen when he arrived here. He announced that a number of the Maud's crew would be discharged here, and the vessel would resume her voyage in the northern ocean with only three other men besides himself aboard.

The Maud is a three-masted ship and carries 200 tons of supplies.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW ORLEANS (La.) July 28.—Six-year-old Miriam, the "$1.13 a week baby," who has been the center of considerable litigation between her father and her mother, is now held illegally by the former, it is charged.

When Mrs. Barton appeared in the Juvenile Court and asked $5 a week for the support of the baby, her husband, as defendant, asserted that it required only $1.13 a week to feed such a small baby.

The court's dignity was ruffled and the $5 was awarded. Later Barton was ordered by Judge Skinner in the Civil District Court to pay $15 a month alimony to Miriam's mother. When called to court for failure to pay, it was found, according to the charges, that he had abused his Sunday privilege of taking Miriam away for a day, taking her away for good. A search has been instituted. It is believed that he fled to Brownsville, Tex., with the baby.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN IN SMUGGLING CASE.

GOVERNMENT CHARGES CONSPIRACY TO BRING IN DIAMONDS FROM EUROPE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—The mysterious woman said to be connected with the $50,000 diamond smuggling case in which Nils Jacobson, a sailor, was arrested, was examined yesterday before Commissioner Hitchcock.

It is charged that three persons conspired last May to smuggle jewels into the country and that three overt acts were committed by the defendants. One of these had to do with the unnamed woman, who, it was asserted, "entered into a conversation July 2, with one Sonda Escola," a Finn.

It is further recited that July 22 Jacobson attempted to smuggle diamonds from Stockholm and that two days later Michael Safron visited the rooming-house at 224 West Eighty-second street.

The woman, Jacobson and Safron, a Russian, who lives with I. C. A. K. Martens, the alleged soviet envoy, are said to be the conspirators. The woman whose name is not revealed, was in court, heavily guarded.

I.W.W. PRISONERS TO BE RELEASED ON BAIL.

MEN CONVICTED LAST DECEMBER MAY GET APPEAL; FRIENDS RAISE FUND.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) July 28.—Judge Kimbrough Stone of the United States Court of Appeals, sitting on the Kansas side yesterday, ruled that the twenty-six I.W.W., convicted last December were entitled to bond pending the hearing of their appeals. The bonds will range from $1000 to $5000. The men now are in the United States prison at Leavenworth.

Their names will be placed in a hat at the I.W.W., headquarters at Chicago and, as the funds permit, drawn out to determine the order in which they will be released.

In considering their appeal the court must pass upon the multitude of legal questions raised by their attorneys during the week's trial before Judge John C. Pollock on the Kansas side.

LOWER CLOTHING PRICES COMING

Retail Merchants Declare Further Cuts Are Due.

Bankers Said to be Aiding in Bringing Reductions.

Shoes also Due to Come Down, it is Asserted.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, July 28.—Prospects for still lower clothing prices are very bright, according to 400 retail dry goods merchants here attending the sixtieth annual convention.

Within the last three months clothing prices have slumped, in some cases 50 per cent or more. Suits that were marked $90 three months ago are now offered at $35 and the merchants are eager to sell.

Bankers put a highly effectual check on the skyrocketing clothing prices by refusing to advance any more money whereby merchants could stock up on goods at exorbitant rates. They told the merchants to unload their fancy priced stuff and get back to earth. Inasmuch as the merchants had to have money, they began to unload.

The same pincers are now being applied to shoe dealers and where they refuse to take over immense surplus stocks from manufacturers who must have funds, the latter rent buildings and conduct cut rate sales. This is breaking the market wide open.

Merchants assembled here say there will be no appreciable drop in cotton goods, but wool prices are due for a noticeable decline. Jobbers are already quoting prices 15 to 20 per cent lower than thirty days ago.

The short cotton crop, short hours of labor and the great demand for cotton goods will keep those stocks fairly close to the present figures.

Linen will continue to advance to a point where people will refuse to buy. Russia, which in 1914 produced 80 per cent of the flax crop of the world, is no longer able to export and the Scotch and Irish crops are consumed at home.

Large consignments of linen have been thrown on the markets by the United States and other governments, the war surplus, but it is being snatched up by manufacturers and linen stocks and goods will soon be out of the reach of ordinary buyers.

HUNT FOR BERGDOLL BEGINS IN SEATTLE.

MINNESOTA JURIST SAYS NOTED FUGITIVE WAS ON TRAIN WITH HIM.

SEATTLE, July 28.—Agents of the Department of Justice are today searching Seattle, Bellingham and vicinity for Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft evader, who escaped from military guards at Philadelphia May 21, last.

Judge Douglas, who arrived in Seattle Monday evening, informed the officers a man answering Bergdoll's description exactly had occupied a berth opposite that of the judge. Judge Douglas positively identified photographs of Bergdoll as that of his fellow-passenger.

THE NEW.

STORES AND HOMES.

ITEMS, IDEAS AND PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.

By Olive Gray.

Skirt-Interest:

The revival of the bustle, the perky little outstandal, formed from tunic draperies, has brought hip bustle—each with a modernizing touch—are features of gay little parisian dance frocks.

Trains on elaborate evening gowns have no more regard for the fabric or the color of the garments to which they are attached than earrings have for ears. Many times these little irresponsible trains are merely yards of lovely ribbon, caught at the waist line of the dress and trailing on the floor in peacock showiness.

The use of fur as the main material of the cloak or coat, as duvetyne or velvet formerly was the top, or the collar, or the sleeves to which broad fur bands are attached. In fact, the tendency is to regard fur as the principal and substantial yardage in forming the garment de luxe, with other fabrics as trimming.

Winners in Fashion's Yacht Race.

Suits of plain color, but of two-tone effect, will be popular.

Reversible dolmans of mole are lined with brocaded velvet.

Large combs made of peacock feathers are worn for evening.

Attractive lingerie is of flame-colored chiffon shading into rose.

Novelty silk voiles have large painted flowers, with metal leaves.

The sleeve for fall will be three-quarters in length and quite loose.

Coats sometimes have heavily quilted collars and cuffs of taffeta.

A gown of black lace has a sash of black velvet edged with the lace.

Brown vellons have borders of metal embroidery in rich bronze color.

Large hats of black velvet are being worn with the semi-evening costume.

The long-waisted bodice of one dancing frock was entirely of taffeta roses.

Skirts are made with pleats in the sides rather than in the back and front.

Very smart is the black crepe georgette dress trimmed with self-fabric.

The most favored colors for gloves are mode, mastic, beaver and brown.

A black silk muslin dress is embroidered with narrow white velvet ribbon.

Practically the only trains are the fluttering ends of ribbon or tulle sashes.

White linen dresses are very attractive with butter-colored collars and cuffs.

Evening frocks often feature sashes which hang below the hem of the dress.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) July 28.—Through an accident last fall that cost four lives a father was returned last night to a three months old baby and a husband restored to a deserted bride of the war.

Late yesterday, Mrs. Myrtle Bailey carrying her three months old baby boy walked into the Nineteenth-street police station and told her story.

"I live at Carthage, Mo.," she said. "Alvin Bailey was a sweetheart of our school days. He was in the thirty-fifth Division in the war. Just before he left for France, I went to Lawton, Okla., and we were married. Then I went back to Carthage to await his return.

"In September I read of a terrible motor accident in which Alvin was injured. That gave me a line on where he was and I got into touch with a company in which he held accident insurance. I found him to be assistant manager of a motor firm at 1607 McGee street."

At the police station Bailey was surprised when he saw the baby boy.

"I had no idea of this," Bailey exclaimed and reached for the baby.

"I want to go right and be square with my wife and baby. Let's clean the slate and start over."

The wife agreed and the baby nestled closer to his penitent dad.

SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY FIGHTS LOS ANGELES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

FRESNO, July 28.—Believers that the matter should be considered from a valley standpoint, directors of the Fresno Chamber of Commerce, meeting yesterday with representatives of chambers at Porterville, Visalia, Lindsay and Tulare, referred to the San Joaquin Valley Water Conservation and Development Association, reported incursion of the city of Los Angeles on streams of the valley for power and water purposes.

The reported filings of Los Angeles on hydro-electric power possibilities in the valley were thoroughly discussed by A. G. Wishon, general manager of the San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation. Decision to battle against the encroachments of the southern part of the State on the water and power possibilities of the valley appealed to the chamber directors and secretaries as the logical way to combat the power-seeking activities when water is vitally needed for irrigation, and power development in the valley itself. President William K. Glass of the San Joaquin Valley Conservation and Development Association, was in the chair at the meeting, in the absence of President Chase S. Osborne, Jr., of the Fresno County Chamber of Commerce. Action will be taken to avert, if possible, the granting of the applications made for filings on waters of the Kings and other San Joaquin Valley rivers.

WESTERN DELEGATES ARE GIVEN SET-BACK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. PAUL, July 28.—Western delegates to the annual convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs suffered a setback tonight in their fight for control of the convention. The executive committee reversed its former decisions to allow voting of proxies from organizations other than those represented by delegates.

The plan to permit voting of proxies was sponsored by the western group headed by Miss Gail Laughlin of San Francisco, president of the federation. It would have placed control of the sessions in their hands

FORMER ANGELENO IN LOCKUP IN FLORIDA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CINCINNATI (O.) July 28.—Elmer Meach, professional bondsman of this city, is on the way to Pensacola, Fla., tonight, where he will attempt to identify a prisoner believed to be Maurice De La Tour, former Los Angeles cinema actor, having, it is asserted by the police, a long California prison record and who forfeited a $3000 bond furnished by Meach here a month ago. De La Tour was charged with attempting to rob a safe at St. Mary's Church.

Dennis Ryan, local police inspector, received word from the Fort Leavenworth (Kan.) Federal prison that finger prints of the Pensacola prisoner had been identified as those of De La Tour.

GOMPERS ROARS AS MILLS CLOSE.

Republican Conspiracy, Says Union Labor Leader.

Federation Will Fight Attempt to Lower Wages.

Actions of Corporation Are Termed Crimes.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Mentioning the suspension of operations by the American Woolen Company and the announced intention of the Pennsylvania Railroad to reduce its working force, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a statement today declared that "action of corporations which today lay off thousands of men is nothing less than a tremendous indictment of management and a heinous offense against a people in need of every possible ounce of production."

The Federation of Labor, he asserted, at all hazards, will resist wage reduction.

"For months we have heard the cry: 'Increase production,'" Mr. Gompers declared. "How can a policy of increased production be accomplished under a policy of laying off thousands of workers?"

DIVIDENDS MENTIONED.

Discussing the woolen company's action, Mr. Gompers said it had increased its net income in 1919 316 per cent over 1914, and its common stock earnings 531 per cent.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, he added, plans to lay off 12,000 men.

"Will this help move freight?" Mr. Gompers continued. "Will it help give the nation that increased production of what it stands in need? Or is the laying off of workers a revival of that old and crude policy of laying off men during a political campaign for the purpose of driving them in fright and necessity into a political camp?

"In addition, there have been reports of efforts to decrease wages. There is no excuse and much less a reason for reduction of wages."

Government Men Find a Still by Sense of Smell.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—Two prohibition agents claimed they "followed their noses" today to an alleged still operated by Nathan Goodwin, a tailor, 3960 Folsom street.

The agents assert they were passing Goodwin's place and smelled the odor of liquor. They obtained a search warrant, raided the establishment, and found, they claim, two stills, one in operation.

Goodwin was arrested and will be arraigned tomorrow before U. S. Commissioner Manley.

NOTORIOUS DESERTER BELIEVED AT SEATTLE.

POLICE SEARCH FOR BERGDOLL, WHO IS SAID TO HAVE ENTERED CITY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) July 28.—Following the report that he was seen on a train entering Seattle, Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, notorious draft evader, is being sought here by operatives of the Department of Justice.

According to information received by J. F. McAuley, chief of the bureau of investigation here, Bergdoll arrived in Seattle Monday night and inquired the way to Bellingham.

Police and county officers in Bellingham were notified to watch all boats and trains and a general search has been instituted throughout Western Washington for the fugitive.

The report that Bergdoll was in the Northwest was brought to Seattle today by Judge W. C. Douglass of St. Paul, former Attorney-General of Minnesota, who declares that Bergdoll was on the train with him and got off in Seattle.

"Although I had never seen Bergdoll, I recognized him at once from the photographs and descriptions I had seen," said Judge Douglass.

The story advanced by Department of Justice operatives is that Bergdoll has been traveling across the continent, changing trains at night and that he expects to escape over the border into Canada.

ARMY OFFICER MUST NOT PLAY POLITICS.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Army officers and others connected with the military establishment are prohibited under an order issued today by Secretary Baker from taking any part in active political management or political campaigns or from using their official position to influence the the result of an election.

Mr. Baker said the order was not directed at Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, who was a Republican candidate for the Presidency, and who since has promised his active support to Senator Harding.

The Secretary would not be more specific when asked if the order would affect Gen. Wood's future activities in politics.

NEW YORK PLANS TO STOP FAKERS

Press Agents Must Tell Truth About Their Bosses.

District Attorney Displeased With Recent Stories.

Discovers Law Which Makes a Crime of "Fakes."

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—Dist.-Atty. Swann has dug up a law which he says will curb press agent "faking." He has issued subpoenas for five persons concerned in one of the most recent fakes, which caused the police to drag the Central Park lagoon for the body of a Japanese film actress, who the next day appeared on the screen on Broadway.

Detective O'Hanlon found among the belongings, which the press agents had "planted" at the Hotel Pennsylvania, the suicide letter of "Miss Yuki," which had been conceived as a front-page sensation. The detective unwittingly spoiled the campaign of the publicity men by putting the letter in his pocket and keeping it out of the papers.

The concocting of this letter, according to Dist.-Atty. Swann, is forgery in the third degree, according to Section 3, Chapter 889, of the Penal Code, which says:

"A person who shall knowingly alter or shall cause, aid, abet or otherwise connive at, or be a party to the making, altering, forging or counterfeiting of any letter, telegram, report of other written communication, paper or instrument purporting to have been written or signed by any other person, or any paper purporting to be a copy of any such paper or writing, where no original existed, which said letter, telegram, report or paper purporting to be a copy therefrom of aforesaid, the persons uttering the same shall know to be false, forged or counterfeited, and the uttering of which the sentiments, opinions, conduct, characters, prospects, interests of rights of such other person shall be misrepresented or otherwise injuriously affected, is guilty of forgery in the third degree."

This is a misdemeanor, punishable by a year's imprisonment and a $10,000 fine.

The District Attorney also called attention to a law passed by the last Legislature and effective September 1. One provision reads:

"Any person who knowingly and willfully states, delivers or transmits by any means whatever to any manager, editor, publisher or reporter, or any other employee of a publisher of a newspaper, magazine, publication or periodical or serial, any false and untrue statement of a fact concerning any person or corporation with intent that the same shall be published, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

LAWS FOR JAPANESE NEEDED, SAYS SWOPE.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—Specific legislation by the United States government to solve the Japanese immigration question in California is deemed necessary by Congressman King Swope of Kentucky, who has just returned after an investigation on the Pacific Coast, as a member of the House Committee on Immigration.

Swope, as chairman of a subcommittee of the House committee, went deeply into conditions in Southern California. In a statement tonight he said, "This country has reached a point where we should not permit any unassimilable race to fill up our Pacific States or any other State."

He said the entry of any or all Japanese should be predicated on "their ability and desire to become real, loyal, patriotic Americans."

Important legislation enacted by the next session of Congress will be based upon the committee's report when it assembles in Washington, he said.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL WEDS NURSE TODAY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

OMAHA, July 28.—Alexander W. Woodruff, general superintendent of the Union Pacific Railroad, will be married in New York tomorrow to Aline Noucarou, a pretty French Red Cross nurse whom he met when he was in France with the American Army.

Superintendent Woodruff was a major in the railroad section of the Army. Pretty Miss Noucarou was the first person he saw when the transport docked at Bordeaux.

Maj. Woodruff could not talk much, nor could the little nurse talk English, but they managed to get along surprisingly well despite the handicap.

Bandits Steal Mail Pouch at National City.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, July 28.—Two bandits, operating without masks, entered the postoffice at National City at 3:15 o'clock this morning, stole a locked mail pouch and made good their escape. The men, first seen by Night Marshal E. M. Wright, escaped in an automobile toward San Diego.

Entrance to the postoffice was gained by breaking a glass on the door and unlocking it from the inside. One of the men entered the building while the other stood guard outside.

When the night watchman appeared the outside man disappeared inside the building, then both reappeared carrying the bag with them, jumped into their car and fled. The pouch had been received late last night from Chula Vista. Little of value was contained in it, so far as the postal authorities know.

EVANS QUITS OCCIDENTAL.

Educator Resigns to Take Effect at Once.

Difference With Certain of Trustees is Reason.

Accepted With Regret; No Successor is Named.

Dr. Silas Evans, president of Occidental College, handed his resignation to the board of trustees yesterday afternoon, to take effect immediately. The well known educator, who has presided over the institution for the past three years, tersely stated in his resignation that a "difference in policies" between himself and certain unnamed influential members of the board of trustees had forced him to sever his official relations with Occidental college. What the difference was he did not state.

The resignation of Dr. Evans occurred during a meeting of fourteen members of the board of trustees, held in his private office. Though several of the trustees stated that they regretted the sudden departure of Dr. Evans from the faculty, his resignation was accepted unanimously. It was couched in the following language:

"In view of the difference in opinion between myself and certain influential members of the board of trustees of Occidental College, I herewith present my resignation as president of the college and member of the board of trustees, to take effect at once."

Dr. Evans' was satisfied with his work as head of the institution, and his administration has been a highly successful one. He worked harmoniously with the majority members of the board and few of those present knew who the "certain" men are.

The resignation of Dr. Evans was received as a surprise to other members of the college faculty, who were not present at the board meeting. When his name was presented for years ago among a list of forty names for the presidency of the college he was accepted by unanimous vote and it was said at that time that he was the one candidate who thoroughly sympathized with the needs for which Occidental College stands.

Dr. Evans succeeded Dr. John Fraser as president of the college in May, 1917. He came to Los Angeles from Wisconsin, where he was president of Ripon College. He was born in Scranton, Pa., February 12, 1876, and graduated from Ripon College with a degree of A.B. in 1898. He is recognized as one of the leading American educators, having received honorary degrees from many of the largest universities in the country.

All Dr. Evans's life has been given to educational work. After graduation from Princeton seminary in 1900 he was called to the chair of philosophy at Hastings College, Hastings, Neb., which position he held for two years, when, in 1902, he assumed a double responsibility as professor of philosophy in Park College, and pastor of the College Church at Parkville, Mo. In 1909 he became professor of Hebrew literature in Wisconsin University and in 1910 he was called back to his Alma Mater as president, which he held until his acceptance as president of Occidental College.

Dr. Silas Evans.

VERDICT FOR WIDOW UPHELD BY COURT.

Blackwell, administratrix of the estate of Edward Blackwell, in the suit brought against the American Film Company and the United Stages, to recover damages on account of injuries received by Blackwell in a collision. The verdict of the lower court was for $15,742, and against the film company alone. After the accident Blackwell died, but the judgment had not been vacated at the time of his demise, and his widow succeeded to his rights in the case. The United Stages was exonerated by the jury.

NAMES HOSTESS OF BATH PARTY.

Wife Asks Divorce from Man Found in Lady's Tub.

Says Husband Declared She Was Just "Jealous Cat."

Furious When She Refused to Meet "Other Woman."

Walter G. Smith, wealthy cotton dealer of Blythe, who last Friday evening was interrupted while taking a bath in the hotel apartment of Miss Georgina Klendara, the latter says, by the noisy intrusion of his wife and two private detectives, was yesterday sued for divorce by Rita Harris Smith. Mrs. Smith in her complaint, which mentions Miss Klendara in several connections, but omits reference to the bathroom affair, says that she and her husband lived together only seven months after their marriage.

Miss Klendara, who last week swore to complaints against the detectives who entered her apartment when Mr. Smith was splashing in her bathtub, became a factor in the inharmony in the Smith home within a month after the wedding, which occurred in Texas on June 4, 1919.

Mrs. Smith's complaint declares that early in July of last year her husband requested her to meet Georgina Klendara, and that when she refused to do so he humiliated her in the presence of friends by calling her "a jealous cat." The quarrel was continued the next day, Mrs. Smith says, and her husband charged her with talking "in a sinister manner" about Miss Klendara, and then added:

"If you don't like my friends, and the way I do, you can go home to Texas."

He offered her $150 and said, she declares:

"You take this and go home, if you don't like the way things are going around here."

The day after last Christmas Mrs. Smith went to the hospital for an operation caused, as she says, by the treatment she received from her husband. Acts of reputed mental cruelty are set up in the complaint, which was prepared by Attorneys Bole and Hogan.

She says her husband requested her to go to Nevada and get a divorce, promising her a property settlement. The complaint states he admitted to his sister-in-law that he had kissed Miss Klendara, and loved her, too. When asked the plain question whether he wanted to marry Miss Klendara, he is said to have replied:

"If I do, and get tired of her, I will chuck her, too."

He placed $1000 in the bank, it is stated, and said to his wife:

"Now take it, and get out."

Mr. Smith earns from $10,000 to $20,000 as an expert cotton buyer, it is asserted. He owns a half interest in a Texas factory and has a 300-acre ranch. Mrs. Smith demands allmony of $500 a month, and asks for an order restraining her husband from disposing of his property interests. The order to show cause was granted by Presiding Judge Jackson, returnable on Monday.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Car Upsets Auto, but Occupants Are Little Hurt.

Bert C. Smith, publicity manager for Samuel Shortridge's Senatorial campaign, was slightly injured, and his automobile totally wrecked, when it was struck and turned over by a street car at Sixth avenue and Fifty-fourth street last evening. In the car besides Mr. Smith were his wife and two children, Katherine and Frances, and Eunice Kunz, a neighbor child. All but Mr. Smith jumped and escaped unscratched. Mr. Smith stayed in the car as it was hurled to the side of the street. His injuries were bruises and contusions on the head and right arm.

Witnesses say that the car was descending the Fifty-fourth street hill so rapidly as to be unable to stop in time to avoid the collision. A petition to the car company to regulate the speed of cars on the hill was circulated in the neighborhood last night.

FUMIGATION IS FATAL.

Cyanide Gas Kills Man Living Near Outskirts of Whittier.

The first "cyanide victim" of the present fumigating season died yesterday morning in Whittier when efforts of physicians failed to restore consciousness to the prostrate form of M. H. Hile, who was found by fellow-workers in the Thomas Gooch grove, file miles west of town.

Mr. Hile was 35 years old and leaves a widow and a 9-year-old son. Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 this afternoon from the Free Methodist Church in Whittier.

JAPS FIRE ON FISHING BOAT.

Austrians Make Avalon After Battle in Channel.

Poachers Arming to Resist Officers of Law.

Fourteen Arrested; Many New Warrants Sworn Out.

Japanese fishermen took the law into their own hands yesterday and with firearms attempted to rid the water around Catalina Island of Austrian fishing boats which have been poaching within the three-mile limit in open defiance of the law.

Nick Vojkeovich, an Austrian fisherman, put into Avalon late yesterday with the story that Japanese fishermen fired upon his boat, cut his lines and drove him into the harbor after they had overhauled his boat while he was seining for albicore, seven miles from the Catalina coast. Vojkeovich docked his launch, the Drigiga, in Avalon last night and made complaint of the attack to Justice of the Peace Windle, according to information given to The Times by wireless telephone last night by Mr. Windle.

Up to a late hour last night the arrest of fourteen fishermen, who had been taken to San Pedro and to Wilmington, and the temporary clearing of coast waters of poaching Austrian and Russian fishing boats had been reported to officials. Meanwhile Captain of Police Spellman of San Pedro, who is in charge of the harbor division, had notified the members of the State Game Commission that his entire force was at the call of the patrol forces which have been seeking to drive the poachers outside of the three-mile limit.

After news of the arrest of the fourteen fishermen became noised about it was reported at the harbor that other fishermen were arming and will resist arrest today.

Late last night Capt. Paul Anderson docked the patrol boat Albicore at Avalon and reported that he had covered the water of fishing district 20 and had overhauled and sent to the open sea all boats found within the restricted area.

A wireless telephone message from Catalina Island last night brought the information that Dep. Dist.-Atty. Glover was at Avalon and will today swear out complaints against the fishing launches Marguerita, Idaho and Congress, and that by morning the number of outstanding warrants against fishermen wanted on poaching charges will total thirty-six.

Capt. Anderson and his deputies hope to serve most of these warrants today, but in view of the announced intention of many of the Austrians and Russians to resist arrest, it is feared at the island and at the harbor that the Albicore may run into several clashes.

INVADERS FROM NORTH.

California law has been openly defied and fishing rights of local California fishermen jeopardized by the invasion of Austrian fishermen from northern waters in fishing district 20, embracing the waters to the landward side of Catalina Island according to State Fish and Game Officer Jack Harrington, who yesterday caused the arrest of the crew of the fishing launch New Mexico after the latter had ordered off Capt. Paul Anderson and Deputy Sheriff Ziegler of the patrol boat Albicore at the point of rifles. From fifty to sixty boats with an average of ten men each have arrived in Southern California fishing districts, said Officer Harrington, and though all the fishermen from the north have not overstepped the law, the majority has shown a decided disposition to ignore the requirements which the state fish and game officers have attempted to enforce. Warrants for the arrest of twenty captains of boats have been issued at the Sheriff's office.

The crew of the boat already taken into custody will stand trial, and the patrol boat under command of Capt. Anderson is being kept constantly on the lookout for other Austrian crews who have been reported fishing for tuna within the three-mile limit of district 20.

MAKE BIG HAULS.

Boats manned by these Austrian crews, said Officer Harrington, have been making hauls of fish netting from $5000 to $6000 a boatload within the restricted waters. Lack of proper armament on the patrol boat the officers declare has been a great handicap in running down the marauders. Contrary to a report given out, the lawbreaking fishermen are not Japanese, Officer Harrington asserted, but are Austrians and Russian Finns who have done a great deal of salmon fishing in northern waters.

Members of the crew of the New Mexico, who were captured after the fishing launch had docked at Wilmington late Tuesday night, secured the services of Attorneys John Richardson and T. E. Parke to arrange for bail, Officer Harrington said. Capt. Krist Oreb of the New Mexico and Mate Nick Zanclick, who were brought to the County Jail Tuesday night by Deputy Sheriffs Cooper and Cronin, were released yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus and bail of $500 each. Vincent Zulezich, Nick Vlasich, Tony Bask, K. Arnich, Mike Millen and John Prizmich gave bail in $250 each. The hearing was made returnable before Judge Willis August 2. Others of the crew taken into custody will appear for hearing before Justice of the Peace Windle at Avalon. Mike Urab and a visitor named George Truax were allowed to remain on the New Mexico.

FOLLOWS CLASH.

The arrest of the crew Tuesday night followed a clash between the fishing launch and the patrol boat in which the fishermen refused to recognize the authority of the officers. Capt. Anderson, observing that a haul of tuna was being taken into the New Mexico within the three-mile limit, drew the patrol boat alongside and placed Capt. Oreb and the crew under arrest.

PICKFORDS ONCE MORE IN COURT.

Lottie Begins Her Second Divorce Suit; Says Rupp Has Deserted Her.

The Pickford family again entered the arena of litigation yesterday when Mrs. Lottie Smith Rupp, sister of Mary Pickford Fairbanks, filed for the second time a suit for divorce from Albert G. Rupp, a New York stockbroker. As in her first suit, Mrs. Rupp charges her husband with desertion. Divorce suit No. 1 was suddenly withdrawn last December.

Mrs. Rupp first filed suit for divorce on December 4, 1919, setting out in her complaint that her husband deserted her soon after the birth of her daughter, Mary Pickford Rupp. The little daughter has since been adopted by Mrs. Charlotte Smith, mother of the Pickford children. Mrs. Rupp alleged failure to provide as the formal basis of her suit.

The second suit was filed by Attorneys Woolwine and Gebler. Mr. Woolwine stated last night that Mrs. Rupp again makes desertion the basis for the action.

Lottie Pickford, or Mrs. Rupp, is the younger of the two Pickford sisters. She is 25 years of age.

LOS ANGELES BROKER HELD IN BEACH JAIL.

COMPLAINT MADE THAT CHECK AND OIL STOCK WERE WORTHLESS.

Held in default of $2500 bail, Frank J. Agnew, Los Angeles stock broker and said to be the son of a wealthy Philadelphia business man, is in jail at Long Beach charged with passing fictitious checks. He is charged with having defrauded Dr. W. D. Turner, of that city out of about $800 through the sale of oil stock and a check drawn on a Los Angeles bank that is said to have held no such account. The complaint upon which Agnew was arrested was issued by Justice Underwood and sworn to by Dr. Turner.

Dr. Turner purchased oil stock to the value of $600 from Agnew, who was connected with a Los Angeles office of a New York brokerage concern, upon representations that the stock was of exceptional merit and was about to advance in price, the doctor told the police. The transaction occurred early in March.

Last month Dr. Turner says that Agnew came to him and admitted that the stock he had sold him was practically worthless, but that he had been deceived also and had sold it in good faith. He assured the doctor, however, that all the money would be paid back in a short time.

"I will pay you $200 back now," Dr. Turner says the broker told him, as he tendered a check for $325 and requested the $125 in change. This Dr. Turner gave him, he told the police, declaring that he still had confidence in the man.

The check, it is said, also proved worthless. Bulletins were sent out by the local identification bureau and Agnew was finally arrested in San Francisco. He is said to be wanted in that city and here on similar charges.

MOTOR COPS PUT BACK.

Cleared After Hearing on Charges of Boisterous Conduct.

G. L. Ledbetter and M. J. Clark, members of the county motorcycle squad, who were suspended on a charge of being loud and boisterous in Laurel Canyon on the night of the 3rd inst., were put back to work by the Board of Supervisors yesterday. The suspended officers demanded a hearing, and yesterday fourteen or fifteen prominent men testified in their behalf. A majority of these witnesses had been tagged by the officers in Laurel Canyon, but all testified the officers were courteous and efficient and showed no signs of being loud or boisterous.

The officers, however, will lose their pay for the fifteen days' suspension, under the advice of the County Counsel. They were represented by Attorney Paul Schenck. William Desmond, the cinema star, was a witness on their behalf.

SHAKES GATE CITY.

A slight earthquake shock was felt in San Bernardino at 7:50 yesterday morning, which lasted over a period of five or six seconds. No damage resulted.

SUBWAY ROUTING PLANNED.

Pacific Electric Head Reveals Scheme to Expedite Car Handling.

Plans are being considered by the Pacific Electric for the building of a subway from its Hill-street station to Figueroa street and ultimately to Vineyard Junction it was stated by Vice-President Titcomb of the company yesterday in a speech at a noon luncheon of the City Club. The Figueroa-street extension would handle Glendale-Edendale traffic while the Vineyard Junction extension would give airline routing to west beach cars.

"We realize that our trains are held up in getting in and out of the Hill-street and Main-street stations, and we are ready to do our utmost to adopt methods to wipe out this delay, which is due to traffic congestion in the streets."

Mr. Titcomb then explained in detail, as he did before the Advertising Club Tuesday, the Southern Pacific-Salt Lake-Pacific Electric plan to eliminate grade crossings by transferring steam and electric traffic to the east side of the Los Angeles River, the building of viaducts and the utilization of the Arcade station as a joint terminal for the Salt Lake and Southern Pacific as well as the Santa Fe, if it desires to join the other two roads.

CINEMA ACTRESSES IN SEDAN ROLL OFF ROAD.

FOUR YOUNG WOMEN SHAKEN UP AND BRUISED ON WAY IN FROM LOCATION.

Four cinema actresses of the Wilnot Film Company of Hollywood were badly cut and bruised and suffered severe nervous shocks early last night when a closed car went over a nine-foot embankment in Santa Monica Canyon, four miles from the beach city.

The party included Gladys Allen, 2144 Durwin avenue, Los Angeles; Phoebe Basor, 1007 Seventy-fifth street, Los Angeles; Gladys Levison, 1572 Echo Park avenue, Los Angeles, and Agnes Lynch, 1641 Hudson avenue, Hollywood. The young women had spent the day on location and were returning to the rity when Miss Allen, who was driving the car, failed to properly negotiate a bridge over a small creek. The car fell over the embankment and turned on its side, but did not pin down any of the occupants.

All of the party were taken to Miss Martin's sanatorium in Santa Monica, where their injuries were given attention and where it is said none of them is seriously injured. Other members of the company who were closely following the sedan rendered first aid and hurried the injured to the hospital.

MISSION PLAY SUES.

Asks Damages from Property Owner for Lease Violation.

The Mission Play Association came into court yesterday with a suit against William Thomas McCormick, of San Gabriel, owner of the Old Grapevine property in that city. It is set up in the complaint that the association obtained a ninety-nine-year lease from Mr. McCormick, March 10 last, for $1200 a year, with an option to buy the property for $20000 at any time after Mr. McCormick's death. There was a provision in the lease that in the event the association drilled for oil, the owner should receive 10 per cent of the profits.

The complaint states that Mr. McCormick refuses to carry out the contract. This has damaged the association, it is claimed, in the sum of $50,000.

AUTO DEALER SAYS BUYER DUPED HIM.

When Fred Fudge, an automobile dealer of 1201 South Broadway, sold a second-hand machine yesterday to a man giving the name of C. J. Berkett and received in payment a $200 Liberty Bond, $30 in cash and what he thought was a diamond ring worth $450, he believed he had got a little the best of the deal. Half an hour later a jeweler told him his diamond was an imitation sapphire and worth just $1.50. Now he is asking the police to find the automobile and to arrest Berkett.

FLEET CORPORATION MAN NAMED MANAGER.

BECOMES OPERATING HEAD OF COMPANY THAT OWNS THE YALE AND HARVARD.

The appointment of A. J. Frey, former Pacific Coast manager for the United States Emergency Fleet Corporation, as general manager of the Los Angeles Steamship Company, which owns and will operate the Yale and Harvard, was announced last night at a dinner given at the California Club by Fred L. Baker, president of the company.

The dinner was given as a compliment to Commander R. D. Gatewood, who is here for a few days en route to Washington, where he is to become manager of new construction for the United States Shipping Board. He and Mr. Frey spent yesterday inspecting the plant of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company at the harbor.

Covers were laid for twenty at the dinner last night. Those in attendance were prominent harbor and navigation company officials. The officers of the steamship company of which Mr. Frew will be operating head are Fred L. Baker, president; Earle M. Leaf, secretary, and Max Whittier, treasurer.

HUNT BANDITS WHO SHOT VICTIM IN AUTO.

Police detectives yesterday searched San Pedro and other beach towns for a pair of bandits who, early yesterday morning, lured Henry Doring of San Pedro into their automobile some distance from the harbor city and after shooting him in the right arm robbed him of $18 and left him on the road. The injured man was discovered by a passing motorist and taken to the County Hospital.

CITY COLISEUM PLAN IS URGED.

Civic Organizations Ask for Issue on the Ballot.

Point Out Need of Place for Mammoth Gatherings.

Alternative for More Costly Auditorium Project.

Formal action will be taken today by a joint committee representing the Community Development Association and a number of civic organizations to urge the Council to have placed upon the ballot at the primary election on August 31 a proposal which contemplates the erection of a coliseum at Exposition Park to serve the public need for large gatherings, conventions, fairs and the like. The meeting with the Council will take place at the City Hall this morning, when the committee will outline its plans in detail and ask that this coliseum project be placed on the ballot along with the proposed public auditorium plan, which already has been sanctioned by the Council. The sums proposed are $4,000,000 for the auditorium and $1,000,000 for the coliseum.

Both the coliseum and auditorium plans have the indorsement of the joint committee, composed of Henry S. McKee, Henry W. O'Melveny, William M. Bowen, G. G. Young, Don Keeler, E. A. Dickson, W. P. Campbell, Harry Chandler and Zack J. Farmer, representing the Community Development Association, and Sylvester L. Weaver, Walter K. Tuller and Walter Brinkop, representing the civic organizations.

The coliseum project, which was developed after a year's work by the Community Development Association, calls for an expenditure of about $1,000,000, and is designed to provide for public gatherings, amusement enterprises and conventions.

The auditorium plan, which contemplates the erection of a mammoth public building at Normal Hill Center in which large indoor meetings and conventions could be held, would require approximately $4,000,000 to erect.

NEED POINTED.

Both projects, it is pointed out, are in line with the present and future needs of a city which, like Los Angeles, is called upon to handle public gatherings on a great scale. The lack of such facilities, it is further contended, means that this city is forced to stand aside in the bidding for these conventions in favor of cities having the facilities to provide for them.

It was explained yesterday by Mr. Weaver, who served originally as chairman of the special memorial committee of the Chamber of Commerce in starting the movement for the proposed auditorium, building, that both projects are greatly needed. He added that the matter of their erection is of such public concern that they have grown into a community undertaking and are backed by a large number of civic organizations who realized the handicap under which the city worked in attempting to attract con-

The People and Their Daily Troubles

DOROTHY DIX TALKS

DON'T CODDLE YOUR FAULTS.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

"I know I have a beastly temper. Little things irritate me and when I get into a rage I say things that stab my wife to the heart, and that terrify the children, and make the cat take to the cyclone cellar."

"I am sorry for my poor husband because I know that I am outrageously extravagant, but when I see lovely things I can't help buying them whether we can afford them or not."

"No one loves me. I really haven't a friend in the world. People are afraid of me because I have a sharp tongue, and say sarcastic things, but I can't resist making a witty speech no matter whom it hurts."

These are some of the common confessions of faults with which we are all familiar. There isn't a day when we do not meet men and women who coolly vivisect their own characters, and unerringly diagnose the fatal weakness that is sapping their lives and robbing them of happiness and usefulness, but who calmly accept the situation and make no effort to cure themselves.

They know with absolute clearness and surety what ails them spiritually, but they do not try to eradicate the trouble. Yet, if any one of these same people even suspected that they had a cancer that was eating at their vitals and poisoning their blood, they would not hesitate to have it cut out, though they risked death in doing so.

Men and women who know they have tuberculosis, or diabetes, or any dangerous disease of the body, are willing to spend their last cent and undergo any treatment, no matter what sacrifices and suffering it entails, to get rid of it.

Sickness of the soul they regard lightly. They may know that they are afflicted with an abnormal growth of selfishness; that their tempers register a hectic temperature half of the time; that their tongues are cankered by bitterness; that everything good and generous in them has atrophied, and they have hardening of the heart, but they perform no major surgical operations on their characters.

They lop off no brutalities of conduct or speech. They take no heroic remedies to reduce their spleen, nor do they quicken their heart action into normal by stimulating it by showing a little love to those about them.

So much more stress do we put on our physical health than we do on our spiritual. Yet, when all is said, our happiness depends upon the well-being of our souls more than it does upon the well-being of our bodies.

Now, it would be bad enough if we sinned through ignorance and were so besotted by self-conceit that we could not perceive that we had a single defect concealed about our persons. But what excuse can be offered for us when we sin knowingly; when we recognize our weaknesses yet make no effort to brace up; when we are aware of our faults yet make no attempt to overcome them?

Yet, that is precisely what nine out of ten people do. Instead of using the knowledge of their faults to exterminate them, root and branch, they regard their defects with affection, and even with pride.

A man will tell you that he is always stone broke because he never can save money. It slips through his fingers. Or he will say that he hasn't the faculty of getting along, that he is always the one who is laid off in the place in which he works when they cut down the force. He recognizes his weakness, but he doesn't try to conquer the fault that is ruining him. He doesn't let the knowledge that he has the natural inclination to be a spender make him doubly careful to cultivate thrift. Nor does he face the fact that because he is temperamentally inefficient, and has no inborn aptitude for business, is a reason for his working doubly hard and putting an extra punch into his job in order to succeed.

We hear women bemoaning their slack housekeeping, and their lack of any domestic bent. They complain that their servants waste and steal; they admit that their houses are always at sixes and sevens, and their families poisoned by bad food.

But they take their regret for being failures as wives and mothers out in talking about it, because it is lots more comfortable to deplore a weakness than to fight it tooth and nail.

You would think that a woman who realized that she was a poor housekeeper would have a heart-to-heart interview with herself and say, "That inasmuch as I am not one of the ladies who are born with the stew pot in one hand and a casserole in the other, here's where I outwit nature by getting busy with the cook book, and a budget and pull off the scientific housekeeping stuff. I am not going to let any fault I know about get the better of me."

But she doesn't. She coddles her laziness and shiftlessness and expects her poor, unfortunate family to sympathize with her instead of despising her for her weakness. Nor is she alone in this. Think of the narrow, prejudiced people you know who admit that they are narrow and prejudiced, and who shut themselves up in the walls of their own littleness and never broaden out.

Think of the people who are never on time for anything and who excuse their dilatoriness by saying, "Oh, well, you know I am always late."

Think of the people who never do anything just right and who say carelessly that they know that they are hit-or-miss workers.

Why, in heaven's name, when people know their faults don't they correct them? Why doesn't the slow individual always start an hour ahead of schedule? Why don't the blunderers make a fetish of accuracy? Why don't the prejudiced force themselves to look on every side?

The truth is in dealing with our weaknesses we should be doubly on guard. Just as the man who cannot drink in moderation should never touch liquor, so we should never dally with our weakness, for in this way, and this way only, we can turn our faults into virtues and our weakness into strength.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES"

Our Auto Park.

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—[To the Editor of The Times:] May I ask that you make room for the following article in your valuable paper:

This morning I had occasion to visit the tourist camp grounds in Elysian Park in quest of touring friends from Washington, and what was my consternation to find: First, that to enter as a visitor, a Los Angeles citizen had to have a pass, the securing of which necessitated the usual number of yards of "red tape." Second, that the much advertised camp ground was not a welcome home for the tired autoist, but merely a graft game pure and simple, for each person entering that park must pay twenty-five cents per day if over five years of age.

The camp ground to begin with is not the ideal spot one would think from its description in the dailies; and to advertise to the country that we "now have a haven of rest for the touring public who prefer to travel by auto," and then charge them twenty-five cents per day per capita over 5 years of age, to my mind is one of the meanest pieces of graft that has ever been laid at the door of Los Angeles.

Men have visited that camp ground, ascertained conditions, and departed, vowing vengeance on Los Angeles.

One man just recently—and he is wealthy enough and determined enough—said we were the greatest grafters in the whole United States. That he proposed to have printed a circular and that he would post them on every available reading space, warning tourists to steer clear of Los Angeles.

Another said he would post every caretaker in every camp ground he visited of the prevailing graft at Los Angeles. Are we to permit our beautiful city to be thus maligned just to satisfy a lot of tin horn politicians whose grafting perquisites excel their love for the city? If so, it is high time the patriotic citizens of Los Angeles awakened to the danger, and cleaned house at each election until such things would be impossible.

BURTON L. LYDEN.

Woman Dislikes Japs.

PORTERVILLE, July 21.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Pardon this intrusion upon your valuable time, but I am so thoroughly and indignantly aroused over the Japanese immigration problem I cannot resist presenting my protest against them. The article in last Wednesday's Times has stirred my ire and I think more should be done to help break up the tendency of toleration that some of the weaklings are trying to prop up through political aggrandizement.

Of course, the Japanese will become Americanized and [illegible] American methods, but [illegible] American portrayed [illegible] heroic blood of the white [illegible] our own race. We do not [illegible] Japanese for voters and [illegible] aim for the future power [illegible] do we need them scientific [illegible] for enlightenment, they know much now about American [illegible] mental principles. The [illegible] mentalism of those who [illegible] American hospitality in [illegible] the Japanese cannot be trusted; they are not loyal to [illegible] least.

Keep the Japs out of the United States, because they cannot be trusted; they are as bold, as impertinent, disrespectful and treacherous as an old-time Indian with his tomahawk. They live among them in large [illegible] they hide their cunning [illegible] guises of various occupations, gardeners to cooks and [illegible] Let us forever be clean-[illegible] cans.

There are many forces now to undermine our standard of freedom and [illegible] the taking in of the Japanese is the "last straw to [illegible] camel's back." Do not let [illegible] ble into the dust of defeat [illegible] freedom and sink to the [illegible] of the Japanese sovereignty [illegible] is just what we are coming [illegible] near future generations [illegible] now laying their foundation.

This country has formerly had a beautiful supply of truck and fruits before the lands were cultivated by the Japanese, and I see no reason why we could not continue to do so. "wonderfully valuable" [illegible] be abandoned and return to wilderness of nature. The fact that score is only a few [illegible] intimidate the unwary.

If thousands of the Japanese deported it will greatly increase demand of supply. If there is large demand for their products [illegible] send them back where they came from as we do not need them. They are a menace to the white man, [illegible] and could skilfully work [illegible] the Japanese are artificers. [illegible] ing generation must have opportunity. When the man has [illegible] this government will be [illegible] its helplessness. They are a hindrance to all that is [illegible] great. So fight them now [illegible] fighting is good. There [illegible] like "striking when the iron [illegible]

Now, this is just a protest [illegible] agonistic feeling engendered [illegible] alty to my country, for I am [illegible] blooded American. I am a woman and I am not seeking [illegible] licity, but I enjoy your [illegible] very much. I want to [illegible] your fine work.

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable medicinal properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and the assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher Honestly advertised, Honestly placed before the public and from which he Honestly expects to receive his reward.

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

THE WAY PLAIN.

Now that both Harding and Coolidge have accepted the nominations conferred upon them the country may offer three cheers and buckle down to the business of confirming them in their duties and honors.

A BRUNETTE APPETITE.

Measured by the press reports, Jack Johnson is steadily and rapidly foundering himself at the lunch counter. He is training himself for prison on a diet of ham and eggs and pie. At the same time he claims to be in form to beat both Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey in one afternoon. When a fat brunette warrior consumes eighteen pork chops and a bucket of ice cream at the breakfast table he is better fitted for the jail than the ring.

NO LUCK IN SHAMROCK.

Sir Thomas Lipton doesn't have much luck in raising his Shamrocks. If he must have a cup challenger why doesn't he call it the Brian Boru or Pansy or Fido—or something? John McCormack sentimentally warbles that nowhere else on God's green earth will the shamrock thrive save on Irish soil. What's the idea in trying to capture American waters with something that only finds its splendor in Erin's land? The Americans would be really pleased if Sir Thomas could take his jack-knife and whittle out a boat that would win that venerable monstrosity in silverware they call America's Cup. But he better christen his craft something besides Shamrock. Give the daisies or mermaids a chance. The Shamrock seems to be the real rock on which his hopes founder rather than are founded.

SAVING MONEY.

The State banks of California show an increase in deposits of $40,000,000 for the last quarter. This is almost a record showing and is almost three times greater than the increase for the previous quarter. Of course, the report does not include the national banks or other agencies of organized finance, but it is a strong straw and shows the way the wind is blowing. At least the masses are not spending more than they earn, and the tremendous increase in the number of individual depositors indicates that many people are beginning to practice some form of thrift. If the strike fever were over and the agitators would take to producing instead of protesting the country would be on a healthy and wholesome basis at once. There is nothing like a little bank account as an anchor to windward and assurance against improvidence.

WORLD'S MOST EVIL BAND.

This most evil band is the Third International which has been in session in Moscow. Truth to tell, our people are much more interested in the doings of the Shamrock and the Resolute than in the plottings of the international, but they should not ignore what is going on in the ancient capital of Russia. Through the mouth of Nikolai Lenine, the Premier of soviet Russia, the Third International has proclaimed its aim. This is nothing less than world revolution and the "dictatorship of the proletariat." Lenine proclaims it unblushingly. He says:

"The working classes are ripe for a broad revolutionary movement and the task of this international is to consolidate and organize world revolution."

The Third International embraces membership from America as well as from Europe. It has encouraged revolution in the United States and would hoist the Red flag with joy were the present system of government in this country overwhelmed. Its mission, Lenine has stated, is "to complete and incorporate in action the ideals we inherit from Karl Marx and to realize in practice the aims of Socialism and the labor movement." It wants the United States to become a soviet republic and it undoubtedly has agents working to this end from the Atlantic to the Pacific. And what is a soviet republic. It is government without the consent of the governed.

COOLIDGE AND THE HOME.

In his address of acceptance Gov. Coolidge remarked that the destiny and greatness of America lie around the hearthstone. Some restless Napoleons of war or finance might challenge the statement, but after all, the people feel and know that the hope and glory of America is in the home. Our national progress lies in the direction of home building—in the making of America into a land of homes, with the family as the unit of our national life. The rights to peacefully acquire and cheerfully maintain an independent home are the just perquisites of American citizenship. Gov. Coolidge declared further that there were enemies at work to impair those rights. There are organized efforts being made to undermine the faith of the people in their government, to foment discord, aggravate industrial strife, stifle production and ultimately provoke revolution. It is needless to say that these efforts do not find their inspiration in the home-owners of America. The efforts of the government, of the public and the press must be directed to exposing false doctrines and confounding seditious thought. All this for the safeguarding of the American home. Gov. Coolidge is an old-fashioned American, the kind that any child likes to slip his hand into in the dark. He inspires a sort of safety and confidence. America will do no head or tail spins, dives or loop-the-loops when men like Harding or Coolidge serve as pilots.

HEARST'S LUDICROUS POSITION.

Edward Everett Hale's gripping narrative, "A Man Without a Country," is doubtless familiar to readers of The Times. The principal character voiced his wrath at what he deemed a governmental injustice by expressing the wish that he might never set foot on American soil again. His wish was granted, and he suffered the tortures of Tantalus. Second only to the plight of the man without a country is that of a man without a party, the man who finds that everything in the existing parties is all wrong and fails ludicrously in every attempt to found a new one.

The plight of the radical in this year's national campaign is as tragic to himself as it is amusing to a conservative public unrepentant and unashamed. When Russia turned Red the hopes of the American radical agitator of the Hearst type ran high. If the class to whom Hearst made his daily appeals could win in Russia, why not in the United States? There were 14,000,000 unnaturalized foreigners in this country; most of them were ignorant enough and discontented enough to start a revolution. The time was ripe to seize the reins of government in the United States, reins that were held by a semipalsied hand.

During the whole of 1919 evidences of discontent were general over the country. The Republican and Democratic parties were fighting over the covenant of the League of Nations like two dogs over a bone. There were strikes and rumors of strikes. Production was low, prices were high and the working classes were in a mood to loaf. The war was over, but the hectic excitement remained. Hearst rallied his Reds and his hyphenates for a raid upon the Presidential primaries. They laid their plans to capture one or both the national conventions of the old parties. Failing in this, they were prepared to start a third party of their own.

Senator Johnson was their choice for the Republican nomination, Senator Reed or Bernard Colby for the Democratic. The public was not left in doubt. "Mr." Hearst solemnly announced in all his publications his purpose to lead a Third party in case Johnson, Reed and Colby should be repudiated. He issued a warning to both conventions that they must accept "Mr." Hearst's views in their party platforms and permit him to dictate the nominees, under penalty of having him organize a Third party and take the Presidency himself.

But both conventions refused to be stampeded. Neither was in a mood to experiment with radicalism. Each selected a candidate whom "Mr." Hearst had classed among the reactionaries. When the Democratic platform was promulgated in San Francisco "Mr." Hearst issued a signed statement to the effect that it was far worse than the Republican platform, that the Democratic ticket must be beaten at all costs. He was for a third party with either himself or Senator Reed as its Presidential candidate.

Hearst aided the Forty-eighters to organize their convention. Editorially and through political cartoons his papers pictured the Third party as a sure winner. Harding and Cox were both tools of "big business." His favorite cartoon was a profiteer holding one on each knee. But when the Third party delegates arrived in Chicago the convention gave so lurid a reflection that even Hearst was appalled. The Committee of Forty-eight sought to effect a compromise with the radical labor party, another Hearst offspring; but the platform of the laborites was so raw that even the Forty-eighters couldn't stomach it. About half the members of the convention had been indicted within the last four years for crimes against the government. Its first act was to send a message of greeting to Debs and its second to demand his pardon of President Wilson.

After three days of attempts at a compromise the Third party convention broke up in a row. All but the union-labor delegates left the hall. The Hearst platform was adopted, but by a group of such extreme radicals that even the Hearst papers didn't dare publish their names.

Hearst quit the Third party. He would not even permit his papers to publish the text of its platform, yet two-thirds of it had been dictated by Hearst himself. He didn't want the country to learn into what hands his great bill of rights had fallen.

The Third party is taboo in the Hearst papers. Its name isn't mentioned. It is condemned to a campaign of silence. Hearst is an unnatural father. He refuses to recognize or support his own child.

Two conferences of his editors have failed to disclose why the people of the country as a whole should be so reactionary. He hasn't been able to understand why the spirit of discontent, so manifest at times in the country, was not in evidence at either convention. If he had been a regular reader of The Times he would not have been so ignorant of actual conditions. The Times has frequently called attention to the fact that the radical activities were limited very largely to the millions of unnaturalized foreigners in this country; men who possessed the power to agitate and to strike, but not to vote. The trouble with Hearst's radicals was that they were not citizens and could not render assistance at the polls.

So "Mr." Hearst in the year that was to mark his greatest political triumph is a man without a party. He has ceased sending signed statements on politics to his publications. He can't support Cox because Cox is for the League of Nations. He can't support Harding chiefly because Harding doesn't want his support. He can't support Christensen because he knows Christensen hasn't a chance to win, and with Hearst it is a greater crime to be unpopular than to be dishonest. So the Hearst publications are devoting their editorial space chiefly to discussing the Bolsheviki and the earthquakes, neither of which have any friends.

There is something vulgar to "Mr." Hearst in the placid content with which the people have received the platforms and candidates of the old parties. He can't understand why Arthur Brisbane and Phil Francisco haven't been able to do something about it. As for his Third party, it is about as useful this year as a corkscrew.

It has been figured out that popcorn is a money-making crop. Popcorn, like peanuts, has a festive tendency. Both take to the circus and are trundled along the streets by itinerant vendors when at evening the labors of the day are over and the world amuses itself. Popcorn is one of the plants that is not thoroughly understood. At any rate, it has a market value.

While the Pole Yields—

GOV. COOLIDGE SPEAKS OUT.

Reading Gov. Coolidge's speech of acceptance gives one the impression of looking upon a President in the making. He displays a definite, clear-cut grasp of the foreign and domestic problems by which the country is confronted and he expresses them in terse, vigorous verbiage. Right thinking is the first requisite of statesmanship; and Calvin Coolidge is a statesman, not a diplomat. He is the very antithesis of the Talleyrand school, whose members use language as a smoke screen.

Gov. Coolidge is true to the traditions of New England statesmanship from the days of Samuel Adams. He possesses the sincerity of purpose of the Puritans and the early Abolitionists; but it is tempered by a tolerance for the opinions of others that removes from it all semblance of fanaticism. With him "party honesty is party expediency."

He believes that much of the extravagance and waste in private life in this country is due to the examples of waste and thriftlessness set by the Federal government; and he says: "The most obvious place to begin retrenchment is by eliminating the extravagance of the government itself. . . . This should show immediately in reduced taxation."

He is enough of an economist to know that the present excess-profits taxes, although levied against the manufacturer, are finally paid by those who buy for service the products manufactured; and he says: "The great breeder of public and private extravagance, the excess-profits tax, should be abolished and recourse had to customs taxes on imports, one of the most wholesome of all means of raising revenue." This is a restatement of stanch Republican doctrine that cannot be repeated too often during the campaign.

He has well-defined ideas concerning industrial relations and he does not consider it inexpedient to give them utterance. He does not recede from the advanced position which he took when he declared: "There is no right to strike against the public safety by anybody, anywhere, at any time." He now adds: "There must be a different public attitude toward industry, a larger comprehension of the interdependence of capital, management and labor and better facilities for the reasonable adjustment of industrial disputes."

He deprecates the attempts of certain individuals and organizations to create a class consciousness in America. In this relation he says: "There are no classes here. The government must look at the part in the light of the whole, so that legislation must be directed not for private interest, but for public welfare." This is his answer to those who would seek to replace representative government by class government as advocated by the proponents of sovietism.

He warns against the encroachments of the government on the property rights of individuals, saying that: "The property of the nation is in the hands of the people when it is under their ownership and control. But it matters not whether property be taken by seizure or through the process of taxation for extravagant and unnecessary expenditures; there should be an end to both operations."

There is a final warning to the people of the country to beware of permitting the government to pass out of their immediate control. "Either the people must own the government," he says, "or the government will own the people."

Plainly, a man with the convictions of Gov. Coolidge will not be content to remain a mere figurehead in the Senate. Senator Harding has already declared his intention to take the Vice-President as an associate partner in the conduct of the government. There are indications that a part of the government which has remained in desuetude for a hundred years is finally to function in the manner the framers of the Constitution intended.

The sugar profiteers are having a good time vacationing with their money. Congress is not in session. But it will be recalled that they were not worried to any appreciable extent when it was.

A LABOR OF LOVE.

Political office is certainly a labor of love in Belgium. By 133 votes to 17 (with thirteen abstentions) the Belgian Chamber has voted to raise the legislators' salaries from $400 a year to $1200. But they are very apologetic about it and explain that the high cost of living has made the rise absolutely essential. By which it will be seen that Belgian Deputies must be brilliant economists or else have private fortunes, for the cost of living is almost as high in Belgium as in the United States. But they have not acquired the luxury epidemic in Belgium yet, or the fashion craze.

Until six years ago English Members of Parliament served without pay and when a salary of $2000 a year was then voted it only carried by a small majority and numerous well-to-do members turned their salaries over to charity.

United States representatives of the people are the highest-paid of any country, but as to whether high salaries attract better class intellects is still open to doubt. Our conduct of affairs, both internal and foreign, does not necessarily compare so very favorably with those of other countries. Nor do we seem to be able to mobilize financial and business geniuses for that brilliantly efficient management which abhors waste and sees to it that every dollar performs its utmost duty. Belgium, with her underpaid representatives, her vast calamity, her incredible handicaps and her heavy debts, would seem to be getting out of the woods, restoring commerce, industry and social life and normal conditions generally with much more celerity than ourselves. But, then, of course, Belgium does not waste countless millions on multitudinous elections, petitions and referendums. Her people are devoting their time, money and energy to productive labor, reconstruction and the restoration of commerce. Not for nothing have the Belgians a reputation for being one of the thriftiest and most industrious nations.

NATURE AND MUSIC.

An old Austrian woman in Greensburg, Pa., when her bees started swarming placed a phonograph on top of a hive and ground out some jazz music. The bees thereupon settled safely in the hive.

A local dairyman, observing the process, applied it a few days later to two Holstein cows whose kicking propensities belied their breeding. He started with a jazz tune and they began to prance. When he switched to "Rock of Ages" they settled down contentedly and calmly, and he was able to milk them in comfort. Now he plays hymns and lullabies to his cows regularly and finds that it invariably soothes their nerves and stimulates the flow of milk.

Evidence is accumulating on every side as to the marvelous properties of music, when applied scientifically. The sages have known it of old—did not the walls of Jericho fall down from trumpet-blowing and the walls of Thebes rise to the tunes of Amphion? Doubtless the idea can be applied to plant life, too. It may be that music of the right kind will produce strawberries of wondrous size, and give the onion a new flavor, and soothe the nerves and expand the dimensions of the string bean.

"From harmony, from heavenly harmony, this universal frame began." But nature has been getting off the key. What melodious Burbank will straighten it all out?—[Tacoma News-Tribune.

TAKING A VACATION.

BY W. D. STANTON.

The best vacation I ever had—and I have had enough to float a bank and sink an oil well—was when I was a small boy somewhere on the windward side of 15. Once a year my father begrudgingly allowed me to forget there were such things as corn and weeds just for one day, that day to be spent on a fishing trip "down the bay."

This vacation, looked forward to throughout the year, cost me only a few cents; for mother put up my lunch. There was no motor boat to hire—just a "flivver" of a rowboat with a pair of oars and I was the motor. There was no bait to buy—worth more than the fish; for we went ashore and caught crabs for bait in the salt ponds on the marsh.

This vacation was inexpensive, short and infrequent; yet of all the vacations that I have ever had, none has been its equal in the joy of anticipation and in the happiness of its fulfillment.

This retrospect, taken now over a vista of forty years, has taught me its lesson. Could I have learned it forty years ago I might now have owned a city block with the money spent on vacations. Or, better still, I might have been the landed proprietor of a quarter-section or even of five acres where I could raise enough potatoes, onions and garlic to satisfy my tastes and to lift me above being the "goat" of everybody who has something to sell and which I have to buy or go hungry.

Boys who measure fame by the number or size of the fish that an able-bodied man can catch will not appreciate the following remarks; nor will sister, who has just wheedled father out of $15 for a sport bathing suit to display her mermaid charms; nor will poor mother be pleased who says that her nerves are at the breaking point. Nor will the preacher be pleased whose pastoral calls and probes into the sermon barrel have earned him a trip to the mountains for a month or two or a voyage to Europe or the Holy Land.

To begin with, vacations are misleading. Has any one ever found a summer resort what it was cracked up to be? Has anyone been able to figure accurately on a vacation expense. Father can vouch for the fact that the "incidentals, which he had not reckoned on at all, exceeded the legitimate expenses. Of course, mother had said, referring to the latter, "It will cost that much to live at home, anyway."

But, dropping the insignificant item of money—from which a fool is soon parted—all the arguments in favor of vacations can be classed under two heads: health and happiness.

As to health, we have heard of people gaining ten pounds in the first ten days of their vacation. They were weighed in on the tenth day. On the ninth, eighth and backward they had eaten like starving refugees in a friendly camp. But of the eleventh day we hear little—a bit off their feed, one would say. The twelfth day, hot water bottles, cathartic pills and calomel. So much for health.

Next, and classed under the head of both health and happiness, comes sunburn. The half has never yet been told about sunburn! In its advanced stages—if one lasts that long—it is called tan; and how proud are those who have been able to survive.

I have seen sun-burned vacationists in their vain quest for health and happiness, tied up in bundles of rags and oil and shipped home as so much freight.

One of the disappointments of a vacation is the fishing. Either there are no fish or someone else catches them, or one's line gets tangled or some amateur at casting hits one in the head with a sinker—which makes one wary of fishing for a lifetime.

A habitual fisherman is to be pitied. He is the most unhappy person in the world. He growls at his wife, he dislikes boys. He tries to reform and go to work for a day. That is the very day the fish bite; so the next day he has thrown up his job and goes back to his old stand on the pier with hook and line.

Sister, too, has her troubles. She finds fault with life in general and lays it to the place: "There's nothin' to do in this old place!" and so it goes.

And poor mother! She had expected something different, at least to have a rest. But she finds herself in the same old routine of looking after everybody else and trying to make them happy, forgetful that she, too, came on her vacation to be happy. Presto! mother is the only one who is enjoying herself. Calming the tempest about her, she chances upon the very thing that the others miss. After all, if mother gets something out of it the vacation is worth while.

But as a rule the fewer the vacations, if they are not too few; the shorter, if they are not too short; and the nearer home they are spent, if they are not too near—the healthier, happier and wealthier everybody will be.

Work makes the world go, not pleasure!

FIRST THE HORN, THEN TUBA.

"What was your particular artistic bent?" was an inquiry put up to the candidate. "Did you play the slide trombone or the tuba?"

"Please don't exaggerate my musical ability," Senator Harding requested as he attempted to divert the line of questioning.

Some of Senator Harding's friends were inclined to believe that he was belittling his musical prowess, and as ground for their view they called attention to the fact that one of the first men to congratulate him on his nomination was John Philip Sousa. It was stated at Senator Harding's office that he first played the alto horn in the Caledonia Band and was afterward "graduated" into the tuba class.—[New York Times.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

AFTER CONVENTIONS.

Historic now the great conventions, at which our foghorn statesmen raved; both parties reek of those intentions with which the Hades' streets are paved. Both parties frown on those abuses which make our lives one long ordeal, and both would cook the sinful goose of profiteers who gouge and steal. I listened to the keynote speeches, applauded when the stunts were done; "of all the pebbles on our beaches," I mused, "these statesmen take the bun." I'm glad our woes will soon be over, all finished on election day; oh, then we'll wade around in clover and raise our glad hurroo, hurray! Both parties give their sacred promise to cure all evils they can reach; for one, I am no doubting Thomas, discrediting a keynote speech. When two great parties are determined to make the world a better place, no seraphim, bewinged and ermined, might think its aspect no disgrace, to them I drink two brimming beakers of tanglefoot (a home-made brew;) I heard their gifted keynote speakers and know just what they plan to do.

Immediate Delivery.

Mr. Parvenue-Smith was refurnishing his library, which occupation was causing him considerable anxiety. In despair he called in an expert book-seller, and after many suggestions and a final order for a complete library he turned to his adviser and asked:

"And what is the name of the fellow who writes such a lot—Shakeshift or something like that, isn't it?"

"Shakespeare, sir," answered the tradesman.

"Yes, that's it. Get me all he's written and make a note to order anything new he may write."

Concealing a smile, the bookseller suggested: "And may I suggest you have them bound in morocco?"

"Bound in Morocco?" roared the newly-made Croesus. "No. Certainly not. I want the confounded things at once."—[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"She hasn't complained, has she?"

"No, she's very patient. But she often sends me to shops for things and they are a good way off, and I know she gets cross waiting when she's in a hurry."

"Not often, I fancy."

"Oh, she's nearly always in a hurry. She gets everything ready for the baking and finds at the last moment she has not any yeast or something, and then she's in an awful fright and I can't run a long distance, you know, and—I feel awfully sorry for poor mamma."

"Humph! Well, what can we do about it?"

"I was thinking, papa, that perhaps you might get me a bicycle."—[Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

More Haste, Less Eggs.

Men relate that Mrs. Newlywed went to the grocery store to do her morning marketing. And she was determined that the grocer should not take advantage of her youth and inexperience.

"These eggs are dreadfully small," she criticised.

"I know it," he answered. "But that's the kind the farmer brings me. They are just fresh from the country this morning."

"Yes," said the bride, "and that's the trouble with those farmers. They are so anxious to get their eggs sold that they take them off the nest too soon!"—[Unidentified.

In Cockney English.

Lord Reading talked at a Washington dinner party about the cockney accent.

"A cockney cook," he said, "came over and settled in America. Her mistress, who was a widow, told her one day how she came to lose her husband.

"'I lost my husband on the western prairies,' the lady said. 'He was killed by a bison. I suppose you know what a bison is?'

"'Law's yes!' said the cockney cook. 'I'd like to 'ave a quid for every one I've made a puddin' in.'"—[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

THE WONDERFUL GOOSE.

Once upon a time a farmer purchased a goose at market and brought her home. The next morning he was amazed to find in her coop a golden egg. The morning thereafter another was found, and so on, day after day.

War came and the farmer speculated in munitions and got caught badly when the armistice was signed. He lost everything he had but the goose, who continued to lay him a golden egg each day, and on this slender income he managed to live.

His wife went out into the yard one day and saw him laying the goose upon the chopping block.

"Are you mad?" she cried. "Would you kill the bird that gives us a golden egg daily?"

"No," he responded. "But have you noticed what geese are bringing in the market these days?"

On learning, his wife flew to his aid and helped slaughter and dress the goose. With the price it brought the couple purchased an apartment-house and lived happily ever afterward.—[F. F. V. in Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Over two years ago Los An[illegible] County asked the District Cou[illegible] (legal) for a peremptory ma[illegible] directing Sheriff Cline to pay [illegible] the county treasury fees coll[illegible] him for the transportatio[illegible] prisoners from this city to [illegible] Quentin and Folsom prisons a[illegible] patients from this city to the [illegible] Hospital. On June 23, 1918, [illegible] court decided in favor of the co[illegible] and the following day Acting Pr[illegible] Judge Works entered a [illegible] judgment for it against the Sheriff [illegible] $11,592.

The Appellate Court ruled [illegible] the Sheriff is not entitled to any [illegible] fee, being a paid employee, ca[illegible] receive only his salary. The S[illegible] contended that, under advice [illegible] the District Attorney's office, [illegible] should receive the fees.

Another angle to the matter [illegible] arises when the county sought [illegible] collect from the Sheriff $11,320 [illegible] received by him from the United S[illegible] Government for the maintenanc[illegible] of federal prisoners in the Co[illegible] Jail. Judge Wellborn, in the [illegible] Superior Court, refused to issue a [illegible] writ of mandate, holding it would be [illegible] unreasonable to compel the Sheriff to [illegible] pay money he had spent to main[illegible] federal prisoners. Department One [illegible] of the District Court of Appeal [illegible] reversed the judgment. At the [illegible] time, however, the Appellate C[illegible] reversed a judgment of Supe[illegible] Judge Valentine in the Sheriff's [illegible] favor in an action brought by [illegible] county to compel him to turn [illegible] $11,691. Judge Valentine was [illegible] reversed to overrule Mr. Cli[illegible] demurrer to the county's petit[illegible]

PRICE OF GASOLINE RAISED TO QUARTI[illegible]

STATION BEGINS CHARGING N[illegible] FORECAST PRICE FOR FUEL FROM EAST.

The cost of gasoline at some [illegible] filling stations here yesterday was raised to 25 cents per gallon, [illegible] increase in price followed [illegible] receipt here of the Oklahoma [illegible] gasoline for the Union [illegible] company. The additional cha[illegible] to forecast several days ago [illegible] officials of the Union, who declar[illegible] that the eastern gasoline could [illegible] sold here for the price formerly [illegible] prevailed for the California produ[illegible] Other companies are also consi[illegible] ering raising the price of gasoli[illegible] was announced yesterday. T[illegible] Standard officials declared they h[illegible] no information that the price [illegible] gasoline was to be raised. The A[illegible] Herald, however, announced at [illegible] San Francisco office that the pr[illegible] would probably go to 25 cents. [illegible] several weeks ago the Wilsh[illegible] Company announced that [illegible] gasoline would be raised to 26 cen[illegible] and some gasoline is said to ha[illegible] been sold by this company at 1[illegible] here.

While there is apparently plen[illegible] of gasoline here for the needs [illegible] the city at this time, reports fro[illegible] San Diego indicate that a shorta[illegible] of fuel oil is being felt there, a[illegible] it was stated that the naval office[illegible] on the Pacific Fleet are prepa[illegible] to seize fuel from some [illegible] companies along the coast.

GREEN TO KEEP GIFTS FROM MAHANA BOUGHT WIF[illegible]

COURT AWARDS WOMAN ONE WEARING APPAREL ADMIRER PRESENTED TO HER.

Another chapter in the histo[illegible] of the tangled marital troubles [illegible] Mahana and Green familie[illegible] which resulted in the death of Mr[illegible] Mahana and the marriage of M[illegible] Mahana and the wife of Thomas [illegible] Green, was written in Judge Wel[illegible] court's court yesterday. After [illegible] trial of a claim and delivery su[illegible] several months ago, in which the [illegible] Mrs. Helen I. Mahana [illegible] sought to recover from Mr. Green [illegible] former husband, a long list o[illegible] personal property, the court yester[illegible] awarded her only the wearing [illegible] apparel, or about one-fifth of th[illegible] articles she claimed.

The testimony at the trial showed [illegible] that while the present Mrs. Ma[illegible] was still the wife of M[illegible] Mr. Mahana made her [illegible] number of expensive gifts. These [illegible] were included in her claim [illegible] delivery suit against Mr. Green. [illegible] articles claimed by her includ[illegible] suits, dresses, riding suits, scarf[illegible] silverware, books, photographs and [illegible] a-brac.

PLANES START WEST.

Rickenbacker Piloting One From New York to Los Angeles.

The first transcontinental commercial airplane flight started yesterday from New York, when the [illegible] J-1, 6 all metal airplanes or[illegible] ordered by the Mercury Aviation Com[illegible] for passenger and mail service [illegible] Southern California began [illegible] trip westward.

The planes are piloted by Eddie [illegible] Rickenbacker and John Larsen, the [illegible] manufacturer of the all-metal [illegible] ers. They will follow the usual [illegible] routes, making the customary [illegible] stops, and should arrive on the [illegible] coast within five or six days.

...dson Puts New Knot into County Charter Tangle.

...Cline won a round yesterday in his long battle with the Supervisors over the collection of fees. Atty.-Gen. Webb gave an opinion to the State Board of Control at Sacramento to the effect that the County of Los Angeles county is entitled to receive the fees provided in sections 4178 and 4176 of the Political Code relating to the transportation of prisoners and insane patients, notwithstanding aside the county charter provisions prohibiting the retention of such fees. The Attorney-General holds that the claims for such fees should be made by the Sheriff, to whom only payment can be made. This opinion only puts another kink in the fee tangle because the Supreme Court has decided that the Sheriff must turn over such fees to the county, but has also affirmed a decision of the Superior Court refusing to order a mandate compelling such payment.

...two years ago Los Angeles county asked the District Court of Appeal for a peremptory mandate ordering Sheriff Cline to pay into the county treasury fees collected by him for the transportation of prisoners from this city to San Quentin and Folsom prisons and of insane from this city to the State Hospital. Judge Wellborn, in the Superior Court, refused to issue a writ of mandate, holding it would be unjust to compel the Sheriff to refund money he had spent to maintain the prisoners. Department One of the District Court of Appeal affirmed the judgment. At the same time, however, the Appellate Court granted a judgment of Superior Judge Valentine in the Sheriff's favor in an action brought by the county to compel him to turn over the fees. Judge Valentine was instructed to overrule Mr. Cline's answer to the county's petition.

...cost of gasoline at some of the filling stations here yesterday was raised to 25 cents per gallon. The increase in price followed the action here of the Oklahoma and Mid-Continent gasoline for the Union Oil Company. The additional charge was forecast several days ago by officials of the Union, who declared that the eastern gasoline could not be sold here for the price formerly charged for the California product. Other companies are also considering raising the price of gasoline, it was announced yesterday. The Union officials declared they had information that the price of gasoline was to be raised. The Associated, however, announced at its San Francisco office that the price would probably go to 25 cents. Several weeks ago the Wilshire Oil Company announced that its price would be raised to 25 cents. Some gasoline is said to have been sold by this company at that price.

GLOVER WARNS THE PUBLIC
Those who have beautiful, heavy hair should give it as much care and attention as those troubled with dandruff, and thin, falling hair.
Thick, glossy hair is natural—but modern life is complex, and the care of the hair is neglected by many people.
Glover's Hair Tonic is a scientific preparation, orginated by a famous bacteriologist—it does not remove the natural oil, but kills the bacilli that cause dandruff, stimulates the live hair roots and soon new hair appears.
Glover's will not cause hair to grow when the roots are dead—no hair tonic will—but it will stimulate and restore the growth when the roots are alive. It contains no oil or grease, will not stain, and has a mild, clean odor.
Glover's is different from other hair tonics, as it's made especially for use on the human scalp.
Use Glover's Tonic regularly twice a week—you'll be more than pleased with the results. No excuse for thin, scraggly hair as Glover's is so inexpensive. Get it from your druggist or barber today.—[Advertisement.

BEES CAUSE AUTO SMASH.

Pomona Man Drives Machine into Tree.

Harding Thanks Head of Republican Club.

Four Are Injured When Auto Hits Street Car.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POMONA, July 28.—Attacked by a swarm of bees as he was driving out from his ranch today, Charles W. Blake, Chino rancher, lost control of the automobile, causing the car to crash into a tree. The occupant was thrown into an irrigating ditch of muddy water.

Neighbors hearing the crash rushed to the scene, but, spying the angry swarm of bees hovering over the unfortunate man, were afraid to assist Blake until half an hour later, when the bees finally dispersed.

During this time Blake was forced into an involuntary mud bath and submerged entirely with the exception of his nose and eyes, to leave no target exposed for the bees to add to their fury. When Mr. Blake was finally rescued it was found that he had been terribly stung about the face, neck and breast, as well as his hands and arms, but that the mud had worked wonders in preventing marks and swellings or soreness. The automobile was badly wrecked.

HEARS FROM HARDING.

Mark H. Pitter, prominent member of the Pomona Valley Republican Club, today received a personal letter written and signed by Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate for the Presidency, thanking him for his recent letter and expressing his appreciation of the support which the Pomona club has given and proposes to give him in his campaign for the Presidency.

Incidentally, the Pomona club was one of the first to be formed in the country following the nomination of Senator Harding. The letter follows:

"Thank you very much for your letter of the 17th. I appreciate more than I can tell you the cordial support of the Pomona Valley Republican Club. With kindest personal regards to you and to the other members, I am

"Very truly yours,
"WARREN G. HARDING."

TO SAVE ROADS.

A petition asking the co-operation of the Pomona City Council in opposing the overloading of auto trucks, was filed with City Clerk Thomas R. Trotter today by C. J. Carlson, secretary of the Orange Belt Draymen's Association. The petition also asks that they go on record as favoring the adoption of uniform fees and load requirements in all Southern California cities.

Narrowly escaping death, six persons were cut and bruised and otherwise shaken up when a local Pacific Electric car crashed into an automobile driven by J. W. Soden, 173 Willow street, Pomona, at the Preciado-street crossing near Ganesha Park today.

Miss Ethel Soden was the most seriously hurt, she being thrown from the car and dragged for several feet by the street car before it was stopped. She was painfully cut and bruised about the face and hands, necessitating several stitches to close the wounds.

Others who were more or less cut and bruised were Mr. Soden, driver of the car, and two other children, Lucille, 18, and Merle, 7, and Mrs. E. F. Bishop and her 7-year-old son, Lloyd.

Mr. Soden stated that he did not see the approaching car until too late to stop, the view of the crossing being obscured by an orange grove. He attempted to swing his machine to one side in an effort to run parallel with the car, but could not turn sufficiently. The street car struck the front of the auto, overturning it, and throwing the street car off the track. The auto was wrecked.

All the injured were taken to the Pomona Valley Hospital, where their wounds were dressed. The street car was in charge of Motorman Bert Perry.

NO MORE "HOT DOGS."

Venice Officials Banish Resort's Favorite Eats.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VENICE, July 28.—All the venders of hot dog sandwiches will have to betake themselves to Coney Island or the public gardens of gay Paree if they would follow their chosen career after this year, by order of the Trustees of the city of Venice.

On the grounds that they are an obstruction to the streets of Venice, the city officials passed an ordinance today that all the Venice red hot stands, which have been always a feature of the amusement district, will have to go. There are from ten to twenty of the stands at the resort.

The stands have created a disturbance in civic circles at various times. About three years ago the city was all agog over whether the name of the sausage should be changed from Coney Island to Venice red hots, which change was eventually made.

AUTOISTS SEND UP DISTRESS SIGNAL.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, July 28.—Succor, aid, S.O.S., deep distress, is the signal being frantically sent out by the auto owners of Redlands.

What with the rise in price of gasoline and all that it is claimed the city officials have taken a mean advantage of the prostrate auto owner and tacked a new H.C.L. tag on him.

It is an increase in the fines. Hereafter it will cost $5 to speed instead of $2 and the same to break traffic laws. The reckless driver will pay $10 for his fun and cutting corners will cost just five bucks.

"We must live, the cost of living has gone up," said the judge and Chief of Police.

CALOMEL DANGER TOLD BY DODSON

Says You Cannot Gripe, Sicken, or Salivate Yourself If You Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a known cook or a wild cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone, which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.—[Advertisement.

HAWKS DOWNS RAY GREENBURG

Northern Tennis Crack is Easily Trimmed.

Robert Kinsey Looks Dangerous in Singles.

Some Hot Matches Expected in Today's Play.

San Francisco's tennis cracks got an awful jolt yesterday from the rackets of Southern California players in the championship play at the Y.M.C.A. courts. Robert Kinsey, brother of Howard Kinsey, is the only northerner that is left to battle for the singles championship. Robert made a great showing here last year and is looked upon as a mighty dangerous proposition. He oiled up his joints yesterday and surely looked the part.

The opening day saw two of the northerners ousted and yesterday Ray Greenburg, another of them, fell by the wayside. W. S. Jones was trimmed by him in the second round of the morning match, 6-1, 6-0, but Greenburg fell in the third round and was laced in a keenly played battle of three sets by Kenneth Hawks. The score was 6-1, 4-6, 6-2.

Robert Allen and W. Balthis had a great hook-up in the second round, the play going three sets, with Baldwin on the long end, 3-6, 6-1, 7-5.

In the third round Robert Kinsey drew A. Williams in the singles and won in hollow fashion, 6-0, 6-1. Bullock and Leeds lost to Stone and Stone, 6-2, 7-5. Yesterday's results follow:

REDLANDS WINS PRACTICE GAME.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, July 28.—In a practice game, a preliminary to the series of playground baseball games to be played between San Bernardino, Redlands and Riverside, Redlands won, defeating San Bernardino 3 2to 9. Wattenberger, the farmer pitcher of Redlands, proved to be too speedy for the Gate City lads, who could not see the ball.

A meeting is to be held this week to make a complete schedule for the series of games to be played during August. A. Cram, H. Cram, Schafer, Hodge, Brumbaugh, Wattenberger, Covington, Edwards, Warner and Dye played last night and are the men from whom the team is to be selected.

Can You Beat This Bird?

Coast League's Big Sensation.

Master Harl Maggert, if you please, the hustling and slugging Salt Lake center-fielder. "Shacker" (as he is familliarly known) has staged the most wonderful come-back in baseball. Supposed to be all in several years ago, he has this season taken on a new gland of life—is basting the old horsehide coocoo and showing as much speed in the field and on the bases as he showed in his early days. Now, shades of Doc Osler, will you be good!

OFFER TO SELL BEAVERS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PORTLAND (Or.) July 28.—Judge W. W. McCredie and his nephew, Walter McCredie, are understood to be in the market to sell their franchise for Portland in the Pacific Coast League. Manager Walter today admitted that he was ready to dispose of his interest in the club and it is believed that this means that the judge is also ready to quit as an owner. Walter McCredie said that he had received several tentative offers, one of them from Los Angeles, but he would not say who made it. Several California sportsmen are willing and anxious to take over the Portland franchise, said Walter. "If I sell, however, I would like to see the ownership remain in Portland."

McCredie is the oldest manager in point of service in the Coast League. Several years ago he bought a farm near Portland and has given a great deal of attention to it. It is believed that he wants to retire to this property, although it is known that at least one other club in the league has been after his services as a field pilot. The McCredies have been criticised here considerably this season for their failure to strengthen the club, which at the start was looked upon as the nucleus of a pennant winner.

MEDALS FOR TRAPSHOOTERS

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ANTWERP, July 27.—American trapshooters today received their Olympic medals. At the ceremony incident to the presentation there was no hint of a protest against the Americans on the ground of professionalism, which it was said in Etoile Belge yesterday, might be made.

Capt. Jay Clarke of the American team, questioned on the subject, said: "We left some of our best American shooters at home, just to guard against any hint of professionalism."

ANTWERP (Belgium) July 28.—The marksmanship title of the world is at stake in the Olympic target events beginning today at the Belgian army range at Camp Beverloo, about thirty miles from Antwerp.

The best army and civilian trapshooters with army rifles, pistols and carbines, drawn from all corners of the earth, are competing with their chosen weapons. One unusual feature is that the American rifle is represented by two teams, the American and Belgian. The latter decided the United States arm was the best in the world and secured permission from the War Department at Washington to use it.

In addition to the American team the following nations were registered to compete: Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Denmark, Spain, Finland, Holland, Great Britain, Italy, Norway, Portugal, South Africa, Sweden, Switzerland and Czecho-Slovakia.

The events will continue until August 4.

ANTWERP, July 28. — Although the American trapshooters made a clean sweep in the clay-target events, Norway is the winner on points of the Olympic hunting-arms competition as a result of her victories in the running-deer shooting.

Counting three points for first place, two for second place and one for third, Norway scored 14½ points, the United States 10, Eweden 6½, Finland 3 and Belgium 2. The American team will tour the battlefields before sailing home August 4.

ENGLISH GOLFERS WIN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SPRINGFIELD (Mass.) July 28.—An eighteen-hole match was rather welcome today in the face of the fact that Harry Vardon and I passed our time yesterday as we pleased. Playing over the course of the Springfield Country Club we defeated Jim Toole and Milton B. Reach, who are rated among the best amateurs in this vicinity, by five up and four to play.

NOTHING WONDERFUL.

None of us made any astounding good scores. None of us I am sure played the best golf possible. We all went to work doing our best at every hole, but still I fear, not im-

Track Men Sprint on Decks of Princess Matoika.

No Sickness Reported—Sea is Perfectly Calm.

Eleven-Day Routine Mapped Out for the Crossing.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

ON BOARD U.S.S. PRINCESS MATOIKA, July 27.—Perfect sailing weather today permitted the members of the American Olympic team to settle down to their eleven-day training routine. A seventy-yard cork sprint track has been laid on the upper deck and punching bag stands and wrestling mats have been placed. There is a canvas swimming tank on the lower deck, but when filled with sea water today it split under the strain and will have to be repaired.

The sprinters practiced starts and dashes in the forenoon, while the distance runners circled the lower deck many times this afternoon under the eyes of their trainers.

Owing to the heat of the lower decks, first place winners in the tryouts for Marathon runners, cyclists and sprinters have been transferred to the sick bay and upper deck cabins by consent of the transport officers.

Dress and competition uniforms were distributed this evening. They consist of a blue flannel coat, a cap with an American shield, white flannel trousers, white shoes, white jersey shirt with embroidered shields and white trunks with red, white and blue seam bands and border.

The sea is smoth and there is no sickness aboard.

ON BOARD U.S.S. FREDERICK, July 28 (By Wireless to the Associated Press.)—The navy athletes en route to Antwerp are keeping up hard practice on the quarterdeck, the rowing crew, wrestlers, boxers, fencers and runners exercising twice daily.

The Frederick, which has aboard 101 athletes and coaches of the Navy Olympic party, is 145 miles ahead of the Princess Matoika, carrying the other Olympic teams.

Radio messages to the athletes have been received from Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Admiral Coontz.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Oakland made the third inning today the shining exception to eight other featureless frames, thereby winning, 3 to 1, from Sacramento. Four hits, a walk and a wild pitch contributed to the three tallies. Wiley scored on Cooper's single and Knight's double with two on brought in the other two runs. Holling tightened up in the pinches in the last three innings, spoiling Sacramento's hopes of evening the score. The score:

The United States team has requested an interval of three weeks to practice in New Zealand after arriving. It is expected the matches will be contested about Christmas.

QUALIFYING ROUND IN CHICAGO GOLF.

CHICAGO, July 28.—A qualifying round today of the midwestern section of the Professional Golfers' Association brought forth an entry list of thirty leading professionals for competition in the thirty-six-hole event at the Westmoreland Country Club. The eight lowest scores will qualify for the championship event at Flossmoor, August 16 to 21.

The seventh annual junior championship of the Western Golf Association also started this morning at the Bob-o'-link Club, Highland Park, with a qualifying round of eighteen holes. Sixteen will qualify in the championship flight.

TIGERS SOAK IT TO BEES AGAIN.

Wheezer Dell Pitches Great Ball in Pinches.

Mormons Nick Him in Ninth When He Eases Up.

Sailor Stroud Strikes Squall in Opening Canto.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

Vernon again walloped the stingless Bees at Washington Park—this time, 6 to 4. Only one of the vast crowd present rioted in the belief that Salt Lake had won. That one sat next to us and was a rabid Arnie Johnson rooter. Toward the end of the game his chin sank heavily on his breast and he was soon free from all the carking cares of this sphere. As Sands whiffed for the last out in the ninth inning, we nudged our neighbor out of his somnolence. "Gee, but that was a glorious victory for Ernie," he gurgled as he licked his lips. "But Vernon won," we informed him, and then a sense of meaness pinched our heart as he burbled back, "Oh, sister, sister—why did you wake us up?"

If one were to look at the box score and size up the base hits one would be struck with the disparity between the Mormons' bingles and their comparatively short score. They made five more hits than did the Tigers, yet were easily beaten. This can be accounted for by the fact that Wheezer Dell was at the helm of the good ship Elsick and what is more to the purpose—Wheeze was about at his best. Every time a squall sprang up, Dell would bear down on the old tiller and dexterously steer clear of the shoals. He showed to the best advantage in the fourth partition.

RUM GETS BUSY.

Rumler, the first man up, awakened Salt Lake rooters moribund interest by darting a grass scorcher to right and Sheely a moment later shot the same kind of a bingle toward center. Wheezer for a short space lost his bearings and walked Hood, thus glutting the sacks. Not a man out and Bee hopes running high. Dell figured on striking out Sands and then teasing Byler into a double play. The Sands part of the mental arithmetic came through with a rattle as that worthy biffed everything in sight but the ball. He proved an easy strike out. Then Byler sauntered to the plate with a wagon tongue on his shoulder.

It was here that Wheeze builded better than he knew for he took all the bile out of Byler by making that worthy annoy the atmosphere three times in suction. The bases were still palpitating with a hive of bees when Bromley tripped jauntily to the rubber, but the best he could do was to send a chocolate eclaire to old Priv. Fisher, who shot the pastry to Borton—and what a hand Wheeze received as he walked in classic dignity to the dugout.

KEPT UP SNIPING.

The Mormons, although apparently hopelessly beaten kept sniping Dell all afternoon but were unable to make capital of their efforts until the ninth inning. Here it was that Wheeze's soup bone began to go toco and quicker than it can be told, Ernie Johnson's near-pennant babes had corralled four runs, something like this: Jenkins, batting for Bromley, belted one to right for a single and old Maggy, not to be out-

Big Meeting is Set Down for August 15-30.

Team This Year to be Rather Shy of Veterans.

Official announcement has been made by Adjt.-Gen. Borree of the complete personnel of the California civilian rifle team, which will compete in the international matches at Camp Perry, O., from August 15 to 30. The Los Angeles Rifle and Revolver Club leads all others with six men on the team: A. L. Thomson, Dr. A. T. Newcombe, Dr. L. Felsenthal, Leon Desert, W. R. Jackson and F. C. Payne.

The San Diego Rifle and Revolver Club has George S. Hall, Rex Drew and F. E. Webster. Pasadena Rifle Club, J. E. Pearson and H. A. Rich. The remaining six members hail from the San Francisco Bay region, with William H. Mallett of that city team captain. Al Thomson, a veteran of national fame, has been appointed team coach, a choice which will be welcomed by his teammates.

Dr. A. T. Newcombe, in addition to being a shooting member of the team, has accepted an appointment by Col. Mumma, in charge of the national matches, as executive officer of civilians.

The third member of the local club to be honored is Dr. Felsenthal, quartermaster, who will attend to the team's comforts while at Camp Perry. With the above list of officers the California men should be fitted to put forth their best efforts in competition with the country's, and the world's, best riflemen.

While the team this year will lack some of the veterans of former seasons, who, although chosen after the competitive tryouts, were unable to attend, all signs point to excellent consistency in the practice of the new men—those never having attended the national matches before.

Local riflemen will be keenly interested in the work of our own men at Perry, and it is hoped that in the national team match, as well as in the individual matches for many historic trophies, the Californians will bring home the bacon.

pressing the gallery as we have done in some of our exhibition matches.

Really, it was not a golf day. The heat was oppressive and not a vestige of breeze was up. I do not want anyone to take this as an inference that a wind is desirable for golf. It is not. It most certainly should not be extremely undesirable, however, for good golf can be and is played on occasions when something like half a gale is blowing. A finished golfer does not depend on weather or atmospheric conditions as a yacht does. Many even prefer to play their game on seaside links where the four winds meet and thresh the air until absolute adjustment is necessary.

GOOD STYLE.

Jim Toole has a very nice style. He reminds me somewhat of Harry Vardon in the easy grace of his position and swing. He was not as steady as he might be and I am not convinced that he was as confident as he might have been under other circumstances. He went out in forty-one and came in with the same number of strokes.

Toole drove nicely at times. The fact is that he played the game better than he played on the green and that is why I say he did not have enough self-assurance.

OFF HIS GAME.

Reach, who has all the appearance of a sound player—and I believe he is—was also rather off his game today—for I have been told that he ordinarily makes the course in and around par. His score was 83. Par is 72. He sliced a bit and hooked a bit. He approached creditably and consistently. On the green he made some bad shots and some very good ones. He ran a long putt or two. But still, I think he was not at his best in his putting. Nor were Vardon and I. And who is at his best every day? And who can explain why one is not?

Harry Vardon went out in 38 and back in 38 today. I went out in 34 and in in 39.

AGAIN TOMORROW.

We are to play over the Shuttle Meadow Golf Club's course at New Britain tomorrow, thirty-six holes. I understand we are to meet Roger Hovey, Connecticut champion, and Bob Andrews. We are anticipating an interesting match. We are due to be in top form Friday, for then we are to meet Ouimet and Guilford at the Belmont Springs Country Club, Waverley, Mass.

TIGERS SOAK IT TO BEES AGAIN.

Sheely did the same. Johnson slashed one to center for one base, scoring Sheely. Mulligan was an easy out on a fly to High and Rumler, the league's best batter, ingloriously fouled.

Vernon's troubles looked as if they were all over but the Mormons were desperate and were fighting with berserker spirit. Maggert and Johnson pulled off a double steal—the oddest thing you know. Sheely went up to the rubber and busted the first ball over for a single to right, scoring Maggert and Johnson. Dell bore down on a groover that cleared the center-field fence for a home, scoring Sheely, and that was about the only thing that could have stopped the gangling first sacker.

WHIFFS SANDS.

Sands was next man up. Was Vernon flustered? Well not that we could notice it. He just pulled himself together, and believe us, kids, it was some long and lusty wail, and served three cripples over the old plate and what does Mas-ter Sands do but stand there like Lot's wife, after she had given the whole O backward, and was called out on strikes. It was a pure case of somnerism and if Dell ever loses out in baseball who knows but what he might make another Herrmann or Keller.

Midshipman Stroud carried the fortunes of Ernie Johnson to the mound, but the sailor was not there and well he was aware of it before many minutes had elapsed. The Bengals fell upon him like a flotilla of steel sharks and before he knew it had piled up a quartet of tallies. The cannonade listened something like this:

CHET TO RESCUE.

Mitchell flied to Rumler, but Chadbourne, the last word in the art of bunting, beat out one in front of the plate, Stroud to Sheely. Fisher was hit just above the right wrist. The blow was a terrific one and put Bobby to his knees for a spell. Borton walked, inebriating the canvasmen. Edington, like the Stumpy of yore, clicked a beauty single to right, shoving Chadbourne and Fisher over the plate. Morse then tripled over first near the foul line, the ball fitting clear to the corner of the right-field bleachers, Borton and Edington tallying. De Vormer ended the Bee buzzing by popping to Sands. The Tigers made one in the fifth and one in the seventh and had Dell not eased up in the ninth, Ernie Johnson would have taken the unbusiness part of nine doughnuts to the clubhouse with him. NOTES OF THE GAME.

"Onward, onward, onward to that old flag," is now the Vernon cry.

Once more the scoreboard boy went coocoo with the eastern results. He had St. Louis beating the Giants, which was a cock-eyed untruth. A man in his senses could easily abide this, but the scoreboard boy sent everyone present into Guessville when he flashed St. Louis playing the Giants in St. Louis. St. Louis is entertaining Babe Ruth and our own Bobby Meusel this week and this, with the old furnace weather and the booming of blowouts from overheated tires greeting one at every corner, is about all the hot burg can stand in one short week. However, when one adds Muggsy McGraw to this constellation of superheated stars the result is overpowering. A scoreboard boy is but an infinitesimal part of the human species, but he sure can throw an awful jolt into that part of the human species that goes to Washington Park every afternoon.

Chadbourne and Stumpy Edington are both nursing mild Charley horses. This accounts for Chet's inability to steal second in the last week or so. Red Smith is petting a boil on his knee, so the ailing list is beginning to climb up a little in the Tigers' lair.

It must have been with peculiar satisfaction that Kenworthy belted in the winning run at Seattle yesterday in the last of the ninth inning. If old Kopecs could have done this last year when he hung superfluous on the scene at second for the Angels baseball history might have been changed. Many fans will always think that Kenworthy was held about two months overtime at the keystone last season.

Sands looks weak at second for the Bees, not so much in the fielding line, but at the bat. Still, Ernie Johnson is doing the best he can and is burning up wires in a search of a second-sacker.

Hood, the Whittier lad that is playing left for the Bees, looks like the real jam. He is a cracking good fielder and, my, how he can bundle the old horsehide at times!

If one believed in transmigration one would swear that this is the same Maggert in a new panoply of flesh that used to electrify fans at Washington Park years ago with as nifty a brand of baseball as would crop up in a month of Sundays.

Stumpy Edington has again gotten his lamps on the ball, so look out there, boys, for here comes the old pill just a-scooting from Stumpy's bat.

A Bee rooter sympathizing with Ernie Johnson after the game soothingly purred, "Tough luck, Ernie." "Never mind," rolled back the Bee manager, "we've got five more to play yet." Meaning what?

Baseball fanatics are running wild over the Seattle team just now simply because the Suds happened to have a winning streak. The Rainiers are all right, but unless all signs fail they should have an awful time of it finishing in the first division.

COL. J. W. JUMP IS THERE WITH THE ROD.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

AVALON, July 28.—The second heaviest light tackle tuna of the season was taken today by Col. J. W. Jump. The successful angler brought in a 62½-pounder on the light thread. The heaviest light tackle fish to date this season has been W. C. Bradbury's of Denver, whose catch weighed just 2 and 1-4 pounds heavier.

The heaviest tuna taken in a number of days was a 103 3-4-pounder brought in on regulation tackle today by A. W. Hooper. Since the broadbill victories by Catalina sportsmen, the tuna catches have been slowing up, every angler being out for the fiercer game of the sea.

for Sherbets
Cal-ora imparts a rich orange flavor, delicious when used in the following proportions:
2½ cups cold water
1 scant cup of Cal-ora
1 teaspoon lemon juice
White of 1 egg beaten stiff
Pinch of salt.
This is sufficient for one quart of sherbet.

for Icing
1 cup powdered sugar
4 level tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons Cal-ora
Cream butter thoroughly, then add sugar and Cal-ora gradually.

BESIDES being a drink in popular demand, Cal-ora serves many other good and wholesome purposes.

Just reason it out this way: Cal-ora is a true-fruit syrup made from orange juice and pure granulated sugar. It's concentrated. It's sweet. It keeps. It has a rich orange flavor.

You can easily imagine how good it is in punches, sherbets, cakes, gelatine desserts, puddings, etc. All of these uses you will readily discover with your first bottle.

Because of its many convenient uses, Cal-ora is the most economical drink you can buy. Your grocer and druggist keep both the fifty-cent and dollar sizes. Ask him for it.

THE one aim of Firestone in building tubes has been to defeat this tube destroyer by increasing heat resistance. Firestone's concentrated effort through the antimony process—a method by which heat-resisting power of the rubber is increased and deterioration reduced—has resulted in the Firestone High-Test Tube—a tube that parallels the quality and service of the Firestone Oversize Cord Tire.

Firestone builds this High-Test Tube bigger in sectional size, which avoids unnecessary stretch and strain when the tube is inflated. Heat-generating tension is therefore reduced.

Firestone's laminated structure—ply upon ply of thin rubber sheets, laid so the grain runs cross-wise, produces a stouter tube wall.

Firestone introduced the cured-in valve pad, giving strength at the point of greatest strain.

With greater resistance to heat, greater strength and toughness, the Firestone High-Test Tube takes the same high rank as the Firestone Cord Tire.

Think what a small investment this Firestone High-Test Tube is—to protect your big investment in tires. Tell your dealer you want Firestone High-Test Tubes.

OUTDOOR FANTASY.

PASADENA COMMUNITY PLAYERS GIVE "MERRY WIVES."

By Edwin Schallert.

Beneath a greenwood tree, such as the Bard of Avon himself might have fancied, Sir John Falstaff of rotund paunch frolicked with his gay aides and abettors in Shakespeare's most frivolous comedy, "The Merry Wives of Windsor," last night at Brookside Park in Pasadena. It was the opening outdoor performance of the Pasadena Community Players, who have, during the past several seasons, brought to the people of the Crown City the delight of witnessing many an entertaining and noteworthy play, attractively presented. Their latest undertaking is representative of a climax in their endeavors, because it carried their crusade for community drama and diversion through the summer season as well as the winter.

The charm of Brookside Park as a location for the outdoor theater is its seclusion and the fact that it is free from any suggestion of commercial realities. Players and audience can readily feel the witchery of the surroundings, and lose themselves in the spirit of such a fascinating sequence of nonsense and merriment as "The Merry Wives of Windsor" provides. Particularly, were the natural beauties in harmony with the fantasy of the closing act, its fairy pageant and its torch dance, where the mischievous knight is temporarily awakened from his amorous delirium.

One discovers in the play that the women of the fifteenth century had just as much fun out of making a man jealous as the woman of the present, and were perhaps just about as clever at doing it. The method of procedure is different, but the stunt of putting the would-be homebreaker in a clothes hamper is not out of date yet. And dirty laundry is just about as odoriferous at present as it was when Falstaff had to sniff it while being carried to the public wash pond.

The players were very successful in the episodes relating to the fat knight's futile attempts at winning the affection of the light vamp who merrily leads him on. The action was free from restraint, especially in these scenes. Some of the other burlesquerie dragged a trifle, because of the evident nervousness on the part of players causing the amateurish taint.

Gilmore Brown, who as director of the community performances, one has chiefly to credit with their success, made a capital Falstaff. He did not burlesque the character. He played it with a ponderous but convincing sincerity. Florence McAfee was a delight because of her naturalness as Mistress Ford, while Thyra Ruhland presented a merrily dignified Mistress Page. Elzear O'Connell won many laughs as Slender, the sickly lover of Anne Page, but was not at ease in the part. Mrs. A. H. Palmer gave a good-natured and mirthful matchmaker as Lady Quickly. Wendell Wilson, F. G. Novis, Douglas Estep, Harold Perkins, Helen Bailey and L. E. Estes deserve mention, although their interpretations are not perfected by any means.

The play is to be repeated each night through the remainder of the week. The setting is half the charm of the performance, just as it always is in the outdoor presentation, and Brookside Park, with its live oak trees, its green shrubbery, and its attractive amphitheater, seems to be particularly favored as a location. I might add as a recommendation that it is not easily accessible, and unless one is familiar with the road, information or a map is necessary prior to a visit to the new and very interesting outdoor playhouse.

"Lightnin'" a Film.

King Vidor, the noted picture producer, is understood to be negotiating for the play, "Lightnin'," in New York, and if everything turns out favorably he may have the pleasant duty of directing Frank Bacon in this feature. Bacon is said to be very much interested in the idea.

It would appear that this is about the only way "Lightnin'" will ever tour the country, for Mr. Bacon, it seems, has made a resolution not to leave big Broadway. He is the only star, I believe, who can, under the contract, play the leading role in the drama, unless the terms of this agreement are changed.

Prologue a la Jazz.

All manner of excitement is promised next week at the Kinema Theater in a special feature act to accompany the showing of "Married Life." For Jack Callicott is seeking to arrange for personal appearances by the various people who take part in this Sennett supercomedy. Among those whose services are being enlisted for the celebration are Ben Turpin, Phyllis Haver, Charlie Murray, Ford Sterling, Louise Fazenda, Bert Roach, James Finlayson, Kalla Pasha, Baby John Henry and several of the Sennett bathing nymphs. Ben Turpin has just returned from the north, where he took part in the festivities staged in honor of First National at Oakland. And they do say—but I'll keep Ben's secret this time. Only it isn't horseback riding that makes it impossible for the Sennett comedian to sit down comfortably at the present time.

Beban a Mayor.

Speaking of that First National Field Day in Oakland, it seems that George Beban is the proudest man in Los Angeles, just at the moment. Mr. Beban last Monday received one of the highest honors ever conferred on a picture luminary. When Mayor John L. Davie of the northern city declared a civic holiday in honor of the cinema stars, who journeyed from Los Angeles to be present at the ceremonies, he stepped down from his chair in the City Hall, and officially made Mr. Beban Mayor of the city for the day. The impromptu inauguration was witnessed by several of Mayor Davie's staff, and a formal declaration was then drawn up, signed and sealed with the official seal of the Mayor's office. Mr. Beban declared that his first official action would be to annul the prohibition law.

"Oh, Daddy!" Next.

"You Tell 'Em," which is now playing at the Burbank Theater, is to be followed next week by Ed Armstrong's latest musical concoction, "Oh, Daddy," wherein the gay old problem, rich uncle leaving the bachelor an inheritance on condition that he get married, is put over with new jazz decorations.

Sympathetic Accompaniment.

A domestic angle on music as an accompaniment to picture making is furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Billy Elmer. The former is taking part in a Locklear feature for the Fox company. Mrs. Elmer, who is an accomplished musician, believes in helping her husband in his work, and every day she is behind the sets, coaching him. While Elmer enacts a dramatic or comic scene his wife plays his favorite ballad or jazz tune. The Fox officials have expressed themselves as highly pleased with the results.

Glendale a Home Mecca.

Glendale promises to be a sort of home town for Orpheum stars next week. Not only will Louise Dresser and Jack Gardner be there in the new home that Louise bought "site unseen" recently, but Percy Bronson and Winnie Baldwin have long owned a home in Glendale, and their several kiddies are now awaiting the return Monday of papa and mama. Both groups of stars will motor back and forth between performances.

In L-Ko Special.

FLASHES.

DONOVAN COMPANY.

PEPPFUL YOUNG LEADING MAN FORMS ORGANIZATION.

By Grace Kingsley.

We are used to our beautiful leading ladies blossoming suddenly as stars with their own studios and everything, but the young leading men who secure their own companies are fewer. Take Jack Donovan, for instance—you'd scarcely expect one of his age to bloom out as a de luxe luminary, but that is just what has happened.

In other words, Mr. Donovan has lately organized his own company, and has a well-equipped studio in Hollywood, where he will make pictures in which he will be featured and which he will also supervise. However, the enterprising young gentleman isn't going it alone in the starring business; he is to have all-star casts. He has a director engaged, but isn't yet ready to announce his name, as said director is now engaged in making a picture for Metro.

Production on Donovan's first feature will begin about October 1. It will be a visualization of the well-known magazine story. The story also calls for a talented dog, and Mr. Donovan, always forehanded, already has the dog, an animal named "Pumpkin," which has a professional record as well as a pedigree, since he has had the distinction of appearing with Mary Pickford and other stars. Pumpkin has promised not to sign up with anybody else, and therefore it is safe to announce his name.

Mr. Donovan also has just built a handsome new home on Sunset Boulevard, which he is going to use as a setting in his first picture. As the home is beautifully furnished, and contains some $20,000 worth of interesting curios brought by Mr. Donovan's family from abroad, a few years ago, it does seem as if it should serve the purpose of a satisfactory background.

Mr. Donovan has had an interesting career as a leading man and juvenile. He appeared in leading roles with Edith Storey, Bessie Love, Lois Weber and others.

Brunton Plans.

Robert Brunton is expanding his production activities. Announcement was made yesterday to the effect that three new stars are to make pictures, in addition to the all-star features which he is producing under direction of Jack Conway and others.

One of the three new stars is Dustin Farnum, who has been producing independently, but who has just signed up, to appear in Ridgwell Cullum's story, "The Trail of the Axe." Ernest Warde will direct, and Fritzie Brunette will play the feminine lead. Production will commence August 15.

The second star is Ruth Roland, who has just completed a serial for Pathe, and who will at once begin work on a fifteen-episode serial, "The Honeymoon Quest," from the magazine story by Arthur Preston Ankins. Charles Hutchison, the dare-devil serial star, has renewed his contract with Brunton, and will soon start work on a new multi-chapter picture written by W. S. Van Dyke.

Veiller Tells It.

The rest of that story about Jane Cowl, which appeared in Sunday's issue of The Times, has just been learned. Bayard Veiller tells it, and it concerns the appearance of Miss Cowl in his play, "Within the Law." She made a very bad error in her lines at the end of the scene when the play was produced and rushed off the stage weeping. It seems that she went to her dressing-room, took off her make-up, and declared she wouldn't go on again. Mr. Veiller came and remonstrated with her and, as a last resort, he picked up a small bucket of water and dashed it in the actress's face. Miss Cowl was so surprised she forgot her excitement and consented to finish the play.

Van Loan Home.

H. H. Van Loan, author of "The Virgin of Stamboul," "The Redeemer" and other picture plays of note, has arrived in town from New York and reports that A. H. Woods is going to put "The Virgin of Stamboul" on the stage. Sydney Toler is writing the dramatic version.

Mr. Van Loan has received a large number of offers to tie himself up with various concerns, but has refused them all, declaring he believes he will do better work if he sticks to the free lance game. He is writing for Norma Talmadge, Tom Mix, Hope Hampton and others.

Hobart Henley Weds.

Word is just received from New York of the marriage of a pair famous in motion pictures. The high contracting parties are Corinne Barker and Hobart Henley. Mr. Henley has his own producing company, Miss Barker is his leading woman, and the two have been engaged during the past three years.

Mildred Chaplin Leaves.

Mildred Harris Chaplin and her mother have left for New York. They first visited the First National Day celebration at Oakland, then went straight on. Miss Harris will be present at the initial showing of her picture, "The Woman in His House," which is said to be one of the most successful features of the year.

Stars Return.

Talking about that Oakland celebration, the First National stars have all come home safe and sound, despite the mad crush that greeted them in the northern city. Among those who helped make the event a success were Agnes Ayers, Wesley Barry, Marjorie Daw, Ben Turpin, Phyllis Haver, Charles Murray, Fay Tincher, Carter De Haven, Bobby Vernon and George Beban.

Standing with Metro.

Wyndham Standing has been added to the list of distinguished Metro players. He has just signed a contract for some time. He is to appear opposite Viola Dana in "Blackmail" and later with May Allison in "The Marriage of William Asche."

Warner's Latest.

That very excellent actor, H. B. Warner, is to make a film version for Jesse D. Hampton of Nat Goodwin's former success, "When We Were Twenty-One."

Gareth Hughes Engaged.

Gareth Hughes, the gifted youth who already is well known to Metro picture fans, has been selected for one of the leading roles in Luther Reed's story, "White Ashes."

Hal Cooley Busy.

Hallam Cooley has been engaged as leading man for Eileen Percy, in her second starring vehicle for Fox, a comedy drama titled "Beware of the Bride." Howard Mitchell is directing.

Tony Moreno Has Guardian.

We don't mean one thing out of the way when we say that Antonio Moreno, Vitagraph star, has a guardian. Anyhow he's such a distinguished guardian that anybody ought to be proud of him. Besides he hasn't really worked at guardianing Tony since the star was a child, away back in Spain. Now this guardian, who is none other than the distinguished Spanish capitalist, Enrique Manzetti, has just arrived in town and is visiting his famous ward.

Tendering City's Rule to Star.

George Beban, Mayor of Oakland.

John L. Davie (extreme right,) chief executive of northern city, intrusting his powers to picture actor (right) as signal to industry of First National Day.

COUNTERFEITING CASE GOES TO GRAND JURY.

MAKING OF FRANC NOTES FOR PICTURE USE IS BASIS OF FEDERAL CHARGE.

By a decision of U. S. Commissioner Long yesterday, Gleb De Vos, Clarence E. Riley, Eric Von Stroheim, C. J. Rodgers and Julius Gold were held to the Federal grand jury for hearing today on the charge of violating the law against counterfeiting by having photographs and facsimiles made of French franc notes for motion picture use. De Vos, Von Stroheim and Rodgers are connected with the Universal Film Manufacturing Company, the second as art director. Riley and Gold are printers and etchers.

But for the fact that the government did not charge the defendants with conspiracy, Jacob Froelich, who was arrested at the same time as the others, would have been held also. The testimony showed that Froelich had arranged for the purchase of the superfine white paper in New York from which the notes were to be made, but the stuff had never been delivered because the arrests followed soon after the commission was given. Under a conspiracy accusation Froelich would have shared the same fate as the others.

One of the defenses put forward in behalf of the accused was that the words "stage money" were etched on the plates, conveying the impression to spectators that it was not intended to represent real money. This prompted a question by the Commissioner if the words, "stage money" could not be faded out when the picture was completed.

It is possible that De Vos will not be prosecuted as he appeared as a witness for the government. His testimony was most important from the point of view of the prosecution.

FINDS BAIL TOO HIGH.

Man Who Eloped with Little Girl Held for Embezzlement.

Justice Bowser yesterday held Clyde M. Spinning to answer the charge of embezzlement and fixed his bail at $5000, which was not furnished. Mr. Spinning got into the limelight when he eloped with Elizabeth Magee, 13 years old, and was arrested, charged with taking a $100 Liberty Bond belonging to his mother-in-law.

C. C. Magee, the father of the girl, testified that Mr. Spinning asked to borrow the Liberty Bond to use as collateral for printing material. He said he declined to comply with the request. Mrs. Magee declared that Mr. Spinning came to her, asked for the bond and she gave it to him. The girl bride was not in court. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hill said he thought that Mr. Spinning would be taken back to Colorado where he is wanted for a violation of his parole.

POLISH BENEFIT.

A concert will be given by the Polish Women's League of America for the benefit of the orphans of war-ravaged Poland, Sunday afternoon at Trinity Auditorium. Among those on the program are Mme. Felicia Romanowska, dramatic soprano; Alexander Saslavsky, violinist; Harry Nielsen, pianist; Paul Cartwight, 'cellist; Miss Gladys Dunlap, accompanist; Waclaw Sieroszewski, writer, patriot and soldier, S. K. Szymanowski, author and lecturer.

Smartness of appearance resulting from the judicious selection of attire, particularly of footwear, is one of the attributes most desired by women of fashion.

The vast amount of favor which these new oxfords are receiving is far from surprising, indeed, it is logical, for these creations are the embodiment of all that is smart and stylish in footwear combined with materials that give maximum length of service.

You can get them here in all leathers and sizes.

Guaranty Bank Talk

PLACE TWO MEN

side by side as tellers in a bank.

Assume them equal in ability, experience, appearance, personality. In fact, let them be equal in every respect—position, opportunity, salary.

But give one of them the added incentive of a share in the profits of the bank—make him an interested partner in the business.

Which do you believe would serve you better as a patron of the bank? From which could you most likely expect the personal, individual interest and efficient service that would make you feel like recommending the bank to your friends?

The answer is obvious, but we believe it will point out to you the benefits accruing to Guaranty Bank patrons from our Employees' Profit-Sharing Plan.

AIR DEALS IN STOCKS TODAY.

Fred Mayne's Trial on Grand Larceny Charge is On.

Customer Who Protested Over Arrest Will Testify.

Supposed Arizona Dupe Will Come to Tell Story.

The trial of Fred Mayne, indicted by the grand jury on two counts in connection with reputed fake stock deals, will begin in Judge Houser's court today. He is specifically charged with attempted grand larceny and grand larceny, having obtained from Otto Weiss, a farmer, about $10,000.

At the time of Mayne's arrest in Santa Barbara by Burns detectives and operatives from the District Attorney's office, Mr. Weiss, the so-called victim, was indignant and did not want the officers to interfere because he did not believe he had been fleeced.

Mayne's reputed confederate, Jacob P. Connelly, is said to have made a full confession to the District Attorney's office, accusing Mayne of victimizing Mr. Weiss. Connelly will be the prosecution's principal witness at the trial. Mr. Weiss will also be a witness.

Another witness against Mayne will be W. F. Evans, a telegraph operator, who is said to have lost $2000. He resides in Arizona and will be here for the trial. The case against Mayne will be prosecuted by Dist.-Atty. Woolwine and Deputy W. J. Clark.

Mayne is in jail under heavy bail. the District Attorney's office will oppose any motion for a continuance of the trial, it is said.

Cases of a similar nature involving other persons are pending. In some respects they resemble the case against E. A. Hutchings, Big Hutch, now under arrest in New York, who is fighting extradition.

WANT STADIUM ON THE BALLOT.

VOTERS TO PICK.

The idea of placing both proposals on the ballot at the coming primary is to determine the question as to whether both or one of the two projects will be undertaken at this time. A decision by the voters in August, it is explained, will be followed by immediate steps to carry out the plan favored.

"No public-spirited citizen familiar with our present lack of facilities for public entertainment questions that we should provide such facilities," said Mr. Weaver. "San Francisco got the Democratic National Convention because she had facilities to handle it. We cannot hope to profit in this way until we are to properly entertain such gatherings."

WANTS MEN FOR RHINE.

Army After Recruits to Serve in Forces of Occupation.

Telegrams were received at the Army recruiting offices yesterday stating that there are 967 vacancies in the Army of Occupation in Germany and that enlistments will be received for this service. The wires stated that the enlisted men will be used only for German service and that as the number is limited, all enlistments must be made at once.

In addition to the 967 men needed for service along the Rhine, thirty clerks and thirty cooks are wanted by the infantry, the cavalry arm needs five cooks and five clerks and fifteen other men without special qualifications, and the field artillery wants twenty-five general recruits. Other Army openings are for five cooks and five clerks in the quartermaster's department, and twenty-seven recruits, and three cooks and bakers and six clerks for the supply service. The term of enlistment is for three years.

KERR FUNERAL TODAY.

Body of Late Mining Man Will be Interred at Hollywood.

Funeral services for Robert J. Kerr, oil and mining operator and brother of John A. H. Kerr, cashier of the Security National Bank, who died at his home, 3301 Bellevue avenue Tuesday, will be held at the family residence at 2 o'clock today. Burial will be in Hollywood.

Mr. Kerr owned large mining holdings in Arizona a few years ago when he sold out and went to Mexico City. He then became interested in an English company and went to London to the offices there. At that time he met Miss Carita Cope Rothwell, an American girl in England on a visit, and married her there. Upon his return to this country he came to Los Angeles where he has resided for several years. Mr. Kerr was born in Montreal fifty-two years ago. He leaves a widow.

BRICKS HURT HIM.

Caught beneath a shower of bricks when a small wall at the rear of a building under construction at Seventh and Figueroa streets collapsed yesterday afternoon, Henry Keidler of West Alhambra, a workman, was seriously injured. At the California Hospital, where the injured man was rushed by the police ambulance, he was treated for injuries to the back and concussion of the brain, as well as lacerations about the head.

KILL CORNS AND WEAR SMALLER SHOES

Home Method Discovered by Chemist Ends Painful Growths.

Many persons are unable to wear the shoes that actually fit them because they are troubled with corns or callouses.

Extra-size footwear is not necessary, however, after these painful growths have been painted with Cactus Corn Compound. This preparation stops the pain of corns at once and causes them to dry up and soon fall off.

This method of removing corns can be employed at home by anyone and is perfectly safe, while cutting is very dangerous. A small bottle of Cactus Corn Compound, costing only a few cents, will remove dozens of corns. Your druggist has it and will refund your money if it does not please you.—[Advertisement.

BEARDSLEY SHY ON SIGNATURES.

Nominating Petition Thrown Out; Two Now in Race for District Attorney.

County Registrar of Voters Lyons yesterday ruled out the nomination petition of John Beardsley, one of the eleventh-hour candidates for the District Attorneyship, because it lacked the required number of signatures. Mr. Beardsley filed his petition shortly before midnight last Thursday.

This leaves but a single candidate, Charles W. Lyon, to make the race against Dist.-Atty. Woolwine. Mr. Lyon, a brother of the late State Senator Henry Lyon, is City Attorney of Venice.

Hospital Cots Now Await All Souse Parties.

Following the death yesterday of Joseph Quesada, 43 years of age, a Mexican laborer of 315 Leroy street, from the effects of drinking bootleg whisky containing wood alcohol, Acting Chief Murray ordered that all persons arrested for intoxication be taken at once to the Receiving Hospital for examination. Quesada told investigating officers before he died that he purchased the whisky on North Main street from a stranger.

Quesada, according to the police investigation purchased the poison whisky late Monday night. He took the liquor home and drank it. Early yesterday morning he became very ill and the police ambulance was called. He died several hours later at the Receiving Hospital.

After issuing the orders for examining all intoxicated persons Chief Murray ordered Police Detectives Barnett and Mann to make a searching investigation of the sale of the poison whisky and to attempt to arrest the dealer. Orders were also given to have all bootleg whisky examined in every case where any was seized.

DEATHS AT MONROVIA.

Grim Reaper Exacts Heavy Toll in Neighboring City.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MONROVIA, July 28.—Striking for the eighth time within five years in the family of I. J. Griffith, Duarte Santa Fe agent, death yesterday called Lee Griffith, 24-year-old son of the railroad man. Other members of the Griffith family to die during the half decade are the father, mother, aunt and four other children of Mr. Griffith.

Lee Griffith was convalescing from an attack of the influenza and was believed to be on the way to recovery, when going from the living-room to his own room he suffered a sudden sinking spell and died in his father's arms.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Rev. Menzo Francis McNeil, the railroad evangelist of Council Bluffs, was yesterday found dead in bed at his son's home in Arcadia. Rev. Mr. McNeil was 68. Death was caused by acute indigestion, from which he had suffered since an attack of heat prostration in the Imperial Valley three years ago. The body will be returned to Council Bluffs, Iowa, for burial. In that city the deceased was well known as a building contractor and manufacturer, as well as an evangelist, among the railroad workers.

MILITARY FUNERAL.

Military honors for Private Charles A. Monroe, Balloon School soldier, who died at the post hospital twenty-four hours after being burned in an explosion of flash powder, were paid the late soldier yesterday by men and officers of the post. King, close friend of the deceased, accompanied the remains.

PHOENIX-PRESCOTT LINE IN WEST UNIT.

SANTA FE ANNOUNCES CHANGE IN ARIZONA ZONE FOR TRAFFIC HANDLING.

The Phoenix and Prescott unit of the Santa Fe system in Arizona will become a part of the Santa Fe Coast Line system August 1, and will be operated from the Coast line headquarters in Los Angeles.

This change in operation of the Arizona lines was made known yesterday by J. R. Hitchcock of this city, assistant general manager of the Coast lines, here on his way to Phoenix to take over operation. L. L. Hibbard, the general manager, will join him there.

Heretofore, the Prescott-Phoenix line has been a Santa Fe unit separate from the Coast system, and had its own operating management.

It is believed the change will link the Arizona country closer to California and that improvements and enlargements of service will follow the change.

SUES "PRINCESS."

Painter Wants Cost of Picture, Also Money He Advanced.

Alver Regli, a portrait painter, demands in a suit filed yesterday against "Princess" Della Patra, said to be a niece of the Khedive of Egypt, now plain Mrs. Erich Buehle of San Francisco, the sum of $879.55, representing the price of a portrait he painted of her and various sums of money that he declares he advanced to her while she was a luminary of the local film world. The complaint was prepared by Attorney Stephen Montelone.

As the "Princess" Della Patra the now defendant in Mr. Regli's suit recently figured prominently in the public print on a San Francisco charge of grand larceny and false pretenses. She was arrested in New York and returned to San Francisco to answer these charges, but confounded the prosecutor and all concerned by wedding her accuser, Erich Buehle, an engineer, some few hours after arriving in the Bay City.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Time to Take Off the Blue Glasses; Alfalfa, Bonds and Finances.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The first half of the week has provided few changes in the general business or financial situation. The normal midsummer vacation calm is in evidence, but no more pronounced than was to be expected.

The most encouraging feature is the continuance of building operations and planning on a large scale in the face of somewhat stringent credit conditions. Retail trade is good, with commodity prices averaging slightly lower.

Speculation is almost at a standstill so far as stocks are concerned, and there is a noticeable falling off in public inclination to go into every cat and dog scheme advanced by optimistic promoters.

In spite of heavy withdrawals for vacation purposes, bank deposits are growing. The bond market is not very active, but has a strong undertone, and the more attractive issues move with fair activity.

The present condition was well expressed yesterday by W. J. Wollman, a well-known investment banker, who said:

"Pessimism as to the future of the United States is inexcusable now or at any other time. The country is not going to ruin. The crops are all right. The railroad congestion is not going to last. Money will be plentiful for all legitimate purposes. Selling of securities at present prices cannot be too strongly discouraged. As a whole they are selling below their actual worth—much below. Prices for some products and commodities undoubtedly have been altogether too high. There has been profiteering no doubt. Money has been hard to get, but things are adjusting themselves rapidly. Inventories are being written down to accord with the new level. Crops will soon be moving and the country is going to take off its blue glasses very soon."

ALFALFA MARKET.

The weekly letter to its members, which will be issued Saturday by the Alfalfa Growers of California, will say that the hay market shows no material change for the week, offerings for forward movements being again well established at about previous prices.

It is probable that the comparatively short crop this year will result in additional advances between this time and the beginning of the winter season.

Some growers claim that the last dollar is being squeezed out of them in high prices, which they are forced to pay and that therefore they should be permitted to take all they can get when in a position to dictate prices.

While it is admitted that there is much truth in this argument, it does not take into consideration the fact that while unreasonably low prices have made the grower lose money and were also the cause of the present short acreage, unreasonably high prices, will in the end have the same effect, as they will lead to reduced dairy herds, reduced consumption and in a short time to unremunerativly low prices, and so again through the same old vicious circle.

Current prices quote choice alfalfa at $41 per ton; No. 1 dairy alfalfa, $36; standard dairy, $33, and stock hay, $29 per ton.

BIG COLUMBIA ISSUE.

A syndicate headed by the Guaranty Trust Company of New York is offering $7,500,000 Columbia Graphophone Manufacturing Company 8 per cent notes, due August 1, 1925. The notes are a direct obligation of the company, which has no other funded debt outstanding other than $250,000 in real estate mortgages.

The notes will be retired by the establishment of a sinking fund, which starts on June 1, 1922, and they will be redeemable in part or in whole at par, plus a premium of ½ per cent. Each note is convertible, after February, 1921, into three shares of common stock of the company at the rate of $35 per share.

The net tangible assets of the company, after this financing, will amount to more than $32,000,000, or four and one-third times the par value of these notes. For the year 1919, the earnings of the company amounted to $3,800,000, while for the first six months of the present year the earnings were approximately $2,800,000, or over four times the interest charges on this issue.

The company, and subsidiaries, agrees to maintain net assets equal to 150 per cent of the combined current liabilities during the life of this issue. Among local participants in the issue are E. H. Rollins & Sons, A. E. Lewis & Co. and Stephens & Co.

DEMAND FOR MUNICIPALS.

The strong demand for good municipal bond issues at the prevailing interest rates is reflected in the readiness with which these bonds are bought by the public.

The local office of the National City Company yesterday received word that its New York office was offering a $250,000 issue of Cumberland, Md., general improvement bonds, the short-term bonds being offered on a 6 per cent basis and the long-term maturities on a 6½ basis.

FEDERAL RESERVE.

At the close of business July 23, according to the weekly comparative statement of condition the Federal Reserve Bank for the Los Angeles district carried a $4,000,000 lower total reserve than for the preceding week, but nearly $9,000,000 more than for the corresponding week in 1919. Total resources were $426,122,000 as compared with $426,388,000 for the preceding week and $329,031,000 for the corresponding week a year ago. Federal Reserve notes in circulation decreased from $241,135,000 to $236,850,000 and earning assets increased from $206,505,000 to $208,565,000. No change in discount rates established July 12 is noted.

NEW BOND DEPARTMENT.

The Guaranty Trust Company of New York has incorporated its bond department into a separate company, with an authorized capital of $5,000,000. All of the stock will be held by the parent company. The department will begin business about October 1.

SPEAKING OF BUILDING.

An inspired San Franciscan in the Philadelphia Public Ledger has the audacious nerve to say that San Francisco is the new center of gravity on the American continent and to prove his assertion he quotes building permit statistics. Naturally enough he fails to mention Los Angeles, whose building permits for the first six months in 1920 totalled $34,197,830 as compared with San Francisco's $14,872,510. These figures are vouched for by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. Looks as though the center of gravity had slipped a cog.

LOS ANGELES STOCKS.

United Eastern continued to slip yesterday and reached a new low level of $2.47, a 3-point decline for the day. Other listings were sluggish and weak. A few small blocks of Associated Oil sold down to $89 from an opening of $90, and General Petroleum registered light sales at $128. Mascot at $2.10; Union of California at $175 and United at 68½ cents gives an idea of the general trend of the oils. Industrials were indifferently active and with downward price tendencies. California Delta Farms registered $49.75; Goodyear preferred, $90.25; Goodyear Textile, $89. There was little virility to the trading, which was confined within a narrow scope.

PERSONAL MENTION

C. M. Knox, sales manager for the Los Angeles district for the H. W. Dubiske Company, left last evening, accompanied by Mrs. Knox, for a two-week visit to the home office in Chicago, where he will attend a series of conferences over forthcoming issues.

NEW FORD CAR.

The Los Angeles financial world is interested in the announcement that Henry Ford has perfected a new type of car to be all metal and carry a vibrationless engine. The announcement is made almost simultaneously with the clearing of the $60,000,000 commercial note issue arranged by the company a year ago. There is no indication at this time whether the new car will mean an opportunity for participation in its promotion, but it is said that the new model is one of the ideals of Henry Ford, when he started to obtain entire control of the motor company stock within the family. Another phase of the program is to make available for every farmer at a moderate price, a tractor, a truck and a passenger automobile.

WALL STREET SUPPORT, FIRM MANCHESTER CABLES STRENGTHEN MARKET.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—With moderate trading the cotton market opened firm today, with prices unchanged to 12 points higher, based on support from southern commission houses and Wall street, and on the firmness of cables due to Manchester buying.

After the opening prices advanced 16@22 points over last night, with October at 32.60 and December 31.10, mainly on covering, but reacted about 70@10 points from this level under the reports of a southern cotton house making condition 75.5, or an increase of 4.16 per cent over last month.

GRAIN CLOSES STRONG ON ACTIVE SUPPORT.

OPPOSITION DEVELOPS TO PREVENT FURTHER DECLINE; FIRM UNDERTONE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, July 28.—Resistance was met by short sellers of grain on the week spots today. It was the first time in nearly a week that opposition has developed to prevent prices from declining, and numerous rallies and breaks were the result. Values responded more readily to buying, and at the last there was little corn or oats offered, while values advanced and closed with gains of 2¼@2½c on corn and 1½@2c on oats, with July leading in the latter and September in the corn. Wheat acted weak and closed 1c lower to ½c higher.

The break of around 40c in corn from the high of last month and other declines induced extensive profit-taking.

At no time were corn prices as low as the previous day's close.

Wheat was well absorbed on the breaks, while bulges met good selling by hedgers and others. Commission houses had good buying orders for December at $2.33, the inside for the day. The close was at $2.34@2.34 3-4. Cash houses were good buyers of oats futures. The market showed a firm undertone from the start and a lack of bear pressure.

NEW POTATOES AGAIN ON DOWNWARD TREND.

OTHER LINES ARE WEAKER UNDER DULL BUYING; LIMA BEANS SLUMP SHARPLY.

The trend of the local produce market was again sharply downward for many lines of fruit and vegetables during the session yesterday, and the undertone of the market was weaker. Receipts were in moderate supply, but buying was light and the offerings of the farmers and wholesalers were moved slowly, with the result that a weaker undertone prevailed. Apricots, however, moved up under pressure of an active demand. Arrivals were liberal, but good stock was scarce, and as a result best stock was selling at a premium of 50 cents per lug but over the prevailing prices of Tuesday's market.

New potatoes dropped sharply, both on the local market, and in the shipping market. Fancy No. 1 stock was selling to local retailers at $4.00 to $4.75 per hundred pounds, as compared with $4.75 to $5.25 of the preceding day, and in the shipping market prices were 25 to 50 cents per sack lower, according to the quality and condition of the offerings. Prices in the yards slumped 4 cents per pound during the day, selling at 6 to 8 cents, as compared with previous quotations of 10 to 12 cents per pound. Crabapples were in more liberal supply, and the market was 10 to 15 cents per pound lower for all grades. Strawberries also slumped, despite the fact that arrivals yesterday were limited. Best stock was selling at $5.00 per crate, as compared with $5.50 of the preceding day, while the poorer grades were selling as low as $4.75 per crate. Supplies of watermelons increased sharply, and sales of this commodity ruled 1 to 1½ cents per pound lower. Red and Yellow onions remained firm and unchanged, but White Globes dropped about 25 cents per sack during the day, and fancy cushas, of which arrivals were heavy, made a decline of 1 cent per pound, the top price yesterday being 2 cents per pound.

Bond Market

BY. C. F. SEIDEL,
Manager, Bond Department, Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank.

"Banking conditions throughout this country are fundamentally sound. The 'inflation' about which we hear so much relates mainly to the prices of commodities, including, unfortunately, the necessities as well as the luxuries of life; and it exists to only lesser extent in legitimate commercial loans and discounts; also in certain industrial securities. Certainly, there can hardly be said to be inflation at the present time in most of the standard investment bonds and shares.

"Those responsible for the management and direction of the country's financial and banking systems thoroughly understand the situation, and have abundant resources to meet safely any contingency that may arise. With reasonable co-operation on the part of consumers and business men and the banking position, there need not be the slightest apprehension as to the ability to avert trouble and to solve successfully whatever financial problems may be before us—but there must be this co-operation."

This straightforward statement was made a few weeks ago by John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency. Already commercial loans and discounts have shown a decrease in volume and while bonds are low in price, it is fair to assume that present low prices with high yields will not continue indefinitely. It would therefore seem to be the part of wisdom to take advantage now through purchases in the bond market. Here are a few of the available issues at the Bond Department of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank:

* * * * * * * * *

The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's 5-year 7 per cent Convertible Gold Notes—coupon notes of $1000, $500 and $100. The company also owns the entire capital stock of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company of Illinois, which owns and operates the Bell Telephone System of East St. Louis, Ill., and over 90 per cent of the capital stock of the Dallas Telephone Company, operating in Dallas, Texas. In addition to these seven smaller telephone companies which operate in the above territory are controlled and the company connects with other systems which it does not own. Bonds at 97½ and interest, to yield over 7.60 per cent.

The Utah-Idaho Sugar Company's First Mortgage Serial 7 per cent Gold Bonds—Coupon bonds in denominations of $1000 and $500. This is about 2½ times the volume of oil handled in 1919, the average of which is given as 18,300,000 barrels. Prices of bonds 94½ and interest, yielding 7.80 per cent.

* * * * * * * * * *

Who Are the Greatest Men in Every Community?

The Promoters—they have vision—see opportunities—grasp them—develop gigantic institutions and projects. There are two kinds—substantial and speculative. Don't class fakers as promoters! Without promoters millions of dollars would be idle—labor unemployed.

Realize what promoters like Morgan, Hill, Harriman and Huntington have accomplished.

We are promoting the United Mortgage and Loan Corporation, as sound and clean as any proposition ever presented. It is, in our judgment, the safest and most profitable that the market affords. The reason—loans exclusively under the Amortization Plan (principal and interest paid on installments, decreasing loan—increasing security—compounding both principal and interest—money flowing into 32 channels in 10 years. Earns more than double straight loan.

Truly an organization "of, by and for the people." Full share of all the earnings—voice in the management. In short, absolute equality!

We (11 in number) recommend and ask you to investigate this offering. Our individual record, for over twenty years in Southern California, warrants the public's confidence.

Subscriptions, in amounts from $100 to $5000 cash or payments, accepted.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—The stock market wavered at the beginning of today's session, strengthened in spots at midday and made further progress later, but reacted just before the close, when the professional element renewed its attack on selected issues, notably steel and equipments.

There were few traces of the extensive liquidation and attendant declares which characterized yesterday's business, trading falling to but 575,000 shares.

Money was easy; the rate for call loans falling to 7 per cent in the final hour, after opening at 8 per cent, the latter quotation being 1 per cent under yesterday's initial rate. This relaxation was surprising in view of the continued depletion of local reserves by interior banks and additional payments for Federal account.

Industrial conditions offered little encouragement to the constructive side, trade authorities predicting further curtailment of production at leading steel and iron centers as a result of another unfavorable turn in the railroad labor situation.

The United States Steel Corporation's report for the year's second quarter, issued yesterday, was disappointing to bullish interest and gossip continued to deal adversely with conditions in other important lines of industry.

Exchange on London, Paris and Italian points extended its recent reaction. Receipt of a small amount of gold from California at the subtreasury was announced.

Popular bonds, including Liberty and international issues, were inclined to ease moderately on enlarged dealings. Total sales, par value, aggregated $10,450,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

BARLEY RECOVERS TO STRONGER CLOSE.

Barley recovered during the session on the local grain exchange yesterday, and the trend of the market was upward in sympathy with the advances made in the outside markets, despite the fact that little support was offered during the day to either the nearby or future deliveries. At the close of yesterday's call twenty-day barley was $1.50 per ton, higher, selling at $2.05½. July barley ruled $2.00 per ton higher in bid price, August and December shipments moved up $1.00 per ton higher during the day, with sales of the former at $2.56@4 and $2.57½. September barley closed 75 cents per ton higher. Two cars of barley for eight-day shipment were sold for $2.60, and 100 tons for the first half of August delivery brought $2.65¼.

HEAVY ACCUMULATION OF LAST YEAR'S WHEAT.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Wheat from last year's crop carried over totaled 109,318,000 bushels, July 1, compared with 46,607,000 bushels of the 1918 crop on hand the corresponding day last year, said an announcement today by the Department of Agriculture.
Crops on farms in country mills and elevators, exclusive of large accumulations, all showed an increase over 1919 totals. This year farmers held 47,756,000 bushels, against 19,261,000 bushels in 1919, the figures perhaps reflecting disturbed conditions during the rust year.

WEDS GIRL ASSAILED IN DIVORCE HEARING.

When Miss Ruth Cruzen appeared as the central figure in a recent divorce case, George B. Newhouse testified in her behalf and declared he loved her. He proved it yesterday when it was learned that he had married Miss Cruzen in Riverside last Saturday. Records made public yesterday showed that the young couple had obtained a license to wed and a few hours later were married by Rev. H. M. Jamieson, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church in Riverside.
Miss Cruzen was named as the corespondent in the divorce suit of Mrs. Euphrasia Van Camp and Frank Van Camp, a seafood packer, which was heard in Judge Crail's court. Miss Cruzen was formerly stenographer for Mr. Van Camp and Mrs. Van Camp charged her husband with being too attentive to the girl. The stenographer emphatically denied the charges.
At the time of the trial Mr. Newhouse testified he was engaged to marry Miss Cruzen and that references in the diary of the stenographer referred to him and not to Mr. Van Camp.

RANCHERS COMPLAIN OF CHICKEN THIEVES.

Chicken thieves are said to be operating in the vicinity of San Fernando Road and Wicks avenue. Four ranchers who live near there say they have missed several hundred chickens in the last few nights. It is suspected that the men, who are thought to be Mexicans, use an automobile to aid them in their operations. The police have been notified, and a close watch is being maintained on markets and other places where the stolen fowls may be disposed of.

FISHERMEN ARM TO RESIST LAW.

Fourteen Poaching Austrians Taken into Custody.

"Tough Customers," Asserts Protection Officer.

Police Held Ready to Cope With Sea Marauders.

The patrol boat waited for three hours, said Officer Harrington, until the haul of twenty tons of tuna, approximating a value of about $2700, was taken in, and then the officers went aboard. The fishermen, said Harrington, asked to communicate with another fishing boat and when the latter had drawn near the crew of the New Mexico turned on the officers and with rifles in hand ordered the latter off.
Following the arrest of the crew a message was received by Chief Deputy Sheriff Manning from Justice of the Peace Windle at Avalon that from fourteen to fifteen of the Austrian boats were fishing within the three-mile limit, and yesterday the Albicore was kept busy clearing district 20 of such boats. A special effort is being made by the officers to find the boat which went to the assistance of the New Mexico when the crew of the latter resisted arrest.

WILL CONFISCATE NET.

A purse net used by the crew of the New Mexico in the forbidden waters will be confiscated as soon as Officer Harrington has secured the proper court order. The net is one and one-quarter miles long and valued at $5000.
Officer Harrington says crews of three Austrian fishing boats were arrested during the earlier part of the week and fined $10 a man in a Long Beach court.
"Those Austrians are tough customers," said Officer Harrington, "and frankly assert that they have a right to fish anywhere they please. They will find before long that they will either have to abide by the law or go elsewhere. We have very little trouble with local fishermen. When they do get within the restricted district they quickly get out into other waters when told to do so."
There has been ill feeling among the fishermen and game wardens ever since the arrest of the owner of the Minnie F. for putting into Catalina with fish nets several months ago.

CONFER HERE TODAY ON AID TO SOLDIERS.

THREE-DAY MEETING TO TAKE UP CASES OF CRIPPLED AND TUBERCULAR.

The heads of all the district offices and branches of the government vocational and rehabilitation service will meet in Los Angeles today for the beginning of a three-day conference, during which the entire vocational system will be explained to the men, and aid for the crippled soldiers will be hastened. By the action of the officials here, new branches will be established in other cities so that disabled men will receive instructions in all parts of the West.
Calvin F. McIntosh, one of the three lay members of the Federal board, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday. He stated that this conference is but one branch of the work, the others being taken care of in the high schools and with the crippled men in industries. These two branches have the co-operation of the State. The present work of the division which is holding the conference here is to expedite the work of giving aid to the disabled.
The board has found that on the Coast there is a great deal of work to be done among tuberculosis cases. It is to aid these men suffering from the "white plague" that the board has come here. Uel W. Lamkin, director-in-chief of the vocational work, arrived at the Clark Hotel last night and will address those who attend the meeting today at Normal Hill. While this is a conference of officials, any of the men who are interested in the work have been invited to attend.
By a recent act of Congress the pay of the former soldiers who are studying the vocational work will be increased by $20 a month. Those that receive the increase will number 90 per cent of the men disabled during the war.
District headquarters in the West, which will be represented at the conference, include Los Angeles, New Orleans, Dallas, San Francisco, Denver, Minneapolis, St. Louis and Seattle. Brances from which the work will be carried on are located in El Paso, Salt Lake, Portland, San Diego and other western cities.

MUSTY CASE COMES FROM APPEAL COURT.

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD JUDGMENT IN FAVOR OF CITY IN WHARF FIGHT REVERSED.

Memories of litigation ten years ago on the part of the city of Los Angeles to secure at the harbor certain real estate for warehouse purposes, were revived yesterday by the action of Department One of the District Court reversing a judgment of former Judge Walter Bordwell in favor of the city, in the action brought by the municipality against A. R. Kover and the Outer Harbor Dock and Wharf Company to condemn certain property, and also reversing the action of the trial court in refusing the defendants a new trial.
The original case was begun Sept. 6, 1910, judgment followed Sept. 5, 1912, and final judgment of condemnation was placed on the books of the Superior Court Nov. 26, 1912.
The court finds that the proposed warehouse location is on the land of the appellants on a bluff fifty feet or more higher than the nearest wharves, therefore the warehouses are not to be located upon any wharf or adjacent to any wharf of the city. The warehouses are to be physically separate and distinct from the wharves and have no connection therewith.
The court further holds that to say a warehouse constructed upon a wharf must be regarded as a part of the wharf is by no means equivalent to a ruling that the power to condemn property for use as a warehouse at a location distinctly different from that of the wharf, is included in the power to condemn property for the use of the wharf.
In other words, that while property intended to be used specifically for wharf purposes may be condemned under the statutes, other property situated away from that especial site cannot be condemned for the use of a warehouse, when, as in this case, it is situated far away from the wharf property.

BURGE AGAIN QUIZZED.

He and Barton Before Grand Jury in Graft Inquiry.

Former Police Commissioner R. T. Burge was examined by the grand jury yesterday in the investigation of the so-called police graft. All the members of the Chinatown police squad were subpoenaed. The inquiry is being conducted by Dist.-Atty. Woolwine and Deputy District Attorney Doran. The charges of graft are being thoroughly sifted by the grand jury. Others witnesses called into the grand jury room were Dr. Robert C. Barton and Gus Carrillo; the latter is in the City Jail.

The New Angle

What sort of an ENTERPRISE returns real money on your investment? That's the new angle! Have you ever given it thought? You know that an enterprise is something to consider carefully—that action, an aggressive drilling campaign, is the primary reason for many an oil company's success. It's oil that gets the money to pay dividends. And it's action that gets the oil, if there's any to be obtained. No effort was more earnest than that of the Lahontan Oil Syndicate, which is now engaged in drilling for oil on its 3200-acre holding. The well is now down 375 feet and the drill is pounding away that it may be completed as soon as possible. That's action. And the Lahontan Oil Syndicate has much in its favor that its action may meet with success.
It does not require the outlay of a large amount of cash to secure, say 500 shares. $25 will do it, and four monthly installments of the same amount. Take our advice and look into this NOW! This stock is in demand now, and if you delay you may miss this great opportunity.

Earnings 5.83 Times the Annual Interest

The stability of well-secured convertible short-term notes has long made this form of investment a favorite with conservative investors. The five-year secured 7½% gold notes described below occupy a very favorable position both as regards assets and earnings, the audited earnings for 1919 being equal to 5.83 times the annual interest on these notes. With such earnings, the 8% yield made possible by present conditions is decidedly unusual and the privilege of conversion into the preferred and common stock adds an opportunity for enhancement in the value of the principal as well.

The consolidated net earnings over a series of years make a consistent and convincing record, the audited statements showing an amount available for interest, depletion, etc., equal to 5.83 times the annual interest on these notes for the year 1919, and averaging over 5 times such interest for the past three years.
The notes have the benefit of a sinking fund provision at the rate of $2,000,000 every six months for the purchase of the notes at or below 100 and interest.
A feature is the noteholder's privilege of converting each $1000 note into $1000 par value (ten shares) 8% Cumulative Sinking Fund Preferred Stock and 2½ shares Common Stock of the Company.

ONE-HALF MILLION

STILL ANOTHER NURSE RECOMMENDS TANLAC

Oregon Woman Testifies to Powers of This Medicine —Overcame Suffering of Six Years' Standing and She Gained Forty Pounds

"Although it has been almost two years since Tanlac has relieved me of my troubles and built me up so wonderfully I'm still feeling fine and can testify to both the immediate and lasting results one gets from the medicine," declared Mrs. J. F. Meikle of 908 Francis Avenue, Portland, Or.

Mrs. Meikle, a widely known trained nurse, is only one of many in her profession who have endorsed Tanlac, and her statement, coming as it does from one of such wide experience in relieving suffering, will be of interest to everyone.

"For six or seven years I suffered terribly from stomach trouble and rheumatism. After eating a little something I would have heartburn so bad that I could hardly stand it, and the gas pains in my stomach were simply awful.

"I underwent an operation for appendicitis, and it left me in such a bad rundown condition it didn't look like I was ever going to regain my strength.

"Inflammatory rheumatism set in and my arms and joints pained me dreadfully. In fact, my hands had to be put in splints for about six weeks to keep from becoming distorted and growing out of shape. My nerves were terribly upset, and at night I was so restless that I could scarcely sleep. I was simply miserable, and became very much alarmed over my condition.

"As I said, it was about two years ago when I started on Tanlac, and it was lucky for me that I did, for after taking seven bottles I had actually gained forty pounds in weight, and was enjoying good health again.

"The rheumatism left me entirely, my stomach never troubled me, and my sleep was sound and refreshing. I can certainly vouch for the good merits of Tanlac, and a number of people have experienced its benefits through my recommendation."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Stores.—[Advertisement.

CHALONER ACTS MYSTIC ROLE.

Millionaire, With Woman's Fan, Plays Medium's Part.

Has Fine Fun With Spirits of Lincoln and Carnegie.

Plans to Star in Cinema Play Exposing "Lunacy Trust."

Between "communications" with George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Princess de la Moskowa and Nina Lee Deloney, John Armstrong Chaloner, New York millionaire now here, yesterday announced that he is completing arrangements for producing a cinema play in which he will be the star as the "first big shot at the lunacy trust" on which he has declared a seven-year war.

After announcing preliminary plans, by special request of a newspaper man, he brought into play what he terms his X-faculty and enlightened the group of reporters who were interviewing him, on conditions in heaven and hell after outlining his cinema production program. The interview which came on the day which ended his first year's warfare on the trust also brought to a close Mr. Chaloner's period of living under an alias as J. A. Chilton at the Alexandria where he has been for almost two weeks.

Asserting that he is the only scientific medium in the world's history, Mr. Chaloner proceeded to demonstrate by asking his "subconsciousness" whether he could communicate with it. Using a blue pencil and a pad of white paper, he began his communications upon receiving what he said was an affirmative reply.

Then revelations began literally to spout from his subconsciousness and he repeated what he wrote. Some of his subconscious statements were as follows:

Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt says there is no prohibition in the other world although "getting loaded" is most severely punished; Satan is God's right-hand minister or District Attorney and not the foul liar and murderer he is supposed to be.

George Washington thinks the League of Nations is the greatest idea that has been conceived in the last century or more, although he does not favor it without reservations that will prevent European entanglements.

Abraham Lincoln says the cause of the world unrest is that the millennium is approaching and that Christ's second coming is near. The millennium is not a "time of cakes and ale" as most people believe. In his second visit to earth, Christ will not be meek and lowly, but rather will be more like the Hindu god of destruction, Siva.

Princess de la Moskowa refused to comment on present fashions for women for fear of putting Mr. Chaloner "in a hole before the ladies."

Andrew Carnegie remained mute on being asked how to earn a few honest dollars.

Exuberant is a mild term for Mr. Chaloner's actions during the interview. He bubbled enthusiasm while relating how he had experimented by appearing before a cinema camera to see how he would film. He produced copies of a letter which he said had been sent to Harry Kapf, manager of the Brunton studio, asking to make arrangements for a five-reel production there.

The work of screening the play will not begin until early in 1921, he said, because of three lectures to be delivered in New York in November, December and January. "Robbery Under Law" will be the title of the play which is to be based on his experiences while in an asylum and after his escape.

E. G. Money of Virginia accompanied Chaloner here and acted the part of his good man Friday. Chaloner was clothed in a white suit with large black stripes and wore a monocle which seemed to be a stranger to his eye.

A woman's fan, which he carried "to save collars" also was conspicuous. On his dresser was a copy of Hamlet.

Street Work to be Done After Lapse of Many Years.

First street, between Hill and Olive streets, is to be improved at once, ending a controversy of more than thirty-two years' duration.

Property owners on the north side of the street objected in 1888 to the improvement of the street and only the south half of the thoroughfare was opened up and paved.

A court order issued at that time has prevented the improving of the street, but Dep. City Atty. Mattoon advised the Council yesterday that the order is no longer effective, and that the street work may now be completed.

A bluff overhangs the street at this point and in the past the recurrent rock falls have constituted a real danger to traffic.

HILLMAN DENIED JURY.

Millionaire's Divorce Case Comes to Court in November.

The divorce suit of Bessie Olive Hillman against Clarence D. Hillman, millionaire resident of Pasadena, will not be tried by a jury. Judge Wellborn decided that point yesterday when he denied Mr. Hillman's motion for a jury trial. Mr. Hillman contended that a jury should try the case which involves an estate of several million dollars. The trial was set down for November and will be heard by Judge Wellborn. In her complaint Mrs. Hillman charged cruelty, and evidence is expected to be introduced on the part of the wife to show that her husband was attentive to other women.

GIRL IN ROBBER CAR.

Young Woman Drives Auto Used by Two Hold-up Men.

Police yesterday were unable to find any trace of a young woman and two men who, operating a large black automobile, early yesterday morning held up and robbed a restaurant at 1237 South Main street and several pedestrians. The bandits failed to secure much loot and escaped in their automobile, which was driven by the woman.

GOOD GROWTH IN NEAR-BY PLACES.

San Bernardino, Glendora and Sierra Madre Win; Redlands Loses.

San Bernardino, Glendora and Sierra Madre, the latter two towns in Los Angeles county, have all shared the population growth which has been pronounced in most of the towns and cities of the Southland, according to census figures announced at Washington yesterday. Redlands alone in yesterday's list shows a slight decrease.

The city of San Bernardino now has a population of 18,721, says the census office, an increase of 5942, or 46.5 per cent, since 1910. Redlands is credited with 9571 inhabitants, a decrease of 878, or 8.4 per cent.

Glendora and Sierra Madre, both in Los Angeles county, also show good growth. Glendora was not incorporated at the time of the last census, but unofficially had a population of about 900. This year the population is given as 2028. Sierra Madre's figures are given as 2026, a gain of 723, or 55.5 per cent, since the 1910 count.

Waycross, Ga., has 18,068 people now, an increase of 3583, or 24.7 per cent.

Temblor-Made Oil Finds Prove Only Old Capped Wells

A puddle of oil, found by passing motorists in the Occidental Boulevard parkway near Third street, caused several excited citizens to report to the City Hall yesterday that the recent tremblors had opened up a new oil well in the fashionable residential district, which was formerly oil-producing territory.

According to the street cleaner who has been caring for the parkway during the last nine years, the slight flow of oil has been oozing out of the parkway since the first year of his regime. He explained that an abandoned well once stood on the spot and ever since that time the oil breaks through the surface and spreads onto the pavement.

A similar puddle of oil was found on the sidewalk at Wilshire Boulevard and Rampart street. An abandoned well also stood on this spot in the years gone by.

Commissioner McGuire of the Board of Public Works and City Engineer Griffin made an inspection of the two seepages yesterday afternoon and gave it as their opinions that the flow of oil had nothing to do with the earthquake shocks, but came from old wells that had been imperfectly capped. Maj. Griffin will start men to work immediately digging down to the old well casing so that they can be permanently capped with concrete.

ASK BIDS ON BONDS.

Bids for the $135,000 of 6 per cent bonds for the building of an outfall sewer on Gulf avenue, Wilmington district, are to be asked for by the city if the Council adopts the recommendation of its Finance Committee decided upon yesterday. Offers are to be directed to the Finance Committee, City Hall, and received up to 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

FOR WHOLESALE ZONING SCHEME.

Strait-Jacket for Wilshire District is Planned.

Realty Board Would Set Up Trade Restrictions.

Says Idea is Greatest Good for Greatest Number.

Urging the enactment of ordinances for the zoning of the Wilshire district, the Realty Board yesterday forwarded a communication to the Council recommending the division of the district into business and residential sections.

"The situation in this district," the letter states, "in its present unregulated condition, has seriously interrupted business and has thrown the investing public, as well as the present property owners, into a very unhealthy frame of mind, with serious financial losses threatened. The spirit in which the Los Angeles Realty Board has entered upon this work of making such recommendations is, we believe, thoroughly understood, in that we are agreed that the greatest good to the greatest number might be recognized."

Under the recommendations of the Realty Board offices, stores and any kind of flats, apartments or residences, but excluding public garages, oil stations, dyeing and cleaning works, or undertaking parlors, are to be permitted on Western avenue between Temple street and Wilshire Boulevard, on West Sixth street from Vermont avenue to Berendo street, and at the intersection of Vermont avenue with West First, Ninth and Tenth streets, and at West Tenth street and South Norton avenue. Additional store buildings may be constructed on West Sixth and Fifth streets, provided a majority of property owners favor them.

Public garages, oil filling stations dyeing and cleaning establishments are to be permitted, if the Council adopts the recommendations of the Realty Board, on Western avenue from West Second to West Third streets and from West Fifth to West Sixth streets.

The Realty Board pledges itself to bring about the removal of all signs on Wilshire Boulevard and, as far as possible, throughout the whole neighborhood, and requests the Council to vigorously enforce the ordinance against signs in this district. The board also urges the Council and the City Planning Commission to work out an ordinance limiting flats and apartments to certain definite blocks.

"We are in hearty accord," the communication states, "with the protection of Wilshire Boulevard as one of the greatest show drives and and thoroughfares of the city, and pledge ourselves to maintain it permanently as a residence district."

The communication, which was signed by President O. A. Vickrey, chairman of the special committee of the board, will come before the Council this morning.

TWO ARE BANKRUPT.

Charles S. Chesthut of Long Beach filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday, giving his debts as $3211, all unsecured. The assets are given as $2015, consisting of a life insurance policy and personal effects, all exempt under the law. Giving as among his assets a note signed by a man of the name of Griffith, whom he says he never saw, calling for the payment of $5000, which he says is worthless, C. C. Caley of Anaheim filed a petition in bankruptcy in the same court yesterday. His debts are scheduled as $4329.93. He has no other assets.

"Mrs. Johnson at 2349 Wilshire—yes ma'am."

"I want to order two Banana Nut Bricks of CRESCENT ICE CREAM and a four pound decorated BIRTHDAY CAKE, to be delivered not later than 4:30 p.m., Thursday."

"Yes, Mrs. Johnson."

"Also, two quarts of CRESCENT MILK and one pound of CRESCENT BUTTER, which the milkman can leave in the morning. Certainly it is convenient to order all these things from the same place!"
